

Tate Sparks Ags At New Position

By GERALD ESTES
Battalion Sports Staff

Marvin Tate, the tough little guard from Abilene, has added a lot of spirit and hustle to the rather small Aggie line this year.

Having played all but the TCU game at offensive guard, Coach Ray George hesitated about running the 188 pound 6 feet "little man" in on the defensive platoon against the Frogs.

But after watching Tate perform George said, "I think he will probably play on defense the remainder of the year. He showed a lot of promise in there for the first time."

Sparks Teammates
Always sparking his teammates on, Tate has played an important role in each of the Aggie games. While on offense, his speed and aggressiveness allowed him to pull out of the line and lead interference around ends and off tackles.

He and Marshall Rush are the boys who stopped a powerful TCU offensive drive through the middle of the line. Rush said that Tate is "about the best man to work with at guard I ever saw."

"He backs me up when I go on a limb to slice or crash, and he does a darned good job of it too. Marvin also has a lot of hustle that seems to make everyone go just a little harder than they think they can," said Rush.

A graduate of Abilene High School, where he was All State guard two years, Tate earned three varsity letters in football, and three letters in baseball. Tate was also captain of the high school team his senior year.

"Earning a starting berth on the varsity my sophomore year is the biggest thrill of my football career," said Tate. This year's team has more hustle and desire to win than any team I have ever played on," he added.

Aggies Not in Cellar

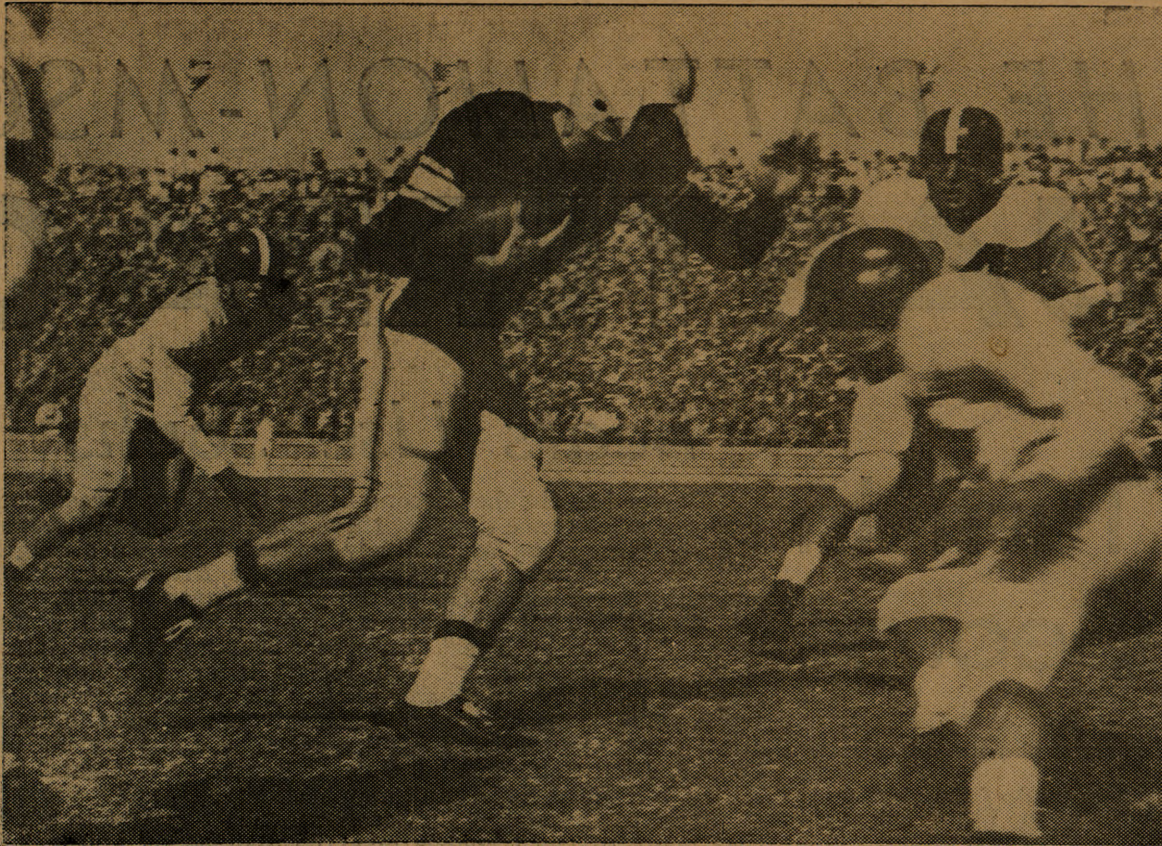

He predicted that this year's team will wind up far from the cellar. Tate believes the conference teams that will really be tough are Texas University, and Rice. But he pointed out they were far from being unbeatable.

During the summer, Tate was married to Kay Callaway of Corpus Christi. They were married July 13, in her hometown.

Junior Bowling Club Is Formed for Children

A Junior Bowling Club is being formed for all boys and girls between the ages of 8 and 16. Classes will be held in the MSC bowling alley each Saturday from 9 o'clock until 12.

All students must bring a letter signed by their parents saying that it is permissible for them to bowl. The instruction will be free, but there will be a charge of 30 cents per line.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Sq. 11 Scores On Last Play

The old sports adage about the game not being over until the final gun was never more forcibly proven than in Monday's football games.

