Imagination Plus

UP UNTIL NOW it was the architects who were noted for in Wisconsin, Sen. Kefauver their imaginative dances or balls. Now there is a new of Tennessee cut down on his rival on the horizon—the Combat A&M Cadets.

This group of cadets appears to be whipping up one of the most unusual and best planned dances of the school's history.

For one night the men who are training to be soldiers sin's April 1 primary, put aside and not service men are poking fun at the military. For one his prepared speech, declaring he night the men who are predestined to live in the mud are going to give the school something it will never forget.

Now it isn't often The Battalion, will give editorial space to the praising of a dance or a program—but this is different.

A lot of congratulations and support is due the men who working on the affair.

Kefauver told his audience at are working on the affair.

Ceiling Fan Profs

HAVE YOU ever stopped to think about what the profs are the saying in their lectures? Have you ever stepped and how notes long enough to listen to what they are saying and how istration's foreign policy before an overflow crowd of 1,000 in the Center of the contraction of the contr

Try it some time. It's worth the time and loss of notes tral School auditorium at Superior. to be entertained and lulled.

We have some teachers on this campus who if they had to earn their living as public speakers would starve a slow tactic used by enemies of Sen. sure death by starvation.

What would it be like if a few of them had to sit through their own lectures or orations? Chances are they would make an appeal to the AAUP to rid them of this form of hazing.

If it weren't impertinent we would like to suggest to many of the instructors (graduate assistants, assistant profs, looked into the status of only four associate profs and top men) take a course in public speaking. people and spent the rest of the Acheson said ne no longer feels, to strengthen the non-Communist as he did last year, that it is posworld and that it could be comsible to set a limit of three years pleted in three or four years.

Testifying before a Congression- at a peacetime peak.

This might make them quit sounding like a worn out to spend on foreign military and or so on the present high rate of

Committee Testimony

al committee which is considering

$7,900,000,000 in this foreign help,

Dames Club Picks

Mrs. Joann Strickler was elected as a Cotton Ball duchess by the meeting in the YMCA.

Cotton Duchess

"You cannot look ahead and say administration's request for economic help.

U.S. foreign aid.

Acheson said:

Kefauver Cuts Words European Trade Goes One Way Shakes Har

Wisconsin Rapids, Wisc., March 20—(A)—Winding up his first day of campaigning wordage last night so he could shake more hands. Kefauver, who has flipped his presidential ring and into Wisconwas pressed for time in order to meet personally as many as he could in his audience of 2,200.

Among the Republican presidential candidates in the state, last night, Sen. Taft of Ohio kept up his criticism of the administration's Wisconsin Rapids' Lincoln Field House that "this is a time of tre-mendous challenge. I know the people of the United States can outdo the slave people any time. We want to convince the people of world their best course lies Asked what he thought about McCarthy (R-Wis.)."

"McCarthy was more than jusof Communist influences in the State Department," Taft said. cation (of McCarthy's charges) time mostly investigating McCar-thy." Taft did not name the four

(Editor's Note-This is the fifth in a series of articles on European conditions written by Mr. Davis. The writer was the winner of the European Travel Award last year.)

By DAN DAVIS

Well, income-tax time is past, and the American public is carrying a well deflated pocketbook. Axe in hand, legislators and tax-payers alike are looking at the Federal budget for the coming fiscal year.

One of the easiest items of the budget to attack is the coonskin cap into the Democratic 7.9 billion dollars allocated to bolster our allies, economically and militarily. Everyone agrees that allies are desirable; that the free world must be united. The question is, "Why must we pay the bill?" and, "will this aid ever cease?"

"dollar shortage". Although the dollar shortage has cost the crease their employment and national income. American people billions of dollars, few Americans understand the problem is represents.

ly, wrecked the economy of the European nations and destroyed much of their capacity to produce. The war also the part of the European countries, we have not appreciately disrupted the channels of trade of those same countries. In short, these nations have no source for products other than their goods in our country.

The elementary fact that few of us realize is that "A big creditor nation that won't import can't expect payment protect our infant industries. Yet because of these san exports, ever.'

INTERNATIONAL trade operates essentially upon the barter system. The dollar shortage is only a symptom of a

Showtime

Bugle Blows--Not Much Happens Though

By JERRY BENNETT Battalion Staff Writer

'Bugles in the Afternoon', starring Ray Milland, Hugh Marlow and Helena Carter-Warner Bros.—Queen Theater.

of a familiar story which so far ments of "Romeo and Juliet."

