

YMCA Group Will Attend Conference

Seven representatives of the YMCA cabinet will attend the South Texas sectional conference of the YMCA Oct. 10-12 at Camp Idlewild in Comfort, Texas, announced Charles Beagle, president of the cabinet.

The conference meets semi-annually for the purpose of discussing and exchanging new ideas concerning local activities of the YMCA.

Guest speaker for the meeting is Miss Fern Babcock, program coordinator for the national YMCA. Her theme will be "The Needs of Our Day," Beagle explained.

Members of the YMCA cabinet attending are Beagle, Jules Vieaux, Ronald Hudson, Roland Baird, M. L. Cashion, Jr., Garrett Maxwell, and Bill Dean.

Other colleges expected to be represented at the sectional conference are University of Texas, Rice Institute, University of Houston, Southwestern University, and Prairie View A&M College, Beagle said.

Veterinarians Elect Officers

Pete Zimicki was elected president of the freshman class of the School of Veterinary Medicine for the session of 1952-53.

Other newly elected officers included Eldon O. Harrison, vice-president, Derrell H. Guiles, secretary-treasurer, Bob DuBose, reporter, and W. R. Larson, sgt.-at-arms and parliamentarian.

★ Job Calls - Job Interviews ★

Interviews

● Oct. 9.—Sperry Gyroscope Co. will interview January graduates in electrical, mechanical, aeronautical engineering and physics and mathematics. The graduate is placed in a position with a small group and is provided with guidance while being applied directly on a project. The company subsidizes a tuition refund program which permits the employee to attend any of the seven graduate schools in the area at a minimum amount of personal expense.

● Oct. 9.—Humble Oil & Refining Co. has arranged to have a general meeting at the Memorial Student Center at 4 p. m. in the Ballroom. On Oct. 10, they will interview chemical, civil, electrical, mechanical and petroleum engineers at all degree levels and advanced degree men in chemistry and physics.

● Oct. 9.—Mechanical and electrical engineers will be interviewed by the Naval Gun Factory. This company offers excellent working conditions and benefits, such as: group hospitalization, retirement, credit union, etc.

● Oct. 13.—The Shell Oil Co. will interview January graduates in chemistry, chemical, electrical, mechanical, civil and chemical engineers interested in being interviewed by the Allis-Chalmers Mfg. Co. should come by the office at lease by Oct. 10. This company has a two-year graduate training course, leading to positions in district office sales, application sales, design, development, manufacturing, and service and erection. Advanced degree men will be interviewed and considered for direct assignments.

● Oct. 17.—Industrial engineers and business administration majors will be interviewed by Montgomery Ward for possible employment in this company. The majority of their openings will be in retail stores and mail order merchandise organization.

Job Calls

● Gulf, Colorado and Santa Fe Railway Co. has an opening for a chairman in their engineering department. They prefer graduates but will accept students with at least two years of college.

● The Sterling Engine Co. has a large diesel engine development program started and they need mechanical engineers with the ability to work independently on layout and design work in drafting room.

● Ed Friedrich, Inc., a manufacturer of refrigerator equipment, has openings for electrical, mechanical and industrial engineers.

Registration For New Short Courses To Start

Two new short courses are now being offered by the college, announced F. W. Hensel, assistant director of the placement office.

A&M Garden Club Plans Excursion

The A&M Garden Club will make a pilgrimage to six local gardens Friday afternoon at 2:30 p. m.

The members will meet at the home of the president, Mrs. D. W. Williams, 416 Throckmorton. Visits will be made to gardens at the following residences: Mrs. J. E. Roberts, Beverly Estates; Mrs. P. W. Burns, 1009 Walton Drive; Mrs. C. C. Doak, 300 Pershing; Mrs. W. Armstrong Price, 900 Park Place; Mrs. C. B. Campbell, 901 Suffolk South and Mrs. Gibb Gilchrist, Throckmorton.

Mrs. Gilchrist will be hostess at a social hour at her home following the pilgrimage. Mrs. R. E. Sunggs and Mrs. A. B. Stevens are on the refreshment committee.

In case of rain, Mrs. Marion C. Pugh, program chairman, said the club would meet in the First Baptist Church of College Station. The program will be fall plantings; catalogues will be available to all members.

These are the Nutrition Conference and the Texas Dehydrators Conference. Both are sponsored by the Departments of Animal Husbandry, Bio-Chemistry and Nutrition, Dairy Husbandry, and Poultry Husbandry.

Registration for the Texas Dehydrators Conference will be conducted in the lobby of the MSC, Oct. 15, at 8 p. m. There will be a registration fee of $2 a person, said Hensel.

Nutrition Conference registration will take place in the lobby of the MSC at 8 p. m., Oct. 16, with a fee of $3.50 per person. The Texas Dehydrators Conference meetings will be conducted in the Assembly Room of the MSC, and the Nutrition Conference meetings will take place in the Ballroom.

The Short Course Office will furnish hotel accommodations, meeting rooms, and public address system. Photo and Visual Aids will furnish the conferences with a photographer and projectors for 2 x 2 slides and 3 1/4 x 4 slides, and also an operator for the projectors, Hensel said.

The assistant director estimated attendance for the Nutrition Conference at 25 people, and Texas Dehydrators Conference attendance at 50.
