BU Sends 'Welcome' Delegation

A&M students were welcomed to spend the weekend at the Baylor campus by Glenn Walker, president of the Baylor student body.

Speaking at yell practice with a delegation of three other Baylor students, Walker declared that A&M always had been a friendly campus to him. He explained that the recent painting spree on both campus were of an unfortunate nature and that such events should cease.

The West Gate Memorial received a splashing of green and yellow paint sometime Wednesday night. The words "Baylor" and letters "BU" were in green paint on the natorium walls and outside The Grove. Some painting also was done on Hart Hall.

W. L. Penberthy, dean of men, said the finger of accusation cannot be pointed at anyone, since there is no evidence available as to whom might have painted the signs. Penberthy added he called the Baylor's dean of men who told him that the letters "A&M" had been painted on the Baylor campus in black shoe polish. Baylor's dean said he did not think Aggies were responsible.

Head Football Coach Ray George asked that A&M students not retaliate.

Chest Changes Mind

Recreation Council Funds Reconsidered

The Community Chest committee has reconsidered the College Station Recreation Council's appeal for funds.

The committee decided to give the Recreation Council the $1,000 they originally requested, provided enough money is made on the drive to do this without cutting any of the other participant's allotment.

When the original budget was drawn up, the Council's request was cut to $500. Donald Burchard, chairman of the Recreation Council, presented their appeal to a meeting of the Chest committee yesterday.

As the goal for the Chest is now set at $10,519, a total of $11,519 will have to be collected for the Recreation Council to get the additional $500.

The Chest goal was originally set at $12,519, but the withdrawal of the Red Cross from the drive brought the goal down by $2,000. The Community Chest drive is set for Nov. 1-10. According to Bennie Zinn, chairman of the Chest committee, the goal can be reached if every one working in College Station will donate one day's pay.

Employees of the college will be solicited through their departments. Business establishments and College Station residents who do not work for the college will be contacted by members of the Chest committee.

A letter explaining the purposes and functions of the Community Chest will be sent to every one who is to be contacted.

Council Will Start First Meet Tonight

The first session of the annual Texas Council on Rural Health will meet tonight at 7:30 p. m. in the Memorial Student Center. Dr. Daniel Russell, Professor of Rural Sociology, will be chairman.

Mr. Eugene Butler, Editor of Progressive Farmer, will begin the council with a meeting of the Resolutions Committee. The Council will discuss the success and problems encountered by present rural health programs.

As a result of the meeting a new and better program will be devised and conveyed to the rural communities by those who attend the Council.

C.S. High School To Hold Pet Show

Members of College Station society's four legged set will make their annual debut at the Consolidated High School sponsored pet show Monday in the high school stadium.

The program will begin at 6 p. m. with the grand parade starting at 7 p. m. Contestants will be divided into five major categories. Pure bred dogs and heinz variety dogs will be judged in four divisions consisting of large longhaired; large, shorthaired; small longhaired; and small, shorthaired.

Cats will be judged in one group while all other pets will compete in the fourth category.

All pets who can do tricks are eligible for the special tricks award which makes up the fifth division.

Ross Hall Gun Does It Again In Early Morn

Ross Hall's left front 57 mm antitank gun was reactivated again at 1:20 a.m. today.

Two explosions were set off mysteriously in the muzzle of the gun. Previous blasts were reported as coming from the gun earlier this year.

Chief Fred Hickman of the Campus Security Office explained that other explosions were reported in front of Sbis Hall at 12:05 a.m. last night and at the Grove at 1:20 a.m. today.

"We have no idea what it was," Hickman added.

The military department authorities were unavailable for comment.

Harrington Returns From AF University

Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of the college, accompanied by Col. John A. Way, PAS&T, returned here yesterday after attending the Air Force's orientation conferences at the Air University, Maxwell AFB, Montgomery, Ala.

Gen. Nathan F. Twining, the AF vice chief of staff, spoke to some of the nation's leading educators representing 95 universities and colleges which have AF ROTC units.

