Huge Crowd Packs Guion Jazz Show

Cootie Williams, his sextet and the Ink Spots played to a standing room only crowd in Guion Hall last night, as more than 1800 persons packed into the modern music concert.

Williams and his wild aggregation set a fire under the audience with their interpretations of modern music.

Cootie himself opened the two-hour long show with a trumpet solo of the late Bunny Berigan's famed blues song "I Can't Get Started."

For many people in the audience, it was their first introduction to "hop", as the music is known to the musicians, and its forms. They evidently liked what they heard, as applause was deafening after each number.

"Blues" Vocalist

Eddie Mack, vocalist for the sextet, gave a good account of himself with blues songs straight from Beale and Basin Street bar rooms.

Some of Mack's songs were "One More Bottle of Beer," "I Love My Baby," and "Red Hot Mama." All of these were sung in the high, loud voice of the Negro blues man.

Another of Cootie's crowd scoring a hit with the packed house, was Sylvester Austin, whose saxophone stylings had the audience breathless. Sylvester forced his sax into ranges many did not think possible for that instrument.

Cootie himself was just short of great on the trumpet he brandished before the stamping, whistling crowd; he made the brass

Non-Military Mess Hall To Open Soon; 243 Sign Up

The non-military mess hall will be opened soon said Bob Murray, dormitory counselor for civilian dormitories, Vet Village, and College View.

So far 243 students have signed for the new cafeteria, making the total number a little above the required 200 he said.

No definite opening date has been set, but will be announced as soon as can be arranged, he said.

Out of the total number of students who signed, 102 were from Law Hall, 43 from Bizzell Hall, and 98 from Pur-year Hall. Senators from Post-Graduate and Mitchell have not sent in their reports on the matter, Murray said.

Also included in the agenda are reports from Charles "Red" Scott, senior class vice-president, on the Student Senate, and from Mattei on the activities of the Student Life Committee.

Members of the committee include Joe Wallace, chairman, Gene Steed, Sam Harper, Davis Bottom, Pat Richman, Lyle Wolfskill, Lee Phillips, Danny Howell, and Dick Birdwell.

The committee would gather the complaints of each commander and after examination present them to the military department, said Wallace.

He also added that the complaints submitted by the committee will be careful considered by the military department in an effort to find possible solutions.

Commanders are instructed to send the reports listing their grievances to Wallace in room 217, Dorm 7, not later than 5 p. m. Friday, Oct. 31.

Hazing Approved In Student Poll

By JOE HIPPI
Battalion News Staff

Aggies prefer "hazing" according to an opinion poll conducted yesterday.

More than 130 questions were asked in determining the results of the poll. A comparable representation from all classes were asked.

As a means of punishment for breach of discipline, "hazing" is the only solution, several students said. The abolishment of this custom can result only in the "down-fall" of the corps.

The question: Do you favor hazing?

Yes	No	Undecided
78%	22%	0%

Gripe Committee

The senior officer committee formed to meet with the military department will accomplish its purpose, according to the poll.

Established during Monday's Commanders meeting, the committee was charged with the responsibility of determining what grievances now exist in the corps and with the added responsibility of presenting these grievances to the

'Boat' Saw Koje Without Any Problems

Maj. Gen. Haydon L. Boatner, who earned the nickname "Bull" while dealing with Communist war prisoners on Koje Island, explained the secret of his success to the San Antonio Association of A&M Former Students.

Gen. Boatner told the exes of his first interview on the Koje problem with Gen. Mark Clark, commander of UN forces.

"Are there mothers clubs on Koje?" asked Boatner. "Are there seniors in the camp?" inquired the ex-commandant. "Are there any former students associations?" questioned "The Bull."

"General Boatner, what in the world are you talking about," asked Clark, "of course there are none of these."

"Well then," Boatner replied, "where's your problem?"

Daniel Says Trumanites Make Texans 'Chumps'

AUSTIN, Oct. 29—(P)—Atty. Gen. Price Daniel last night charged "the Truman crowd" is playing Texans "for a bunch of chumps."

In a statewide radio speech from a Democrats-for-Eisenhower rally, the senator-elect said a Texas maajority for Adlai Stevenson will be interpreted as a Texas vote against her tidelands and her annexation agreement.

"Stevenson has told us flatly he favors the federal government taking these lands and that he will give us nothing but a compromise consisting of whatever percentage of the revenue he thinks we should have," Daniel said.

"Gen. Eisenhower says he will uphold the Texas annexation agreement and permit the Congress to restore our lands to our public school fund.

Stevenson Against Texas

"If we turn down Gen. Eisenhower and vote for Mr. Stevenson under these circumstances, you can be sure that Mr. Stevenson will use our action against us in fighting for federal ownership of our tidelands."

He pounded at the Democratic Party's volleys at party disloyalty in Texas.

"When thousands of American boys are being shot at in Korea, when we are witnessing the greatest waste, the biggest spending, and the most corruption, and all the Truman crowd can do in this state is run around and talk about prosperity and party loyalty, it is high time that we voted this administration out of office.

"They are playing Texans for a bunch of chumps, and you know it."

Texas Tradition Hit

He punched at Texas tradition for voting Democratic.

"There are some among us, I regret to say, who hold that you and I have no freedom of choice on election day.

"They insist that our votes were mortgaged by our forefathers to the national Democratic Party," Daniel said he accepts no such obligation.

Daniel hurled a new blast at Truman's administration.

"Do you think all of the crookedness and subversion has come to light yet?" he asked.

