Aggie Sweetheart Selection Committee Leaves Saturday

A delegation of Aggies leave for their "sister" campus at TSCW early Saturday morning to select the 1952-53 Aggie Sweetheart from a group of 12 nominees named by TSCW girls.

The new sweetheart will be presented at halftime at the SMU-A&M game in the Cotton Bowl Nov. 8.

Plans for the selection this weekend include a picnic and presentation of the nominees at an All-College Dance to be held at TSCW Saturday night.

Representing A&M will be Joe Mattei, president of the senior class and chairman of the selection committee; Charles Blank, senior class social secretary; Weldon Kruger, colonel of the corps; Gene Earl Steed, second division commander; and Bruce Gibson, third division commander.

Regimental commanders included on the committee are Shelton Black, Bill Highsmith, Charles Uornstein, and Don Garey.

Representing The Battalion will be Frank Manitzas, co-editor.

Other Members
Also on the selection committee are Bill Henderson, non-corps yell leader and Lamar McNew, MSC Council president.

Nominees from the three upper-classes at TSCW for sweetheart are as follows: Seniors—Colette Clifton, Ann Herring, Patricia Martin, and Betty Ann Timmerman; Juniors—Cora Jane Becker, Marshalene Grene, Carolyn Hammond, and Jane McBrierty; Sophomores—Erika Heidman, Peggy Phillips, Patsy Potts, and Claire Williams.

The girls were selected as nominees at individual class meetings where balloting was held for these positions.

The committee from A&M will ballot on the new sweetheart Sunday after the social functions planned for the two groups.

"We expect to have plenty of time to get to know the girls well enough to make a suitable selection for Aggie Sweetheart," said Mattei.

The A&M delegation will be accompanied to Denton by W. D. "Pete" Hardesty, business manager for Student Activities.

Winner of the title of Aggie Sweetheart will be announced Tuesday, Mattei said.

Shivers Asks Bar To Revamp Code

Directors of the State Bar Association are expected to consider Friday a request from Gov. Shivers that the bar help revamp the Texas election code.

Bar President Glenn Turner said today directors will take up the proposal when they meet at A&M Friday and Saturday, according to the Associated Press.

The governor outlined several points in the present election code he said needed improvement despite what he termed long strides by last year's legislature.

County Judge A. S. Ware is definitely for revamping the code. He said, "No doubt there is room for amplification in some places and clarification in other places. Major issues when the code was being established caused some of the finer points to be left obscure and vague."

Reset for Monday Senate Meet Postponed

The Student Senate meeting scheduled tonight has been postponed until Monday night, announced Bennie Zinn, advisor to the Senate.

The meeting will be held in the YMCA Assembly Room at 7:30 p. m.

Reason for changing the date was because non-corps senators will not be determined until tonight after today's elections.

Zinn said the principal items for business on the new Senate's first meeting agenda include election of officers, planning a seating arrangement for students at the TCU game, and committee assignments for the Senate.

Seniors Elect 15 to Senate; 443 Cast Ballot at MSC Booth

Civilian Student Voting Underway

Civilian student voting which starts today concludes A&M's Student Life Committee and Student Senate and Election Commission balloting.

Under the new senate membership rules, one College View resident, one vet Village resident, and two non-military representatives from each dormitory will be elected to serve with the 15 senior, 10 junior, six sophomore, and two day student members.

Only three vacancies were open on the Student Life Committee, and these must be filled by civilian students.

The voting procedure will remain the same as was used in preceding class elections with the students obtaining both a card and ballot, signing the card, marking the ballot and placing it in the ballot box, and turning in the card which will be filed alphabetically.

Voting stations have been set up by the post office entrance across from the Gift Shop in the MSC.

Fourteen Filed

Fourteen civilian candidates have filed for Student Senate positions, and eight for Student Life Committee positions. Running for Student Senators are Wallace B. Birkes, Thomas K. Bark, Jr., Ronald B. Dokell, David Lee Haltom, R. A. Hoffman.

Ernest G. Horres, Doyle F. Lowery, Jack (Spud) Mergle, Thurman Walker, John R. Hans, Howard H. (Jack) Jones, Jack L. Morris, John David Rice, and Raymond Gene Rushing.

Those who have filed for the Student Life Committee are Wallace B. Birkes, Bill Brucks, Paul T. Cordehac, John P. Davis, Hayden Jenkins, Jack (Spud) Mergle, Thurmond Munson, and Richard E. Piggott.

Team Send-Off

Yell Practice Tonight at 7

The Aggie football team leaves tonight on the first leg of its journey to East Lansing, Mich. and Michigan State College.

The squad will board buses at 7 p. m. which will take them to Houston where they will spend the night. They will leave by plane Friday morning from Houston for Lansing, Mich.

The Aggie Band will lead members of the corps of cadets to a street beside The Grove where the buses will stop long enough for a yell practice.

After the send-off by members of A&M's Twelfth Man, the team will be on its way to the big Saturday game with Michigan State College.

