

Kentucky Invades Kyle Field Seeking First 1952 Victory

By GUS BECKER
Associate Sports Editor

The 1952 Cotton Bowl Champions, Kentucky's Parelli-less Wildcats, invade Kyle Field Saturday night to tangle with the Aggies and try to win their first game of the 1952 season.

With the loss of All-American quarterback, "Babe" Parelli, the Wildcats lost their offensive spark that drove the Kentucky Blue and White to national football prominence and three major Bowl bids.

The Wildcats are in the building phase after three successful seasons with indications of a great team coming up in 1953. Only six seniors are listed on the University of Kentucky roster, with 15 juniors, 29 sophomores and seven freshmen available for the coming years.

Need Quarterback

In analyzing the team that lost their opener and tied "Ole Miss" last Saturday, the biggest weakness seems to be the lack of an experienced quarterback and passer. There is also lack of depth at the terminal posts and at the line-backer slots.

The Wildcats, as many other college elevens, have switched to the split-T offense.

Bryant Responsible for Switch

The man responsible for the Wildcats success story is head coach Paul (Bear) Bryant, one of the most outstanding football mentors in the Collegiate field.

A former end at Alabama, Coach Bryant lifted the Wildcats out of the football doldrums and firmly established them among the nation top teams.

To give his young squad experience, coach Bryant is using the two platoon system with a few exceptions.

Without Parelli, the Blue and White squad does not take to the air lanes as often nor with as much success as it formerly did.

Left End For Wildcats

Starting at left end for the Wildcats will be Steve Meilinger, a junior letterman who was an All-SEC flankman last season. Meilinger has been recognized by several magazines in pre-season forecasts as a good candidate for All-American honors.

At the end of last season, Meilinger was ranked 12th nationally in the pass receiving department and third among the SEC receivers.

Jim Proffitt, another junior letterman will run from the other flank and may possibly see double duty with the defensive squad.

Left Tackle Harper

Left tackle will be Tom Harper, a junior standing six feet two inches and weighing 215 pounds. At the other tackle will be Captain Bob Fry, a senior who is Kentucky's top offensive player and one of the nation's top tackles.

A good blocker, Fry will probably see action at the defensive end position where he is also a good man. Fry is Kentucky's leading candidate for All-SEC and All-American honors.

Guards will be John Bailey and Jim Schenk, who are working for their first college letter.

Bailey is the smallest lineman on the squad, weighing 190 pounds and standing five feet eight inches tall. Schenk is a transfer from Georgetown University and was ineligible last season.

Anchoring the center of the line is another sophomore, Bill Simpkins. Simpkins is one of the hardest blockers on the team and plays his best at all times.

A converted halfback, Larry Jones, one of the Wildcat's famed Jones twins, is attempting to fill Parelli's shoes. A quick thinker, Jones led the Kentucky drive in the final quarter of last week's game to save defeat.

Led SEC

Harry Jones, who is the starting left halfback, led the SEC in kick-off returns last seasons and is one of the fastest backs on the team.

Starting at fullback, is Ralph Paolone, a hard and reckless ball-carrier who was held out of competition last season after transferring from Notre Dame. A big and powerful runner, Paolone stands an even six feet and weighs 204 pounds.

Ex-servicemen Bill Marker, Joe Berkich and Charles Donaldson at 25 are the oldest players on the West Virginia University football squad.

Fish Rally Falls Short, Downed By Cougar Freshmen 26-20

A crowd of 2,500 fans watched the Aggie Fish fall short in their desperate last quarter rally as the University of Houston freshman came out on the long end of a 26-20 score, on Kyle Field last night. The Aggie Fish showed a good aerial game in the last quarter, as Ronald Robbins took to the air lanes to overcome a 20 point deficit.

Billy Huddleston, a 170 pound All-State back from Iran was the leading ground gainer of the evening, picking up 131 yards on 9 carries for an amazing 14.5 yards per carry average.

Another Tidwell

Billy Tidwell, cousin of the 1951 Aggies Tidwell, also looked good carrying the mail for the Fish. Another back, John Snead, from Grand Prairie, showed up well for the Aggie first year men.

Several Aggie Fish stood out on defense. Ogden Bass, a 210 pound center from Freeport was in on most of the Fish tackles. Nolan Cannon, a 210 pound guard from Lamar High School in Houston and David Mitchell a 180 pound guard, also a Lamar product showed up very well on defense.

After an exchange of punts, the U of H squad drove to the Fish five where Houston quarterback, Polson fumbled with the Fish's Scheaf recovering.

A play later, Huddleston shot between his right guard and tackle and outran the Houston secondary 92 yards to the goal line as the Fish drew first blood.

Aggie Fumble

Early in the second quarter, the Houston team recovered a Fish fumble on the Aggie twenty and scored on a pass from Polson to end Ken Wind. The try for point was good and the U of H was out in front seven to six.

With five minutes gone in the final period, the Aggies moved from their own 27 on the passing arm of Robbins and Tidwell to the eight where Robbins passed to William Schroeder from Lockhart for the second Aggie score of the night. Late in the final minutes of the contest, the Aggies recovered a U of H fumble on the Houston 35 and drove for their final score of the evening with Tidwell plunging over from the one.
