

Michigan State Drops in AP Poll

NEW YORK, Oct. 7.—(AP)—Wisconsin's poised Badgers, the current favorites to capture the Big Ten crown, took over first place in the Associated Press' football poll today as the result of their impressive victory over Illinois and Michigan State's tight battle with Oregon State.

The Badgers jumped up from eighth place by whipping Illinois' Rose Bowl champs, 20-6, while Michigan State needed a field goal in the final two seconds to edge Oregon State, 17-14.

State, the pre-season pick of the experts to finish the season as the No. 1 team, fell from their first place perch to second.

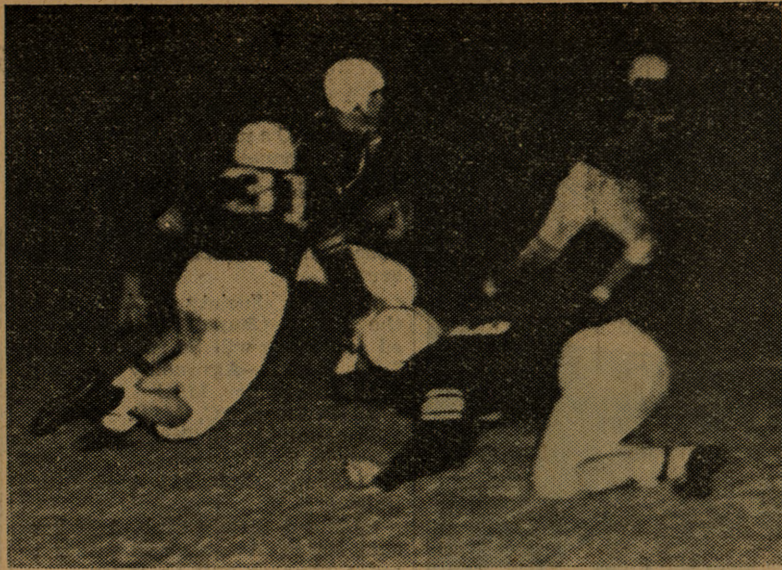

Texas, fifth last week, plunged right out of the top 20 following their 14-3 loss to Notre Dame in Austin.

The Fighting Irish, 19th a week ago, jumped to eighth place. Princeton, 61-19 conquerors of Rutgers, advanced from 13th to tenth.

The leaders points based on ten for first, nine for second, etc., with first place votes in parentheses are: 1. Wisconsin (27) 1,128; 2. Michigan State (24) 980; 3. California (23) 961; 4. Maryland (22) 834; 5. Georgia Tech (12) 784; 6. Duke (12) 530; 7. Southern California (6) 493; 8. Notre Dame (3) 332; 9. Kansas (1) 301; 10. Princeton (3) 264.

The second ten: 11. UCLA 221; 12. Oklahoma (1) 183; 13. Illinois 137; 14. Villanova 132; 15. Virginia (3) 128; 16. Purdue 98; 17. Navy 54; 18. Alabama 52; 19. Georgia 40; 20. Penn State (1) 38.

AGGIES MOVE—Don Ellis takes off on a 37-yard kick-off return at the start of the second half in the Aggie-Kentucky game on Kyle Field. An unidentified Aggie has just knocked the Wildcat's Tommy Adkins (31) out of the play. To Ellis' right is Frank Fuller (75) one of the Kentucky tackles.

Ags Stopped by Clock And Strong 'Cat Line

Kentucky displayed a great defensive line, that should give many SEC opponents a rough time, as the clock ran out on the Aggies in Saturday night's contest on Kyle Field.

A blocked punt by the Wildcat line in the third quarter set up the winning play, a field goal from the Aggie 26 yard line.

The Wildcat line held the Cadets after they had a first down and goal to go on the Kentucky five, which could have been the winning score if the Farmers had rammed across.

The Aggies had to take to the air in the fourth quarter, but never could keep up a sustained drive as the Wildcat secondary intercepted one pass and knocked down another in the end zone.

Wildcats Receive

Kentucky received the kickoff and made a first down before having to punt. The Aggies traveled to the Wildcat 43 but also had to punt.

The Wildcats made four first downs traveling to the Cadet 49 where the Farmers tightened their defense and made the Wildcats boot on fourth down.

A fumble by Larry Jones gave the Aggies the ball on the Kentucky 32 yard line and the Aggies moved to the Wildcats 29 as the initial period ended.

In that period Kentucky had rolled up five first downs to the Aggies one.

Aggies Stopped Cold

Moving from the Wildcat 29, the Aggies made a first down on the Kentucky five but were stopped cold by a determined Wildcat line.