Sq. 11 scored on the last play of the game, then counted the extra point, to take a 7-6 squeaker from B Arm. With only three plays remaining in the game, B FA scored and kicked the extra point to eke out A Arm., 14-13. Timely pass interceptions had kept A Arm. on the long end of the score.

Halfback Bubba Sammons scored two touchdowns on runs of 40 and 30 yards to lead A QMC to a 19-0 win over A FA. Quarterback Rusty Reynolds passed to end Kent Mahone for the third tally.

A TC, sparked by Shrader, ground out a touchdown to decision C FA, 6-0. B Inf. edged Sq. 7 12-7.

In an overtime basketball tilt A QMC, tied 10-10 at the end of regulation time, scored a field goal and free throw in overtime to beat Sq. 11, 13-10.

Acree With 13 Points

John Acree rammed in 13 points to take scoring honors for the day as Sq. 6 trounced A Eng., 24-8. A Ord. outscored Sq. 10, 22-6, with Sam Johnson scoring 10 points for the winners. A Cml. threw up a net tight defense in the second half to win from Sq. 9, 22-8.

Three of the four tennis matches were decided by 2-1 margins. The scores are as follows: Sq. 7 over Sq. 14, 6-8, 8-0, 8-2; A Inf. over Sq. 5, 8-4, 7-9, 8-2; C FA over A Sig., 8-1, 2-8, 8-5. Sq. 15 white-washed Sq. 3, 3-0, by scores of 8-4, 8-4, 8-0.

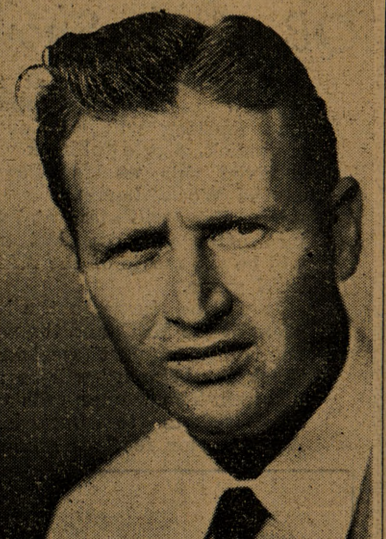

Sq. 5, A Cml., A Ord., and A Eng. notched horseshoes triumphs from Sq. 13, Sq. 9, Sq. 10, and Sq. 6 by scores at 2-1.

Steinke Takes On Rebuilding Chores

Backfield coach Gil Steinke is the man who has rebuilt the Aggie backfield and helped to install the new split-T formation. He had one of the hardest jobs of any Southwest Conference backfield coach, having to find replacements for the Bob Smith-Glenn Lippman-Billy Tidwell-Dick Gardemal combination which romped over more ground than most SWC quarters. A little All-American halfback at Texas A&I in the early 1940's, Steinke played for the Philadelphia Eagles in the professional league where he led the National League in punt returns in 1946.

From the pro ranks Steinke went to Trinity University as a backfield coach, then to Oklahoma A&M as the freshman football coach.

Carter, Sousares Pick CHS To Win

By JERRY NEIGHBORS
Battalion Sports Staff

Bobby Carter, place-kicker for the A&M Consolidated Tigers says "We're really going places this year. We've got a good team and will probably give Hemstead in the district, and Sugarland, in B-district play, a good rough fight."

Carter has been on the team for three years and expects to win his third varsity letter this year.

George Sousares, offensive left guard, is another Tiger who thinks Consolidated has it best chances in quite a while. Sousares is also a junior who is looking for his third letter.

Sousares is, says Coach Chafin, a good line-man who should be even better next season. He is improving all the time along with the rest of the team, said Chafin, who is pleased with the entire squad.

"With Consolidated and Hemstead about even, Friday's game should be plenty tough," said Sousares. We'll be out to win it with all we have," he continued.

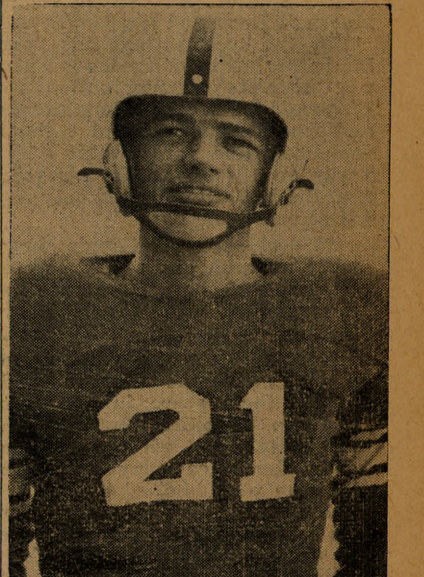

"With Hemstead as big as they are and with their district standing, this will turn out to be the most important game this year," said Coach Chafin. Like Chafin, the team doesn't look for an easy victory but they are all pretty confident.

Carter

According to Coach Othel Chafin, Carter is a good kicker and hasn't missed many extra-points since the beginning of the season. Carter also plays defensive end.

The Hemstead game, which will be on Friday night, is, according to Carter, the decisive game of district play this year. Since Hemstead has won three district games and Consolidated only two, it will at least decide who leads, for a time.