Once again, the old time Holly- tion, Ray Milland is out of char-

Washington, March 20—(P)— this job can be done in two years could be completed in four years. The most important piece of news or three years. You have to pro-But already in that year relations this week—for the lives and pock-ceed on an annual basis as we do with Russia had begun to take an the week—for the fives and pocked on an animal basis as we do with our domestic military budget.

From Secretary of State Acheson.

Because of uncertainty over certainty is that it will be necessary to continue for one more year gress, there's no way of telling how much this country will have magnitude."

Took Over Czechoslovakia

That year the Communist took over Czechoslovakia in a coup that frightened the West. In 1949 this spection teams.

was hardly more than a gesture since it was not backed by arms. This country didn't begin its spectors from Panmunjom to any ever mussing her clothes. n arming until June 1950, when port of entry.

ure for Europe in 1951 to whip an exchange proposal were "not very

Prisoner Exchange

"They merely reiterated their former views of settling the question on the basis of data exchanged Dec. 18," he said. "They reiterated their former views about reiterated their former views about reiterated their former views about and still realize he has eaten this

On March 5 the Reds suggested pared for war for a generation. ly a sweepstakes in tragedy
That couldn't be done without high this time — have their runtaxes and personal sacrifices.

In March 5 the Reds suggested going ahead with prisoner exchang negotiations on the basis of original rosters.

U.N. negotiators

Director Speaks Here Their luster will be dimmed by asked seven questions in an effort

LI'L ABNER

H, CUSS THET

fall off its horses harder and fast-

Bruised veterans of such violent gymnastics, the redmen go through their tumbles with all the enthusiasm of a hungry dog in Duncan Mess Hall. In contrast, the extras "Bugles in the Afternoon" is in blue die with the grace of a Warner Brother's noisy little echo ballerina in one of the duller mom-AS THE scourge of the reserva-

For Arms and Economic Aid wood cavalry goes on location to acter weilding a saber instead of keep the Indians in practice bit- a cocktail glass. Whether wrest-ing the dust. The result is a steen-ling with his girl or the Indians, wood cavalry goes on location to acter weilding a saber instead of uous contest to see which side can his precise English voice never Hugh Marlow is his same impatient self again, as he portrays the villainous captain who tries to kill Milland by sending him on every dangerous mission in order to settle an old grudge and win the hand of the outpost belle, played by Helena Carter. ALWAYS DRESSED in the fin-The staff officers agreed Thursday that either side could provide est eastern finery, Miss Carter air transportation for neutral in-skips through all the dust without Occasionally Miss Carter demonthe Communists began their adventure in Korea. This was followed Communist answers to Allied questalone into Indian infested country by General Eisenhower's departions concerning the Reds' prisoner to visit friends.

Although the advertisements play up Custer's last stand, the movie's only mention of the famous massacre is a two second cut from Hollywood, March 20—(P) ditional repatriation."

After the first scenes, the customer will realize he has eaten this same technicolor dust many times before.

D. B. Mason, technical director derson, personnel director of Free-Hickman said the essence of the port, gave talks to the mechanical The usual throngs of fans will Communist reply was that the plan engineering seniors recently. They jam sidewalks and bleachers out- yould be a step forward if "we showed color films on the Frasch method of producing sulphur.

more basic trouble. We are shipping them our goods yet will not accept their goods in exchange.

The Europeans don't wish to accept charity. They wan to pay their dept in cameras, textiles, optical equipment, foods and wines, and other products which they can produc more cheaply than we.

Production and exchange of foods that can be produce more efficiently and cheaply for goods that other countries can produce more efficiently and cheaply is a universally ac cepted economic theory.

The Europeans wish to increase their American sal for two reasons, first-it would enable them to earn the do lars which would make them financially independent from our country. Secondly the increased sales in American mar-THE ANSWER to this question lies in the celebrated kets would enable them to expand production and thereby in AMERICAN policy has been such that it prevents this economic equilibrium from taking place. One would think The last war which stimulated our industry tremendous- that we didn't want to be paid.

While we have encouraged the reduction of tariffs of reduced the tariff barriers which prevent them from selling

We want to export but refuse to import.

These policies are defended on the grounds that they policies, we and the other nations lose in the long run.