Kentucky punted after failing to move from their own one and the Cadets put on a drive that ended with Ray Graves passing to Jerry Crossman for the only Aggie score of the game.

During this drive, the Aggies gained 53 yards in the air.

The half ended with the score A&M seven, Kentucky nothing.

Kentucky kicked off to the Aggies to start the last half, but the Cadets failed to move and elected to kick on fourth down.

Punt Blocked

Dollar's punt was blocked and the Wildcats recovered. The Farmers line held the Wildcats for no gain on three plays and the Wildcat kicked the game-winning field goal, three minutes deep in the third period.

A penalty pushed the Aggies back to their own one a few minutes later and the Farmers were again forced to punt.

Fumbles and intercepted passes stopped both teams until late in the third-quarter when the Wildcats took over on their own 27 where two passes for 38 yards and an 18 yard run moved them to their second score of the game with 10 seconds left in the period.

Graves tried 13 passes in the fourth quarter, half of his total for the whole game, but a fumble, a 15 yard penalty and an intercepted pass kept them from scoring as the clock ran out with the Aggies having a first and ten on the Wildcat six.

Graves Second In Passing

Aggies Lead SWC Teams In Rushing, Total Offense

Texas A&M, although defeated in last week's game, still remained among the leaders in the Southwest Conference according to official statistics released this morning.

The Aggies lead in first downs with 48. Close behind is Texas with 47 and TCU with 39.

In rushing the Aggies have rolled up 529 yards to hold the top spot while the Steers are in second position with 461 yards on the ground.

The Cadets are the leading total offensive eleven with 897 yards on the ground and in the air while the Longhorns trailed in second place with 823.

Ray Graves, Aggie field general is second to Ochoa of Texas as the leading ball-carrier of the SWC. Graves has carried the ball 34 times for 146 yards and a 4.3 average.

Graves is also second among the leading passers in the SWC, behind Ray McKown of TCU, with 34 passes completed out of 53, (had two passes intercepted) for a total of 358 yards and a 10.5 yards per pass average. Graves percentage of completions is .641 with one touchdown pass.

McKown leads the total offense leaders on the strength of his 547 yards through the air while Graves is again in second position with 504 yards on 87 plays for a 5.8 yards per carry average.

Joe Boring and Joe Schero are one-two in the punt return department. Boring has returned four for 47 yards and an 11.8-yard average.

Darrow Hooper is seventh among the leading pass receivers in the SWC with nine passes caught for 90 yards and a touchdown for a 10 yard per pass average.

Hooper is also tied for first in the place kicking department with six attempts and six completed for six points. C. O. Brocato of Baylor has attempted seven PAT and made three, which added to a field goal gives him six points also.

Don Ellis and Raymond Haas are one-two for the Aggies in the kickoff return section. Ellis has returned four for 124 yards and a 31.0 average while Haas has two returns for 58 yards for a 29 yard average.

The Aggies are one-three-four in the pass interception department, with Hub Scott, first with 2 for 34 yards and a 17 yard average, Schero, third with two for 24 yards and a 12 yard average, and Boring with two for 15 yards for a 7.5 yard average.

Tigers Keep Victory String, Win 45 to 0

Willie Arnold, who, according to Coach Othel V. Chafin, wasn't even supposed to play last Friday night, made three of A&M Consolidated's seven touchdowns against Milano High School. The score was 45-0.

Buck Byer was first to score early in the opening quarter from the one-yard line. This first tally was closely followed with another by Byer, and a 32 yard pass from Fred Anderson to Willie Arnold.

Melvin Free made the lone touchdown in the second on a blocked punt by Bobby Jackson. Free ran it back from the Milano 23 yardline. The successful conversion was made by Bobby Carter.

Arnold made an 80-yard run-back in the third quarter to start the Tigers off right in the second half. He also made another touchdown on a plunge from the six in the same period. Bobby Carter again converted for both extra points.

"A serious weakness of the American educational system is the missing link between what we are taught in school and what we learn after leaving school. The Reader's Digest represents education that continues. It arouses and satisfies keen interest in the vital issues of the day and in varied fields of lasting knowledge."

Look at the wide range of subjects in any issue—The Reader's Digest is designed for the well-rounded individual who cultivates interests far wider than the confines of any particular field.

From the wealth of material that is published each month, the editors select those outstanding articles no thoughtful person would want to miss. Each article is condensed to present the essentials clearly, yet preserve the full content and flavor of the original.

The Reader's Digest offers a continuing liberal education for millions of men and women with alert, open minds.
