

Bishop Speaks Friday Night

The Rt. Rev. Harry S. Kennedy, bishop of the Missionary District of Honolulu, will speak at the third annual Bishop's Supper Friday night at 7 p. m. in the MSC Ballroom.

The supper is sponsored by St. Thomas Episcopal Chapel of College Station. A large crowd is expected, according to the Rev. R. L. Darwell, pastor.

The missionary district of Honolulu covers the Hawaiian and Samoan Islands, also Wake, Midway, Guam, and Okinawa. Almost eight thousand islanders are in Bishop Kennedy's diocese.

He recently visited the fighting front in Korea and garrison troops in Japan.

Rutgers Graduate
Born in Brooklyn, New York, Bishop Kennedy attended Rutgers College, and Colorado State Teachers College and did postgraduate work at the University of Southern California. In 1926 he was graduated from St. John's Theological Seminary, and in 1943 he received a Doctor of Divinity degree from Seabury-Western Seminary, Evanston, Ill.

Bishop Kennedy has served in the missionary districts of Concordia, Kansas; and the San Luis Valley region, Colorado. From here he was moved to St. Thomas' Church in Denver, and then to Grace Church, Colorado Springs.

Tickets On Sale

He was married in 1927 and is now the father of five children.

Tickets for the supper are $2 for residents and $1 for students. Tickets may be purchased in College Station at St. Thomas Episcopal Church. Eight other Episcopal churches in surrounding towns are also selling tickets to the supper.

City Council Pays Note; Renews Two

The College Station City Council voted last night to pay off a property note valued at $274.89, plus $7.60 interest. The note is held by the College Station State Bank.

Notes on the same bank valued at $1500 and $300 were renewed. The $1500 was borrowed to pay for utilities and the $3000 was borrowed to buy trucks and other equipment for the city.

A joint meeting of the Bryan and College Station city councils will be held to discuss the proposed increase in rates by the Southwestern States Telephone Company. The meeting will be held at the convenience of the Bryan council.

Mayor Ernest Langford will write a letter to the State Highway Commission to inquire about the possibility of a traffic light at the corner of Highway 6 and Jersey St.

"Pedestrian traffic composed of school children is the main consideration at the corner," Langford said.

In answer to a request made by the council several months ago asking about the possibility of a four-lane highway through College Station, the highway commission replied that their financial status wouldn't allow such construction at the present time.

Enrollment Jump Expected At CHS

By HARRI BAKER
Battalion City Editor

According to an architect's survey released by Les Richardson, superintendent of A&M Consolidated Schools, Consolidated's enrollment will be 1400 students by 1962. The present enrollment is a little over 850.

A new building already has been planned. Plans are not definite, but the new building probably will be behind the present high school building, and the high school will move into the new quarters, giving the high school building to the grammar school.

The war boom in babies is just now hitting Consolidated. The first grade has 138 students, while the senior class has only 28.

Speaking of Consolidated, the students are doing a good job on their school paper, The Roundup. Sponsored by J. S. Forsyth, the new English teacher at CHS, the paper is a bi-monthly. Marylouise Exley is editor and Ann Morgan is business manager.

All the paper needs is more support from advertisers. There was a lot of space in the last issue that could have been used for advertisements that would be well read. A high school paper is a good advertising medium, because it goes into the homes of almost all of the parents.

Elective Polls Vary

Battalion's election poll of College Station residents is at odds with a statewide poll. The paper's poll, which was comprehensive, indicated that College Station would vote 75 per cent Republican, 19.6 per cent Democrat, 5.4 per cent undecided.

The statewide poll indicated that Texas as a whole would vote approximately 33 per cent Republican, 50 per cent Democrat, 17 per cent undecided. Maybe it's too early to make a prediction, anyway.

Look at the last presidential election.

New Housing Units

Ninety-six units are being added to the J. C. Culpepper housing project on College Road near the circle. Almost all of the units are within the College Station city limits, but according to the terms of the FHA loan the realty company used to build them, only service personnel can rent them.

Culpepper says he is trying to get permission for renting them to College Station residents. Its only right that they should be open to residents of the town in which they are located.

However, according to the terms of the loan, if they are not rented within 60 days, they are open to anyone.

