

Consolidated Wins Opener For Good Start

A&M Consolidated made a good start in the 1952 football season as they defeated the Madisonville Mustangs 26-6 Friday night on Tiger Field.

The Tiger aerial game was the big difference between the two teams as they completed 7 out of 10 passes for 162 yards and two touchdowns.

Madisonville couldn't seem to hold the ball as they fumbled three times compared to the Tigers one miscue.

Taking a six to nothing lead in the first period on a one yard plunge by back David Bonnen, the Tigers scored in every quarter and were never in difficulty.

Anderson to Hickman

Early in the second quarter a 35 yard pass play from quarterback Fred Anderson to Pete Hickman was good for the second Tiger score. The try for point by Carter was good to put Consolidated on top 13-0 at the half.

An 11 yard pass from Anderson to Bobby Jackson was the combination for the third Tiger count early in the third period.

Dickenson, one of the Mustangs top backs broke loose in the third quarter and scampered 57 yards for the only Madisonville score.

Arnold went around end in the fourth quarter to score the final Tiger TD. Carter's kick was good to end the scoring with the Tigers way ahead 26-6.

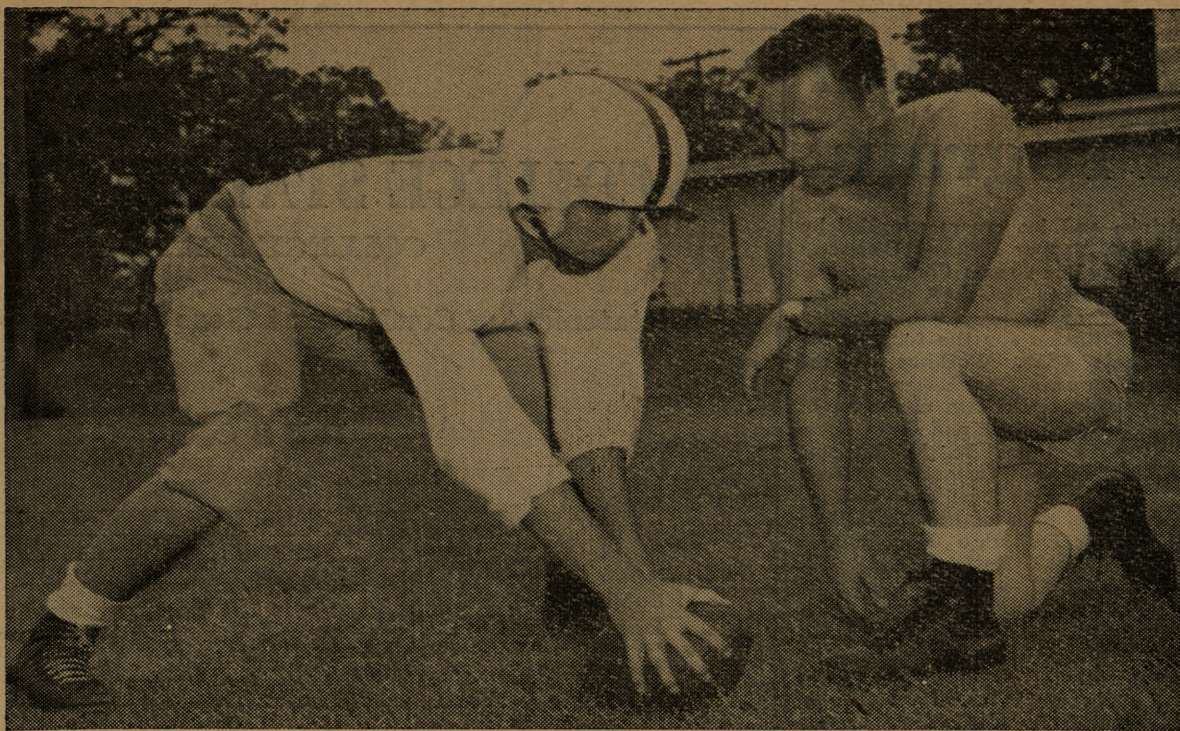

Score by periods:
Tigers 6 7 6 7-26
Mustangs 0 0 6 0-6

Dayton In Charge Of All Athletes' Condition

Bill (Doc) Dayton, as any of the Aggie athletes will tell you, is one of the greatest trainers in the country.

He not only offers the best possible remedies to his men, but he gives them a friendliness seldom equaled by men in his profession.

