Film Society Sets 15 Top Flickers

This year's A&M Rifle Team, coached by T/Sgt. M. L. Oberstie of the Air Force, will fire matches with all the Southwest Conference schools except Arkansas.

Members of the team will fly to Lansing, Michigan Friday and their match will be Saturday morning before the football game. There is also a tentative match on the West Coast sometime next spring.

Matches of some importance on the schedule to be fired out-of-town are at El Paso, the Southwestern Invitational Small-bore Matches, a match at Denton with TSCW, and one with Arlington College.

Going to Michigan State will be Carl Schlinge, Ray Lyon, Dwight Huffman, Leonard Bruce, Harry Gayden, Owen Hill, Lyle Wolfskill, Nugent Oliphant and Jack Anderson.

The A&M Film Society will schedule 15 top motion pictures with a possible four bonus films for its 1952-53 program, said Ed Holder, president.

Season tickets are now on sale in the Office of Student Activities. Price of the tickets is one dollar.

Sponsored this year by The Battalion, MSC, and The American Association of University Women, the film society brings to the campus annually several of the best motion pictures filmed in past years.

All films scheduled this year will be presented in the MSC Ballroom. Formerly they were shown in the YMCA Chapel.

Dates have already been set for three of the coming movies. These films include "The Maltese Falcon," Oct. 27; "The Sea Hawk," Nov. 3; and "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," Nov. 24.

Other scheduled films whose dates have not been definitely set include "Lost Horizon," "Great Ex-

Former Students Hold Four Class Reunions

Approximately 620 former students and their wives invaded the campus this weekend for class reunions. Represented were the classes of '07, '22, '37, and '42.

One of the scheduled films, "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," is classed by many critics as a classic in cinema art. Some film authorities call it one of the best movies ever filmed. Starring Humphrey Bogart, Walter Huston, and Tim Holt, the movie violently depicts the character degeneration of three prospectors searching for gold in the mountains of Mexico.

"The Sea Hawk," starring Errol Flynn, is a swashbuckling yarn of action on the high seas during the reign of Queen Elizabeth.

"The Maltese Falcon," considered one of the best cinema whodunits, is a fast moving thriller involving the popular Sam Spade. Stars include Humphrey Bogart, Mary Astor, Peter Lorre, and Sidney Greenstreet.

Other films to be screened with their scheduled dates will be announced in The Battalion as soon as they are booked, Holder said.

An informal Dinner-Dance Friday night started the fifteenth anniversary reunion of the class of '37. Saturday's program began with a Stag Breakfast followed by a class reunion and a luncheon, all in the MSC Assembly Room. After a tour of the MSC, conducted by J. Wayne Stark, '39, director, the class of '37 retired to the Sbsia Hall Annex for a Buffet Dinner.

The reunion adjourned after the ball game that night.

Initiating First Reunion

Initiating their first reunion Friday was the class of '42. The program Friday consisted only of an informal reception in the MSC Ballroom. A luncheon started Saturday's round of events followed by a class picture on the front steps of the MSC and a class meeting in the Ballroom of the MSC. A buffet winner in the Sbsia Hall Annex and the ballgame that night finished Saturday's activities. A breakfast in the MSC Sunday closed out the reunion.

According to Dick Hervey, executive secretary of the association of former students, each class passed several resolutions, but he has not received a run-down on them as yet.

Athletic Group To Investigate Date Tickets

A committee was appointed by the Athletic Council to study the possibility of reducing the price of date tickets for A&M football games.

The committee, which was appointed 9 a. m. Sunday at the Athletic Council meeting in the MSC Senate Chamber is headed by H. C. Dillingham, professor of electrical engineering. Other members include Dr. J. P. Abbott, dean of the School of Arts and Sciences, Barlow (Bones) Irvin, athletic director, Price Campbell, Aggie-ex from Abilene, and Bill Brucks, veterinary major from Hondo.

