aid for at least 50 minutes after he fell into the tunnel. Schaffer rode in the ambulance to the hospital.

A faulty spark plug was blamed for the ambulance's failure to start.

Immediately after the explosion students in Dormitory 10 swarmed out of the building and moved across the dorm area to Dormitory 9 where they picked up benches in front of that building and started back to their dorm.

The benches had been the subject of a previous disturbance in the area Monday night and the students grabbed them almost instinctively. Dormitory 9 students poured out and attempted to grab the benches away from their opponents. With some effort, Arno Becker and Lee Phillips, commanders of A Ordnance and A Signal Corps respectively, were able to quell the disturbance and send the men back to their dormitories.

Elsewhere in the area the excitement caused students in other dormitories to get in on the bench stealing, and before that disturbance was quieted, a water fight had started between Dormitories 4 and 6.

Aggie Pistol Team Has Firing Practice

The Aggie pistol team held its first firing session Tuesday at the rifle and pistol range. Twenty new members and eight returning members were present.

M/Sgt. C. R. Nelson, coach of the team, was impressed by the interest and the skill of the freshmen out for the team. The team is expected to make an excellent showing in its matches this year, Nelson said.

Doug Henson, team captain, explained plans for the year, which includes shoulder to shoulder matches with Fort Hood, Fort Sam Houston Military Police, Rice Institute, and possibly others.

The pistol range will be open on Monday and Friday from 1 to 3:45 p. m. and on Tuesday through Thursday from 8 to 11:45 a. m.

A team practice is scheduled Tuesday from 7 to 9 p. m. This schedule will be followed for the rest of the semester, said Nelson.

returning from the freshman football game when the ambulance arrived. After Gay was moved to the hospital, Major Goff called a meeting of all unit commanders in the upperclassman area.

Commandant Joe Davis and Counselors Maj. Charles Taylor and Capt. Charles Bird arrived before the meeting got underway.

Colonel Davis told the commanders he wasn't sure how much damage had been done to the dormitories from the explosion or from a tear gas bomb which was exploded in Dormitory 9 Monday night.

He told the men that evidently students in the corps were going wild, for some unknown reason. "I hope you can clean this mess up and go back to your units and get things under control," the commandant said.

"For Unit Spirit"

"I'm for unit spirit," Colonel Davis said, "but we are still one Corps of Cadets and we don't want to let anything happen to make this corps any other way. If a cadet officer tells a sophomore or junior what to do, he is expected to do it, regardless of what branch either the senior or underclassman is in."

Colonel Davis closed the meeting by asserting, "Let's tie ourselves together and get this situation wiped out. A cadet officer is a cadet officer and his word goes."

After the disturbance was quieted and everyone had apparently gone back to their dormitories, a report was rushed to the guard room in Dormitory 12 that caps had been taken off commodes in Dormitory 6 and water was flooding the area. Major Goff was trying to locate a plumber to fix the equipment at midnight.