The AF General warned his audience that the Air Force doesn't have enough men with the "courage, determination and high intelligence" necessary to defeat a "desperate and resourceful enemy."

And, he said, that is one of the "potential tragedies of our times."

Too many people, he said, feel that "safety and ease and narrow self-interest are sufficient and praiseworthy for young men to seek."

He deplored what he called "the notion that an intellectual and physical courage and daring are no longer necessary to our survival as a nation."

It is only through "your cooperation," he told the college officials who have ROTC in their schools,

Aggieland Combo Plays Saturday At Baylor

The Esquire Club at Baylor is sponsoring a dance at the Roosevelt Hotel, beginning at 8 p.m. Saturday, C. G. (Spike) White, director of Student Activities, said today.

Tickets are available here in the Student Activities office, at Goodwin Hall, White added. Price is $4. The Aggie-land Combo will play, he said.

that the Air Force has been able to "find any means of providing a limited professional education for its future leaders."

Consequently, he said, it is up to the colleges and universities to provide "the right kind of men so this nation need have no fear."

Thomas K. Finletter, secretary of the Air Force also participated in the one-day conference at the Air University.

The educators toured Maxwell AFB and AFOTC headquarters early in the afternoon and also attended a panel discussion. A protocol dinner was given in their honor that night.

Homecoming Gives Bears Slim Edge

By ED HOLDER
Sports Editor

The Aggies meet a Home-Coming-Inspired Baylor eleven tomorrow in what was forecast before the beginning of the season as a battle for the cellar.

Coach Ray George will take his Cadets to Waco in hopes of climbing another step up the SWC ladder. The Maroon and White has already bettered what was forecast for them by winning two games, losing two, and tying one.

The Bears have also written an impressive record. They were rated next to the Aggies in preseason polls, but now have the best win-loss record in the conference for the season.

Another outstanding factor to add to the surprising Baylor accomplishments is they are first in the conference in total offense. The Aggies, however, are last in defensive records.

Several revisions in the Aggie line-up have been made during the week, but none of them are definite. Coach George has been trying men out at different positions, and switching their duties, but he has not announced any of these as being permanent.

The change made in last week's TCU tilt of Marvin Tate from offensive to defensive guard will probably go into the Bear game.

Ray Barrett, who took Tate's place against the Frogs, has a minor injury, and may not be able to go against the Bears.

Howard Zuch, defensive end, has been running at halfback on a few plays the past week. Hub Scott, defensive halfback, has also been alternating at trying the offensive backfield.

Graves Runs Split-T

Ray Graves, third in the nation in passing offense, will do the quarterbacking for the Farmers. He will operate the split-T for Coach George, and is expected to keep the aerial end of the game going.

Raymond Haas, out of the TCU game because of injuries, will be ready to go at halfback again. The little scatback from Kingsville will start the game and be backed by Pete Mayeaux who took over Haas' spot against the Frogs.

Don "Babe" Ellis will be at the other halfback, and Connie Magouirk, powerhouse fullback, will fill out the backfield.

Offensive Line

Eric Miller, offensive left end who received an injury just before the Oklahoma A&M game, is still not able to play at full strength. (See BAYLOR, Page 4)

Morgan Speaks In UN Birthday Celebration

The United Nations will celebrate its birthday all over the world Oct. 24 and this same occasion will be observed at A&M by a program in the YMCA, according to Gordon Gay, director of the YMCA. The program will be attended by 92 foreign students, representing 32 countries.

Dr. David H. Morgan, dean of the College, will present a short talk "The History and Working of the United Nations." After the talk, there will be a brief business session, which will be followed by refreshments of coffee and sixteen cakes donated by different local church groups.

During the week, each of the foreign students will be invited by a family in the Bryan-College Station area for a home-cooked meal as a gesture of good will.

This work is sponsored by Council of Church Women, Business and Professional Women's Club, Rotary Club, Campus Study Club, Daughters of the American Revolution Club, American Association of University Women, Kiwanis Club, and the YMCA.