Appointed after Frank Manitzas, co-editor of The Battalion asked the council that consideration be given to reducing the price of date tickets, the committee will make its report at the next board meeting in November.

Those present at the meeting, were W. L. Penberthy, chairman, Dr. G. W. Schlesselman, head of the geography department, Dillingham, and E. W. Parnell of the poultry husbandry department. Also present were E. P. Dodson, Aggie-ex from Decator, Campbell, Dave Hooper and Brucks.

Fester D. Ownby, business manager of the athletic department and Irvin were also present.

A report on the stadium expansion program was also heard. Irvin reports 550 of the 2560 seat options have been sold. The options, which are for 20 years and cost will be sold exclusively to former students until Nov. 1 when sales will open to the public.

Options will give holders first choice on seats for every home game for a period of 20 years. The price of the seats will be in addition to the options.

Officers, Cadets
Speak to SA Moms

Two members of A&M's military department and five top ranking cadet officers will speak at the San Antonio A&M Mothers' Club meeting at 8 p. m. Wednesday in the Municipal Auditorium in San Antonio.

Col. Joe Davis, commandant, and Col. Robert L. Melcher, dormitory advisor, will be the representatives from the military department.

Representing the corps are Weldon Kruger, cadet colonel of the corps; Joe Mattel, deputy corps commander; Guy Shown, corps adjutant; Joe Wallace, first division commander; and Bruce Gibson, third division commander.

A film on the activities of the school is also scheduled to be shown.

Few, General Qualifications

Rhode Scholarships Open

By WILLIAM FOLEY
Battalion News Writer

Applications for Rhodes Scholarships now are available to students wishing to apply, said Dr. T. F. Mayo of the English department who is institutional representative for this scholarship at A&M.

The Rhodes Scholarships are open to undergraduate and graduate students. Although applicants must have completed their sophomore year at college, all freshmen and sophomores interested in the scholarship to investigate it now, Dr. Mayo urged.

Qualifications for the scholarships are few and general, said Mayo. An applicant must be a male citizen of the United States with at least five years residence; unmarried; between the ages of 19 and 25 on Oct. 1, 1953, must have completed his sophomore year by the time of application, and must receive the official endorsement of his school.

To apply for a Rhodes Scholarship, a student should first contact Dr. Mayo who will give him the necessary forms. The applications must be in the hands of the secretary of the state committee not later than Nov. 1.

Students who are studying under the G. I. Bill of Rights or other military educational funds may expect the same benefits at Oxford as at A&M, said Mayo.

Five applicants from A&M will be selected to go to Houston Dec. 10 for preliminary selection. Other Texas schools will also be represented at Houston.

From these applicants, two will be selected to attend the final selections by the district committee Dec. 13. Each district is composed of six states. Four applicants will be chosen from each district as recipients of a Rhodes Scholarship, Mayo explained.

A Rhodes Scholarship is for two years of study at Oxford with a third year being possible depending on the students record and course of study. The recipient of a scholarship will receive approximately $1400 per year.

No strings are attached to this scholarship such as beliefs or

Library Receives 'Great Books' Set

Panhandle Club
Elects Officers

The Panhandle Club held its annual meeting for the election of officers last Friday.

Jack Ramsey, Plainview, was elected president and Dennis Zahn, Littlefield, vice-president. The secretary-treasurer elected is Berkley Sorelle, Canyon. The social chairman for the year will be Ted Perkins, also of Canyon. Reporter for the group is Paul Roper, Shamrock.

The next meeting will be held after yell practice Oct. 9, in the Academic Building.

Winners Named In Kentucky Parade

Tying for first place in the recent passby before the A&M-Kentucky football game were the Maroon Band, White Band, and A AAA, announced Lt. Col. Taylor Wilkins, assistant to the commandant.

Colonel Wilkins said that no date had yet been set for the corps to go into tents. Cadets will probably go into tents in November, he continued, but, if the cold weather continues, winter uniforms may be authorized sooner.
