Aggies Over U of Houston

By ED HOLDER
Sports Editor

The Aggies will beat the University of Houston 13 points. Ray George has a lineup dotted with inexperienced sophomores, but these boys have been improving day by day. The entire team has shown the right spirit, and they should show even more against the Cougars tomorrow night. You can look for a passing game most of the way. Ray Graves is better than last year, and he now has experienced lettermen to snag his throws. Darrow Hooper and Eric Miller will give the secondary of the Cougars a tough time all night.

Don Ellis is another good prospect for passes. And here is a boy who not only can catch them, but when called on can turn in a good job at throwing. Raymond Haas, Connie Magourik, and Don Kachtik could also be targets for Graves' aerials. The ground game will roll along well too. Magourik has been showing much improvement at fullback, as has Kachtik. Both these men have driving power, and are a threat at any time they are called upon to carry.

Down the Line
Going down the line we have Bobby Dixon and Durwood Scott at offensive tackles. Here are two tough men who know the game. They are also faster than the usual run of tackles. Marvin Tate and Sid Theriot are running at the guard slots.

They have a big job ahead of them, but from what they have shown at workouts, these light sophomores should do the job. McMahan will play center, another man showing great improvement. It will be speed and determination against heavy experienced lettermen, but with the Aggies shaping up as they have been, we're behind them, 33-20.

Tigers Battle Iola Tonight In Second Debut of Season

By GUS BECKER
Associate Sports Editor

The A&M Consolidated Tigers have their work cut out for them tonight when they tangle Iola on Tiger Field at 8 p.m.

This marks the opening game for the Iola team while the Tigers are making their second debut of the season.

"My boys will be in better physical shape this week," said Tiger Coach O. V. Chafin this morning. "They have worked hard all week and I think they are ready," Chafin continued.

"John Manthi, guard, Jimmy Bond, tackle, and Rod Cook line-backer, will probably miss the game," Chafin said. "Melvin Free will replace Manthi, Robert Cleland will play Bond's position and Bobby Carter will probably be in Cook's spot."

First Meeting
This will mark the first meeting between Iola and Consolidated since Chafin took over the Tiger reins. The Iola coach is Homer Bond, former Bryan resident.

"Bobby Joe Wade looked good in practice this week and may replace Roy Byer at the right half-back slot tonight," Chafin remarked.

The Iola team will have plenty of weight with one tackle practically breaking the scales at 350 pounds while the other is lighter at 190.

Wildlife Study Receives Grant

The Wildlife Management Institute of Washington, D. C., has sent a check for $500 to the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station to operate the Texas Cooperative Wildlife Unit.

Jack Allen, manager of the Dempster Mill Manufacturing Company of Amarillo, has loaned a two wheel dual implement trailer to the Amarillo Conservation Experiment Station, the TAES announced.

Both of the guards weigh 180 while three of the backs weigh 160. The Consolidated line averages 155 pounds.

Fred Anderson, junior quarterback on the Tiger squad drew coach Chafin's praise. "Anderson is as good a back for a straight 'T' as you can find in our class of ball," Chafin said.

"Bonnen (David) is a good full-back and Willie Arnold is about the best scat-back in our conference," he added.

"We will have better receiving at the ends this week, I believe," remarked Chafin. Bobby Jackson is a good boy and Pete Hickman looked very good.

The game promises to be an aerial offense versus power offense if the Tigers play the same brand of ball as they did defeating Madisonville 27-6 last week.