Ike Won't Cover

"I think one of the main reasons President Truman wants his hand-picked friends to take over the executive department is because he knows that a new administration under Dwight D. Eisenhower will not cover up and hide what they find after he is gone."

Daniel chided former Atty.-Gen. William McCraw of Dallas, who has been speaking for Stevenson.

'GOP Intentions Selfish'—Connally

ABILENE, Oct. 29—(P)—Sen. Tom Connally plugged for Adlai Stevenson last night asserting Texas has nothing to gain by voting Republican.

"The intentions of the Republican Party toward Texas are selfish," the state's senior senator said in his radio speech. "They want your votes but are not interested in your welfare. I believe the people of Texas realize that and resent it."

"Let us on election day show these homegrown carpetbaggers how much we resent it," pleaded Connally, who retires this year after a long tenure in Washington.

Answer Impostors

"Let us answer these impostors with a roar of votes that will silence their puny caterwauling forevermore."

Connally charged that the Republicans—"both the Old Guard orators and their Charlie McCarthys"—are making more campaign promises than they will be able to keep.

"Anything you want—or they think you want—they will be glad to promise."

How Foolish

"How foolish do they think the American people are?"

"This is the same line they fed you once before. Remember the promises in 1928? Remember how there were going to be two chickens in every pot and two cars in every garage?"

"Of course, you remember. And you remember, too, how the Republicans made good on their promises. Oh, boy, they really delivered. There weren't any chickens. There weren't any cars, and the housing shortage got so bad that people had to move into the empty garage."

Democrats Okay

Connally described the Democratic Party as "the party which has a consistent, sound, forward-looking program for world peace."

He said the Republican Party "vacillates between withdrawing into a hole and pulling our oceans in over us, on one hand, and starting a world war, on the other."

"Let us not sell the Democratic Party for a mass of pottage," the aging senator said, "let us roll up the biggest majority for Adlai Stevenson and John Sparkman that Democratic candidates have ever received in this great state."

Corps Trip Plans Talked With Officials

Preliminary plans for the SMU game corps trip to Dallas were made with Dallas city officials yesterday by a delegation from A&M.

Parade route and other problems were discussed with E. L. Batchelor, deputy chief of police for traffic safety.

The corps trip parade will originate in the area around the triple underpass on Main St. Units will form on Main St. up to Market St., leaving cross streets open to traffic until the parade gets underway.

Colors will be distributed to color bearers at 8:30 a. m. so they may be spotted at various intervals for men in their units to see where to form, announced Lt. Col. Taylor Wilkins, assistant commandant.

Cadets will begin to form in companies at 9 a. m. and the parade will start promptly at 10 a. m., Col. Wilkins said.

The parade will be approximately 20 blocks long down Main St. A reviewing stand will be located at the City Hall at Harwood and Main. Three blocks beyond the reviewing stand the line of march will turn right for one block on Hawkins St., and will break up when it reaches Commerce St. one block further.

Meeting with the Dallas officials were Weldon Kruger, corps commander; Dee Francis, corps operations officer; Don Greaney, consolidated band commander; and Joel Austin, corps public information officer.

Members of the military science department making the trip were Col. John A. Way, PAS&T; Col. Wilkins; Capt. Paul M. Bennett, Army operations officer; and Maj. J. C. Lowell, Air Force operations officer.

The delegation flew to Dallas in Air Force planes from Bryan AFB. They were met at Love Field in Dallas by Casey Smith, Dallas chief of police.

Demo Club Hears Report

BACK FROM KOREAN FRONT

Vet Blasts American Public

By ED HOLDER

A&M received some of the first Korean veterans to enter college at the beginning of the semester.

One of these new students is Byron A. (Scotty) Parham of Company A, Third Regiment.

A little over a month ago, Scotty was a sergeant first class in the Army signal corps, stationed at Camp Breckenridge, Ky. Like many of the other veterans, Scotty returned from Korea on the Army's rotation system a few months ago after more than 18 months service in Korea. Prior to going to Korea, he served 13 months of occupation duty in Japan.

Straight From Tennessee

A graduate of Milby High School in Houston, Scotty enlisted in the Army in December, 1948. Although registered from Tennessee, Scotty claims Houston as his home and Jackson, Tenn., as his official home.

In Korea, Scotty served first with the signal section, Headquarters, EUSAK and then with the 24th Signal Company, 24th Infantry Division. While with the 24th Division, he received the Distinguished Unit Citation, the Republic of Korea Distinguished Unit Citation, and the Bronze Star Medal with Valor Clasp.

Scotty also holds the Army Good Conduct Medal, Korean Campaign Medal with seven campaign stars, and the United Nations Medal.

When asked about the Bronze Star Medal, Scotty just grinned and replied, "I was where I shouldn't have been—got chewed out good for it too." A checkup showed he received the award for preventing important dispatches from falling into enemy hands after being ambushed by guerillas.

When asked what he thought of the "states" after three years overseas, he replied, "Naturally it looked wonderful, but I think the first thing those of us returning thought of was the change. Not necessarily the new style cars or modern homes, but the general attitude toward what we were lucky enough to live through.

Lack of Understanding

"In fact," Scotty said "many of us were embittered at the lack of understanding of just what was going on. To us, it seemed that some people hardly knew that we were fighting the first battle for the survival of democracy."

"Having seen a part of this world, I decided to go to college in order to receive training which would benefit me and the United States. I'd like to go back into government service because I believe the United States and the world have much to sell to each other once we get to know one another."

When asked what he thought of the "states" after three years over-