Argentina will be represented by 2 students, Brazil 2; British East Africa, 1; China, 2; Colombia, 1; Costa Rica, 2; Cuba, 2; Ecuador, 1; Egypt, 3; El Salvador, 4; France, 1; Guatemala, 2; India, 7; Indonesia, 1; Iran 4; Iraq, 2; and Japan, 1.

One-Story House Ruined by Fire

A small, one story, frame house was destroyed by fire at North Washington and Pear in Bryan yesterday afternoon. All occupants escaped the burning dwelling, however, without injury.

The Bryan Fire Department, which received the alarm at about 3 p. m. arrived to find the house completely enveloped in smoke and flames. Although the fire was quickly brought under control, the house and all personal belongings were a total loss.

This was the third house in Bryan to be destroyed by fire within the past two weeks.

Uniform Regulations Talked by Unit COs

Changes and clarifications in certain uniform regulations were announced yesterday at a meeting of all corps unit commanders. Commandant Col. Joe Davis told the commanders fatigue uniforms will be worn with jumpers tucked in the trousers. The regulation, he said, applies to all students in the corps.

Davis said juniors and seniors will wear white belts with the fatigues, while freshmen and sophomores will wear khaki or fatigue belts. Senior cadet officers will wear their branch insignia on the left collar and rank, the right collar of fatigues.

Not Enough Men

The commandant also asked commanders to see that all cadet non-commissioned officers had sewed on all uniforms, including blouses.

The commanders decided to form the traditional "T" at halftime during the Arkansas game. Head yell leader Tom Collins announced work would start on the bonfire immediately after the Rice game.

Lt. Col. Taylor Wilkins, assistant commandant, cautioned commanders about buying axes and other supplies for working on the bonfire. He suggested they first check to see what equipment is already available through the corps supply sergeant.

Col. Davis Approves

Upon the recommendation of First Division Commander Joe Wallace, Colonel Davis approved

Film Society Shows First Film Tuesday

Three of Hollywood's most popular menaces will star in the A&M Film Society's first movie of the year Tuesday night in the MSC Ballroom.

Humphrey Bogart, Sidney Greenstreet, and Peter Lorre will exchange dialogue and bullets in a rival of Warner Bros.' "The Maltese Falcon." Based on the novel by Dashiell Hammett, the movie concerns the experiences of that super sleuth, Sam Spade, as he becomes involved in a case of murder and intrigue over a priceless idol.

Bogart plays Spade while Mary Astor gives the cast something to think about besides making a fast buck.

Season tickets can be purchased in the Office of Student Activities in Goodwin Hall for one dollar apiece. More than 200 tickets have already been sold this year said Ed Holder, president of The A&M Film Society.

Other movies scheduled include "The Treasure of Sierra Madre," "The 39 Steps," "Great Expectations," and "Lost Horizon." The remainder of the schedule will be announced in The Battalion at a later date, Holder said.

Reservists Meet Monday in MSC

All Air Reservists in the Bryan-College Station area are invited to attend the meeting of the 9807th Volunteer Air Reserve Training Squadron Monday at 7:30 p. m. in the MSC.

The speaker will be Lt. Col. V. E. Schember, who will discuss "Pay, Allowances, and Other Funds." A training film will complete the program.

RETURN FROM AIR UNIVERSITY—Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of the college (left) and Col. John A. Way, PAS&T, returned to College Station yesterday from Montgomery, Ala. Air ROTC professors and college officials from 188 colleges and universities offering AF ROTC attended the one-day conference.

Band to 'Spell' While Moving

Formation of letters while marching will be the Aggies Consolidated Band's main attraction for halftime entertainment at the Baylor game Saturday, Lt. Col. E. V. Adams, band director, said today.

"It will be the first time since 1947 that the Aggie band has attempted this," Col Adams added.

About 300 members of the freshman and upperclassman bands will be taken to Baylor, the band director explained.

Halftime ceremonies will begin with the Cadet band moving on the field in a continuous counter-march and dividing as they march. The two bands will cross through each other and come out in a moving formation spelling out "B-A-Y-L-O-R."

After closing formation, the bands will move toward the A&M seating section in the form of a T and melt as they hit the sidelines.
