

Style Show Plans

Girls Scouts try on dresses they will model in the fashion show to be presented by the Girl Scout Troop 14 in the YMCA Thursday night at 7:30. The models are Virginia Ann Patterson, age 3; Brenda Butler, age 10; Carol Butler, age 14; Sharon Patterson, age 10.

Local Girl Scouts to Show Spring Fashions Thursday

Girl Scout Troop 14 will present a fashion show of spring clothes in the YMCA Thursday night at 7:30 to help send girls to camp this summer.

No admission will be charged but contributions will be accepted, said Miss Mary Whiteside, council assistant for Bryan-College Station Girl Scout area council.

Scout clothing and equipment will also be shown when girls between the ages of 4 and 16 model spring fashions from Lester's Smart Shop.

The girls from Troop 14 will be assisted by other scouts and Brownies. Brownies Scouts will also usher.

Members of Troop 14 who will model teen age styles are Misses Margaret Anderson, Margaret Berry, Carol Butler, Ann Fleming, Janet Folweiler, Rita Hughes, Sally Puddy, Claire Rogers, and Jean Anne Smith and Clarice Andrews. Models for younger styles will be troop sisters Jean Ann Smith, Dorothy Berry and Brenda Butler. These girls are members of Girl Scout or Brownie troops are Louise Thompson and Charon Patterson who will also model. Virginia Ann Patterson will model tot styles.

Mrs. Bill Turner is assisting in teaching the girls correct posture, turning, and walking. Mrs. D. A. Anderson and other troop mothers are serving on various committees, such as music, decorations, the rehearsal, publicity, and other details in preparation of the show. Mrs. Erwin R. Brigham is Troop leader.

The girls have completed requirements for their Clothing and Good Grooming badges in preparing for the fashion show. Among activities included in the program for these badges have been a talk on grooming and make-up for teenage girls given by Mrs. J. C. Conly, cosmetician.

Reports were made by the girls on good sleeping habits, care of the teeth, rules for being a courteous sales person and customer, correct and incorrect taste in dress, demonstrations and correct washing methods, cleaning methods, shoe polishing, mending and good grooming charts.

Dairy Conference Slated March 19-20

A scoring clinic for frozen desserts and cottage cheese will be held at the Dairy Manufacturers conference at A&M March 19-20.

"This will provide an opportunity for the attendants to survey the type of these products marketed in Texas," Dr. A. V. Moore of the A&M Dairy Husbandry department, said today.

The college staff will be supplemented at the conference by visiting speakers from other schools in the United States and by industry leaders both in and out of Texas.

"There will be special emphasis on quality control of dairy products throughout the discussions," Dr. Moore says.

More than 85 dairy products processors from the milk, ice cream and cheese plants in Texas and other states are expected to attend.

Aggs Improve, Rice?

A big surprise was the continued development of Dan Pratt, who has been hiding in the shadows of A&M's top weight man, Hooper.

Pratt started off the year where he left off last season as a mediocre discus and shot man, but has improved with every meet. In Saturday's triangular meet, Pratt shot a respectable 48 ft. 2 in. and threw the discus 143 ft.

The Aggies are favored to take firsts in the mile run, 440, shot put, high jump, pole vault, 880, two mile, mile relay, discus and broad jump.

Rice Claims Jinx

Rice is riding in the middle of a pre-season jinx that has left them with only four lettermen.

Bill Howton, third in the high hurdles in the SWC and sprint relay anchor man, last year gave up track to take a coaching job which he could combine with schooling.

Conference 880 champ, Bill Graf passed up another season of eligibility to graduate and go on duty with the Navy as an ensign. Their otp sprinter, Bobby Dean dropped out of school and this includes only part of the list.

Rice's returning lettermen include Ronnie Berger, Henry Winston, Ralph Grawunder and Teddy Riggs.

Berger took third in the SWC shot put last year while Winston, who placed second in the two mile event last week, may set the pace for the competitors visiting Houston this week.

The Owls held the conference record in the mile relay, a 3:14.3 mark by the '49 team anchored by the great Tom Cox.

Last year Rice finished second in that event, but this year's team will field only one squadman Billy Ed Daniels with promising but untried sophomores Don Dingwall, John Joiner, and Carl Hutchison.

Texas will be favored to win the 100, 220, sprint relay, low and high hurdles and the javelin.
