Botany Instructor Completes Research Of Taxonomic Material in Old Mexico

Chester M. Rowell, instructor in the botany department, returned from a research expedition in Mexico recently.

Rowell and Phil Mockford, a special student of botany, have been doing individual research and collecting plant specimens for taxonomic study in Guerrero, a west coast state of Mexico. Rowell gathered material on the giant bull nettles and other plants for his dissertation.

"So rugged and torturous are the mountain regions in Guerrero, that a guide and pack mules were employed to reach certain locations," Rowell said.

Rowell and Mockford accompanied Dr. W. B. Davis, head of the wildlife management department, and his group of wildlife majors to Mexico on their annual expedition June 2.

The group, seven regular and three special students, spent several days in Mexico City, where they visited the National Biological Institute. They studied techniques of collection and preparation of animal and plant specimens.

When Dr. Davis and his group returned on July 6, Rowell and Mockford stayed to study collections and preparations of botanical specimens on their own.

Rowell and Mockford plan to go back to Mexico in succeeding years to further study vegetation.

Ten Artist Win In MSC Show

More than 10 College Station artists have been chosen winners of the summer art show in the MSC art room.

Winners of each group division as announced by Mrs. Ralph L. Terry, art instructor, are as follows:

Landscape: First place went to "Joe's Barn" by Mrs. Ruth Mogford and second place to "Out West" by Mrs. Bobbie Goldsmith.

Cabin Landscapes: First place went to "Chance Plantation" by Dr. C. B. Campbell and second to "Mogford's Barn" by Mrs. Billie Lanham.

Portrait: First place went to "Jose" by Mrs. Nettie McGehee and second place to "Mother" by Mrs. Ruth Mogford.

Floral Still Life: First place went to "Trumpet Vine" by Mrs. Nettie McGehee and second place to "Magnolia Blossom" by Mrs. Bobbie Goldsmith.

Other Still Life: First place went to "The Attic" by Mrs. Ruth Mogford and second place to "Cactus Still Life" by Mrs. Fran Barry.

Special mention winners are as follows: "Porter Prince Street Scene" by Dr. C. B. Campbell, "Sand Dunes" by Miss Grace Morrison, "Old South" by Mrs. Verna Motherall, "Barn" by Mrs. Dorothy McCullough, "Zinnias" by Miss Nina Henry, "Snake Balls" by Miss Majorie Morrison, "Green Bottle" by Mrs. Marilyn Manda, and "Still Life" by Miss Dannie Darden.

Each member was permitted three entries. Though only 41 paintings were judged, Mrs. Terry said she thinks 50 will be hung for exhibition because some entries were late. The paintings will remain on exhibition for two weeks.

Paintings by the associate members of the Art Gallery Committee were judged by the members themselves, Mrs. Terry said. "A period of general criticism, emphasizing both good and bad points, was had for each entry. Winners for each group division were chosen by secret ballot."

Thursday morning, October 2 at Guion Hall. Thereafter, they will be sold at the Office of Student Activities in Goodwin Hall. Tickets to individual performances will not be sold.

Student general admission tickets will sell for $3.50 while student reserved seat tickets will sell for $5.50.

Non-student general admission tickets will be priced at $5.50 and non-student reserved seat tickets will sell for $7.50.

Other Town Hall artists for the 1952-53 season include Ray Anthony and his orchestra, Lucille Cummings, nationally famous contralto, the Longline Symphonette, and the Fred Waring production "Festival of Song" under the direction of Lara Hoggard.

The Grove activities will continue as scheduled without any special events for the rest of summer school, Puddy announced.

Wednesday night dances have been drawing larger crowds since week-end activities have been curtailed, he added. Besides dancing, the Wednesday night crowd is participating in games of badminton, shuffle board, ping pong, and skating.

At the beginning of summer, a new sound system was installed which has greatly improved the sound qualities of movies, he explained.

Football season is not the only time The Grove is crowded. Movies shown each Monday, Tuesday, and Thursday nights are having capacity crowds, Tom Puddy, manager, said.

Hall-Cargill Wedding Held In Local Church Ceremony

The Steep Hollow Baptist Church was the scene of the ceremony Saturday, Aug. 9, which united in marriage Miss Mary Lee Hall and Charles Reese Cargill.

Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Hall, Bryan, and Mrs. and Mrs. Willy Cargill of Eddy.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Joe Boles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a dress fashioned of antique chantilly lace over crisp white organdy. Accordion pleated organdy flared from the redingote opening in a fan-like pattern. Delicate lace covered buttons outlined the bodice. A tiny collar of cut chantilly lace framed the face. Daintily scalloped sleeves completed the bodice. The bride's veil was held in place by a satin and lace heart-shaped crown. The veil cascaded down the back of the dress and was edged in old-fashioned bridal lace.

Jonette Hall, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor. J. C. Thompson of Houston was best man.

No damage was done to the building although $50 worth of old Aggie Players' equipment was burned.

The fire broke out in the southwest corner of the basement of Guion Hall Saturday at 11 a.m.

Bennie Zinn, assistant dean of men, reported the fire.

The fire was extinguished a few seconds after the fire department arrived.