Cafe Rue Pinalle Goes International

Cafe Rue Pinalle is planning an international show for Friday, Oct. 17, said Betty Bolander, MSC program consultant. The show will be honoring United Nations Day, Oct. 24.

Miss Bolander urges anyone with talent along this line to see her in the MSC Directorate.

Six cadets from BAFB representing six different countries will attend the show with their dates.

The MSC Combo will furnish music for the international affair.

Careful Planning

Inexpensive Date Easy With Budget

By JOE HIPPI
Battalion News Staff

Just how much does it cost for an Aggie to have a date on the campus?

Well, how much money do you have?

You have heard of some guys who spend $30 and $40 for a big weekend. Then there are sharp business majors who scrape the bottom with a five buck weekend.

This boy set a budget of $12.10 and had money to spare. His date came down with some friends.

ROTC Pay Checks Ready for Cadets

All summer ROTC pay checks and all old contract student September pay checks have arrived, according to the military records department.

The summer checks amount to $45 and the September checks amount to $27. There are between 150 and 200 checks that haven't been picked up yet, they added.

Meanwhile, W/O Hernandez of the AFROTC section said that the Air Force summer checks will be in either today or tomorrow.

Weather Today

CLEAR
WEATHER TODAY: Clear. The high yesterday was 69 and the low 49.

She got on the campus about 2 p. m. Saturday. They met at the MSC and he took her to one of the homes in College Station that take weekend guests.

For three dollars she had a nice room in a private home. The date ticket for the game cost $3.60.

"Old Army" had to feed his girl so he took her to Duncan Hall. She got a "charge" out of the dining hall customs Aggies have and it only cost 50 cents for both of them to eat.

French For "Mum"
A "mum" for the game cost one dollar. The sparkle in her eyes told how much she appreciated it.

A couple of cokes at the game were 20 cents. After the game the MSC Dance Committee sponsored a dance on the "Starlight Terrace."

For 50 cents they danced to the music of the Aggieland Combo until 12 p. m. After that . . . ?

Sunday morning they ate a light breakfast in the MSC Fountain Room then went to church. Fifty cents covered the breakfast. They had lunch at Duncan Hall.

A movie Sunday afternoon was one dollar, a malt at a Drive Inn and financial expenditures were over for the weekend.

The budget: $3.00 room
3.60 ticket
1.00 chow hall
1.00 corsage, mum
.50 dance
.50 breakfast
1.00 movie
1.50 misc.

Total $12.10
A good weekend.

Faulty Radiators Delay Dorm Heat

Heat for all buildings except the newly-painted dormitories was turned on Tuesday afternoon, J. K. Walker, superintendent of the BCU announced.

Radiators in dormitories which were painted this summer had to be checked for leaks before heat was supplied, Walker explained. This was completed Wednesday evening, and radiators were turned on Wednesday night, Walker said.

Wives of the directors will be honored with a luncheon in Bryan and a tour of the Brazos Valley Friday.

Host for the gathering of some 25 directors and officers of the State Bar will be the Brazos County Bar Association. Ware and State Bar Director W. T. McDonald of Bryan are in charge of arrangements for the session. Business meetings of the group are to be held in the MSC.

Draft Age Exam Less

State selective service lowered the minimum age for draft physical examinations to 19 years, 11 months this week. The Associated Press said this is one month under the previous minimum.

Lt. Col. Morris S. Schwartz, deputy state director, said the action was "a safety measure."

"The manpower situation is getting tight enough that we are afraid some local boards might not have enough men if we held to the 20 year minimum," said Col. Schwartz.

"This does not mean that every young man 19 years and 11 months old will be examined," he added. "Local boards are required to send all those 21 and over first, then dip into the 20 year old group, then below 20 if necessary."

QBs to See Surprise Film

A surprise film of great timeliness will be shown tonight at the A&M Quarterback Club in place of the Kentucky-Aggie game.

"Lack of interest shown for the film of last week's game brought about the switch," said Ed Holder, president, "but I believe the film we plan to show will be a pleasant surprise for everyone."

Governor Plans More 'Tke' Speeches in Texas

AUSTIN, Oct. 9—(AP)—Gov. Shivers said yesterday he probably would make "two or three" more speeches for Dwight Eisenhower before Nov. 4.

Shivers said this in an exclusive interview with J. Q. Mahaffey, editor of the Texarkana Gazette.

Shivers also told the Texarkana editor that while Democratic Nominee Adlai Stevenson had mentioned "some kind of compromise" on the tidelands issue, Stevenson had not told him he would approve restoration of the tidelands to Texas if the case were presented in a separate bill.

Shivers broke with Stevenson on the tidelands issue. Last week

Shivers said he would carry on policies which he packaged under the general term "Trumanism."

Commenting on a recent statement by Rep. Wright Patman, who is campaigning for Stevenson, that "no Congress and no President will disapprove Texas' claim to its tidelands if its case were presented separately from those of California and Louisiana," Shivers told Mahaffey that was not the impression he received in his talk with Stevenson.

Shivers said he would like for somebody to ask Stevenson if he would approve restoration of the tidelands to Texas if the Texas claim were made separately.