Church Speakers Plentiful Here

College Station's churches are doing a good job in bringing speakers to the community. The A&M Methodist Church has had several prominent speakers, and St. Thomas Episcopal Chapel is sponsoring a talk by Bishop Harry Kennedy of Honolulu Friday.

Coming up: Pet and Dog Show at Consolidated, Oct. 27; Rotary Variety Show, Oct. 30 and 31; Kiwanis Kapers, Nov. 4; and the Community Chest drive, the month of November.

First Meeting Of Foods Group Set

The first meeting of the foods group of the College Women's Social Club will be held at 1:15 p. m. Friday in the A&M Christian Church.

Luncheons will be served at each meeting this year. The October luncheon is entitled "Conservation Pieces." The recipes by the food editors of the Ladies Home Journal will be used.

Mrs. H. W. Gooding will be hostess. The planning committee includes Mesdames I. G. Adams, George Potter, co-chairmen; J. H. Lemmon, J. N. Hoffman, Raymond Rogers, Homer Rea, E. R. Olexa.

French Club Will Organize Soon

Parisian night clubs and the French school system are two of the topics that speakers will present to the A&M French Club in meetings during the year.

An organizational meeting will be held after Yell Practice, Tuesday, Oct. 21, in room 128 of the Academic Building, Dr. Edward M. Stack sponsor of the club said.

Some of the programs will be presented by French cadets at Bryan AFB.

New Social Band Is 'Huge Success'

By JON KINSLOW
Battalion News Writer

The second meeting of the newly organized College Station and Bryan "social" band was termed a "huge" success by its director, Warrant Officer Joseph Lanzillotti, who also directs the 515th Air Force Band at Bryan Air Force Base.

The band, which meets every Monday in the Bryan AFB gymnasium at 8 p. m., is composed of students, adults, and Air Force personnel from this district. There were 73 participants on hand for Monday's meeting. Lanzillotti has set a goal of 100 to complete the group.

At first the band is only playing for their own enjoyment and entertainment, but later it plans to give concerts for the surrounding area. The first meetings are primarily for "feeling out" each other's skills and for becoming familiar with the music. The band's music, which is being furnished by the 515th AF Band, ranges from popular songs, to lively marches.

Need Students

Lanzillotti emphasized the need for students as well as adults in the band. He also said, however, that adults were needed to help in teaching the less experienced members. There was a larger percentage of students at the band's first meeting, but Monday night there were more adults, although the overall number was about the same both nights.

No definite plans for concerts have been scheduled for the band except that they do plan to give concerts later on.

Church Women Meet; Plan Activities

The Ruth and Aggie Wives circles of the A&M Methodist Church met jointly in the educational building Monday night for a study about Africa.

Mrs. Margaret Campbell opened the meeting with a devotional. A talk on Africa was given by Mrs. W. W. Mills.

Mrs. Pat Hardcastle and Mrs. Bill Tidwell were hostess to about 30 women at a social hour following the meeting.

Our Saviour's Lutheran Church
The Women's Missionary Society of Our Saviour's Lutheran Church will have a Thanks Offering program Thursday night at 7:30 p. m. at the church.

Mrs. A. G. Linsteadter, Thanks offering chairman, will present the program. Mrs. A. L. Giesenschlag and Mrs. Henry Hadley will be hostesses at a social hour following the program.

First Baptist Church

Mrs. Cliff Harris began teaching "The Book of Galicians" to all the circles of the Women's Missionary Society of the First Baptist Church Tuesday.

The Judson and Armstrong circles met at 9:30 a. m. and the Faith Snuggs and Aggie Wives circles met at 7:30 p. m. in the lounge of the educational building.

The Lottie Moon circle met with the Homemakers Sunday School class Tuesday night for a business and social meeting. Mrs. Waldo Walder and Mrs. Mary Scasta were hostesses.

AAU Group Meets Wednesday Night

The consumers group and the nutrition group of the College Station and Bryan branch of the American Association of University Women will meet jointly at 7:45 p. m. Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Marvin Whitehead, 1200 Munson East.

The AAUW met Monday at the Consolidated School for a program by the legislative committee of which Mrs. M. W. Rotsch is chairman.

Mesdames H. S. Creswell, Marvin Whitehead, C. W. Burchard and Dr. Meta Brown led discussions of the issues from which the national AAUW will set up its legislative program.
