Ags To Upset SWC Champs

By ED HOLDER
Sports Editor

The Aggies will win their first conference game of the year tomorrow and set a favored Horned Frog team back a notch or two.

Ray Graves will cock his lightning fast and pin-point accurate arm to outpass Ray McKown. The duel will be something to watch. Graves also has a knack for running that has proved deadly many times, but so does McKown.

Little Don (Babe) Ellis is coming more into the picture each game. He did great against Michigan, and will give the Frogs trouble tomorrow . . . also doing a little passing as well as running.

The outcome of the game will rest in the power of the defensive squad, sparked by two men, both deserving of All-American honors. One of these already holds the title . . . tackle Jack Little. The other is end Walter Hill, Another man who figures strong in that defensive wall is Marshall Rush.

Fired up and looking for revenge over the 1951 game, the Aggies should start rolling and show the fans something as they beat the SWC champs by 13 points.

Texas, Rice, Baylor—Winners

Lamar McHan has failed to show much, and hampered by injuries, he and his Razorbacks barely squeezed by Baylor last week. The game before they dropped before TCU in the conference opener.

Gib Dawson, Tom Stolhandske, T. Jones, and company, will be hot to redeem themselves over the licking they took from Oklahoma, and will try their best to run up a score. They looked bad against the Okies, but don't count on their staying down long Texas by at least 18.

Here's a close one that could go either way. The Mustangs boast a team which is supposed to be the best since their champs of '48 and '49, but from here it looks like it will go the other way.

Still looking for the Owls to come to life like they showed promise of last year when they mauled an Aggie team, we point to Rice by six points. The Owls have the power and they have probably been holding back a little. SMU lost Frank Eidom and that hurt. Rice starts their climb tomorrow.

The Bears have lost their first conference game, but they showed a good team in doing it.

Loss of last year's team has shoved Tech down the line, but they are playing on their home field, and will be anxious to beat a conference team. It won't be a run-away, but Baylor has the better squad by at least 14 points.

CHS Tangles Waller Tonight

The undefeated Consolidated High School Tigers, who have run up a total of 193 points against their opponent's are looking for their sixth win of the season to-night against Waller High School.

Waller's Bulldogs are reported to have a good team this year with a record of two wins, one loss and one tie. One of their wins was shut-out with a big score and Coach Othel V. Chafin doesn't expect an easy game.

Melvin Free, a tackle for Consolidated, and Buck Byer may not play tonight. Byer has a bad ankle and Free has been sick this week. The rest of the squad is in good shape.

System Predictions Not Guaranteed

Since disaster befell The Battalions' system last week, the predictions for this Saturdays' contest will not be guaranteed. After a brilliant start, the system has steadily dropped off until its average has ended up at 47 per cent.

According to the system:
A&M over TCU by 17 points.
SMU over Rice by 1 point.
Texas over Arkansas by 1 point.
Texas Tech over Baylor by 3 points.

INTRAMURALS

Safeties Highlight 'Mural Grid Play

That rarity of football, the safety, continued its steady appearance in intramural football games Wednesday, playing an important role in two of the four contests.

Sq. 10 used a two-pointer to slide by B Inf. 2-0, in a stubborn defense battle. Harlan Wensel trapped an enemy balltoter in the end zone late in the game after the infantry had stopped an Air Force offensive thrust on their one yard line.

Good passing carried Sq. 6 to a 14-6 win over B Arm., with another safety playing a part in the outcome. Both clubs showed individual stars, J. Wise for Sq. 6 and Tom Stephens for B Arm. playing strong defensive games.

In the other games C FA scored a 13-6 win over Sq. 15 and Sq. 14 won from B FA by the same score.

Ten points was the high for individual scoring in the day's basketball games. Golla, Sq. 13, scored nearly half his team's total output as they beat Sq. 14, 23-13.

Sq. 7 held Sq. 15 scoreless in the entire first half to coast to a 23-12 victory. A TC took an 18-6 decision from A Arm. Griffin of the winners was high scorer with six. A Inf. had an easy time with ASA, 19-5.

In tennis A QMC won all three matches to beat A Cml., 3-0. B Arm. won from Sq. 3 by the same margin.

B FA and Sq. 8 won 2-1 decisions from Sq. 6 and AAA. Cook and Mueller and Crowley and Willis were the winning twosomes for B FA. Sq. 8's winning doubles were Dishman and Munnerlyn and Little and Hunt.

BULLETIN!
College students prefer Luckies in nation-wide survey!
A nation-wide survey based on actual student interviews in 80 leading colleges reveals that more smokers in these colleges prefer Luckies than any other cigarette—and by a wide margin. The No. 1 reason given for smoking Luckies? Luckies' better taste. What's more, this same survey shows that Lucky Strike gained far more smokers in these colleges than the nation's two other principal brands combined.