THIS COUNTRY loses because we export goods and receive nothing in return except debts which can never be paid Our policy amounts to giving someone the money to buy your goods which has as a net result the presentation of a gift People on the continent lose because their production is restricted from the American market. Our ECA program amounts to nothing more than a subsidy which we pay because we do not recognize the basic problem which stems our refusal to import. Tariffs had a place in the young American economy but the time has come for us to awaken to the fact that we are the leading nation of the world and tariffs per se have out-

FINE TIME TO BE SHOWING OFF

Aggie Special ORCHID . . $3.50 Other Orchids $5.00 & $7.50 Plus ROSE CARNATION GARDENIA And Other Type Corsages

J. Coulter Smith, Florist

Phone 3-6725

1800 S. College Rd.

By Walt Kelly

The Battalion

Lawrence Sullivan Ross, Founder of Aggie Traditions "Soldier, Statesman, Knightly Gentleman"

The Battalion, official newspaper of the Agricultural and Mechanical College of Texas, is published by students five times a week, during the regular school year. During the summer terms, The Battalion is published four times a week, and during examination and vacation periods, twice a week. Days of publication are Monday through Friday for the regular school year, Tuesday through Friday during the summer terms, and Tuesday and Thursday during examination and vacation periods. Sub-

Member of The Associated Press News contributions may be made by telephone (4-5444) or at the editorial office, 201 Goodwin Hall. Classified ads may be placed by telephone (4-5324) or at tudent Activities Office, Room 209 Goodwin Hall.

The Associated Press is entitled exclusively to the use for republication of all news dispatches credited to it or not otherwise credited in the paper and local news of spontaneous origin published herein. Rights of republication of all other matter herein are also reserved.

JOHN WHITMORE Associate Editor Bill Streich Bob Selleck Women's Editor

Bob Selleck

Peggy Maddox

T. H. Baker, Jim Ashlock, Jerry Bennett, Gardner Collins, Billy Cobble

Don Copeland, J. A. Damon, Wayne Dean, Phil Gougler, Joe Hipp, Ben F. Holub, Ed. M. Holder, Charles Neighbors, Royce Price, Dave Roberts, Gene Steed, Ben M. Stevens, John Thomas, Ide Trotter, Edgar Watkins, Bert Weller

Mason L. Cashlon, Roddy Peebles, H. A. Cole

Staf

ament, taxes have been raised twice since the Fall of 1950 and now are Atlantic Pact army into shape. Shocking Statement Acheson's statement this week last year, was hoping taxes would only the optimists hoped for that.

When the defense program started after the Korean outbreak, U.S. military leaders said this country might have to remain pre-Dames Club Tuesday night at the taxes and personal sacrifices.

Back in 1947 when the then Sec-Eddie Bender and Mrs. D. W.

Acheson Uncertain of Cost

Last year Acheson figured it would cost about 27 billion dollars

To pay for this foreign aid, and strengthen this country's own arm-

Fleming, employees of Sherwin retary of State George Marshall and Williams Paint Store in Bryan, first proposed the Marshal Plan—top contenders.

Their luster will be dimmed by to clarify the proposal and to find of the Freeport Sulphur company out how it would be a step for-of New York City and E. M. Hendiscussed color combinations and which was only economic help for Of 25 lead design for walls and woodwork in U.S. allies in Europe — relations out of town. with Russia were bad but not so After the program Mesdames bad as they became later.

must have come as a shock to anyone who, remembering what he said AcademyAward Named Tonight

country and its European allies formed the Atlantic Pact which

The Academy Awards—most-

top contenders. out h
Of 25 leading nominees, 12 are ward.

Jean Thomas were-hostesses at the social hour.

Then in 1948 when Congress votside the Pantages theater. Inside, bought their proposition."

State Department thought the plan

Arts and Sciences will proceed the gold-plated statuettes, called "Oscars," for last year's best achievements.

Much of the town feels the awards will match results in a recent Associated Press nation-wide poll of movie critics.

That means Vivien Leigh will win for her portrayal of a tarnished Southern belle in "A Street-car Named Desire." She's in a New York play with her husband, Laurence Oliver.

On the same basis, "Streetcar" should win the best-picture Oscar. But "A Place In the Sun" socially-ambitious youth drowns his pregnant sweetheart) was a close second in the critics' poll.

Less likely contenders are "Deand "An American In PaPris." This last, a gay Gene Kelly musical, is the one bright spot in themes.

Managing Editor Janice Hildebrand Wins Sports Editor DAR Dress Contest DAR Dress Contest A tailored dress made of ruffin

by Miss Janice Hildebrand tied for third in the State Daughter of the American Revolution Cotton Miss Hildebrand won first place in the local contest with her plum

Down:

tinue finals

m. p

400-y

that 100-у

diving