Baby, It's Cold Up There

Ags In Nation-Wide TV Debut

By JOEL AUSTIN
Battalion Co-Editor

Saturday's game with Michigan State at East Lansing, Mich. may be the Aggies' fourth game, but it's their biggest debut in A&M gridiron history. On that day the A&M-Spartan game will be flashed around the nation via NBC-TV as the "Television game of the Day."

It will be the first time an A&M team has been featured in a nationwide television broadcast.

The Aggies will find a somewhat different temperature prevailing in that country far to the north. The CAA Weather Station at Easterwood Airport said it was in the low 40's at Lansing this morning. They said temperature for the game could possibly be in the upper 40's or low 50's.

"Frost On the Pumpkin"

Tuesday's edition of the Michigan State News lists the weather simply as "The frost is on the pumpkin."

The college is located near the Michigan capitol of Lansing which has a population of approximately 60,000. East Lansing is a city similar to College Station, but boasts a population of nearly 15,000.

Many recent visitors to the Spartan campus comment largely on its beautiful trees, the marvelous student union building (surpassed by A&M's Memorial Student Center, however, is the word we get), and big music building which has a very complete music library.

Michigan State College has the largest men's dormitory in the world—Shaw Hall. This dormitory is just across the Red Cedar River, a stream which runs through the campus.

Beautiful Girls?

Another item of note for the land grant college of Michigan is their reputation for beautiful girls. The saying goes that four out of five beautiful girls go to Michigan State, and the fifth goes to the University of Michigan. (We don't bear the responsibility for this statement, but plan to investigate).

The college has an official enrollment of 13,903, which is roughly divided into 9,000 men and 5,000 women.

Coach Biggie Munn's Spartans will meet the Aggies on Mackin Field at East Lansing which seats approximately 50,000 people. Athletic Department officials here predict the game will be near sell out.

Half time activities at the game this week will honor Michigan State athletes who represented the United States at six different Olympic games.

Sixteen persons who took part in the 1904, 1928, 1932, 1936, 1948, and 1952 games will be presented at half time to the expected crowd of 45,000.

Outstanding Prexy
Many A&M people will remember Michigan State's able president, Dr. John A. Hannah, from his address here when Dr. M. T. Harrington was inaugurated as president in 1950. Dr. Hannah is regarded by many college administrators as the outstanding presi-

Fifteen seniors were named to the Student Senate yesterday in a close election which narrowed down a list of 48 candidates for the posts.

Four hundred forty-three seniors voted in the election held at a booth in the MSC.

Elected to the Senate were Francisco (Paco) Coronado, E. D. Francis, Victor Gillet, Sam Harper, John Heft, Daniel Howell, Harold Hudspeth, Arvis Noak, Guy Shown, Haskell Simon, Gene Earl Steed, Jack Thornton, Bob Travis, Joe Wallace, and Lyle Wolfskill.

The seniors cast the largest number of votes in the three class elections. Only 384 395 sophomores. Approximately one-half of the class members stopped by the MSC election booth between 8 a. m. and 6 p. m. yesterday.

The seniors also approved the four candidates for election commission post. With five vacancies on the commission and only four candidates, winners without opposition were Charles Blank, James Earl, Willard Green, and Jimmie Holder. Don McClure received 31 write-in votes for the fifth position. Approval of his election to the commission was withheld by election officials until his qualifications are checked.

The seniors voted in the new method adopted by the Senate last year. Cards were signed and filed, and ballots were then given to voters who dropped their unsigned ballots in a box after being marked.

Truce Talks Appear Nearing Total Collapse

MUNSAN, Korea, Thursday, Oct. 9—(AP)—The long and frustrating Korean armistice negotiations today appeared to be nearer collapse than at any time since they began on July 10, 1951.

The Allied decision yesterday to call an indefinite recess was made on "higher authority" and came at a time when fighting in Korea reached its fiercest pitch in a year.

A special North Korean broadcast heard in Tokyo referred to "the failure" of the negotiations, charged that the Allies ignored a new Red offer, and declared responsibility "lies on the U. S."

It complained that the Allied delegation walked out while the new Red plan was being explained. Text of the broadcast showed, however, the Communists had not budged from their position that all prisoners of war must be repatriated, the last major issue remaining.

Officials in Washington said the "higher authority" was the U. S. government, which presumably acted after consulting other United Nations with troops in Korea.

Secretary of State Acheson said a news conference the suspension was "an affirmative step toward obtaining an armistice." He added that the Allied team was ready to meet whenever the Communists agree to "an honest settlement" of the prisoner of war question.

The Allies left it squarely up to the Communists to revive the negotiations or let them die over the one unsolved issue of repatriating prisoners of war.

Parking Notices Enforced Today

Students parking their cars on the grounds west of the corps area will get notices starting today, announced Fred Hickman, chief of campus security.

"Officers have been lenient toward the owners due to the repaving of Spence Street," Hickman continued. "However, this attitude will end immediately."

Car owners will be expected to park on the street or in provided parking lots. Warnings have been given students over the loud speakers in the mess hall, he said.