He is responsible for the physical shape of every man not only on

"NOW YOU'VE GOT IT"—Coach Othel Chafin of A&M Consolidated points out some of the finer details in how to shovel the ball to Pinkey Cooner, standout center for the Tigers. Chafin is sharpening his boys up this week in preparation for Friday night's game with Iowa here in Tiger Stadium. Last week Consolidated won their opener against Madisonville 26-6.

Aggie Fencers Win National Honors; Gottlob Sets Record to Help Cop SWC

The 1951-52 A&M Fencing Team took honors ranging from the SWC championship to national honors.

For two years the Aggies have tried to defeat Rice's Fencing team, and not till this, the third year of hard work and determination, did the Maroon and White succeed.

Not only did they defeat Rice, but they made a clean sweep of all the fencing competition this year. The Cadets won over Rice and Texas by a score of 40-38-30.

The Fencing Team, one of the outstanding minor sports, has been active in the Amateur Fencers League of America Competition all year. The squad is also an active member of the Gulf Coast Division AFLA, which includes teams from several Texas cities and schools.

In addition to winning the conference, the team came out SWC Team Foil Champions.

Gottlob Sets Record
John Gottlob, team captain, followed suit by placing first in each of the three weapons in individual competition. Gottlob was the first in the history of the SWC to win all three places.

As a result, he was asked to enter the Olympic Tryouts, but was forced to refuse because of sickness in his family.

The Epee team went to the Nationals in Detroit, Mich., in June. They placed fifth in the national competition.

Defeat New York
Aggie fencers were the only team to beat the squad from New York, the defending champions and winning team.

The A&M team also won both the AFLA Sectional and Divisional Foil Team Championships, and the Sectional and Divisional Sabre Team Championships.

Individual awards and championships won by members of the team are too numerous to mention, but it might be added that they brought home more than 50 per cent of the individual honors during the AFLA 1951-52 fencing season.

Freshman Program Increased
The freshman fencing program has greatly increased. Ten members composed the fish squad, and they won several individual hon-

New Intramural Set-Up Has Three Divisions

Three separate divisions will compose the A&M intramural program this year, according to Barney Welch, intramural director.

Last year separate athletic programs were used for upperclassmen and freshmen. Two programs will be used for the upperclassmen this year while the freshmen will continue with their same plan.

"The increase in the size of military units has made the splitting of the upperclassmen program a necessity," Welch said.

"Sophomores will compete against each other in one phase of the upperclassman program, with juniors and seniors combining to form the other division."

Competition for the All-Sport Championship Banner by individual units will be continued, Welch added. "Both scores of the upperclassmen division will be used in determining the winner of the flag."

Another new development in the intramural program will be the addition of an athletic staff to each unit to assist the athletic officer, Welch continued.

The first meeting of athletic officers will be at 5 p. m. Thursday in Room 301, Goodwin Hall. "It is important that all athletic officers or their representatives of both military and civilian students be present," Welch said.

Length of time in school will determine on which team a student will play, and in no instances will a man be allowed to deviate from the two teams.

In sports such as wrestling, boxing, swimming and track, only one team will represent the unit, and can be composed of any member of that unit.

A and B Teams
The upperclassmen "A" teams, composed of juniors and seniors, will begin the intramural season with basketball and tennis, while the sophomores, making up the "B" teams will start off playing football and horseshoes.

Intramural Fall Calendar
Thursday, Sept. 18—Meeting in room 301 Goodwin Hall at 5 p. m. of all Athletic Officers and Vet team managers from Military units, Veteran Dormitories, Trailer Camp, Project Houses, Vet Village and College View.

Bob Easley Signs Up With Aggies

Bob Easley has enrolled in A&M on an athletic scholarship.

Victim of one of the strangest SWC rulings, fullback Easley was given his release last week from Baylor where he spent his freshman year.

Baylor alumni supposedly entertained young Easley in a lavish manner shortly after he graduated from Reagan Houston, where he set a record as one of the state's greatest high school stars.

The SWC Ruling sentenced Easley to only two years of football if he played for Baylor. He said he wanted to play three years, so he asked Bear Coach George Sauer for his release.

ors in the AFLA competition. This year's Freshman squad hopes to have a schedule of meets.

September to May
The Aggie Fencers worked out the past year from September to May, the complete school year, from 5 p. m. till 7 p. m. Monday through Friday. Lt. Col. Frank S. Vaden, team representative, highly praised the efforts and resulting accomplishment of the team.

According to the current SWC Athletic Requirements, the following members of the Varsity Fencing Team have been recommended for major letters as they are members of the SWC Championship squad.
