Fans May Scream 'Shades of 1951'

By JERRY WIZIG Battalion Sports Staff

A&M Football supporters could be mumbling "shades of 1951" af-ter Saturday's football tussle with the TCU Horned Frogs of crafty mation. Coach Leo (Dutch) Meyer.

Frogs, on the strength of then un-Clinkscale, lightning fast speedknown Ray McKown's sensational ster who runs 100 yards in 9.6 selves, came from behind a 14-0 deficit late in the game, and rushed to a 20-14 victory that started them on the road' to the SWC championship. championship.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Moore Leads Co. E Over Squadron 18 In Feature Tilt

by I. Moore sparked an 18-0 vic-tory by Co. E over Sq. 18 in Tuesday's feature intramural football game

Moore scored twice on runs and passed for another touchdown. In another thriller T. Eikel, Sq. 21, threw a scoring aerial to teammate G. Hongate on the last play of the first half for the only touchdown of the game. Sq. 21, as a result, took a 6-0 decision from Co.

In the other contests, Co. I and Co. D both held their opponents scoreless in scoring 13-0 and 7-0 wins over Co. F and Sq. 20.

Tall Jim Ashlock poured in ten points in leading Law Hall to a 20-8 basketball victory over Vet Village.

Two field goals scored by Pace-ond half paced Sq. 24 to a 22-21
