Aggies Again; Texas To Win

By ED HOLDER
Sports Editor

The game Saturday should be close, but the Aggies simply aren't to be denied.

It seems the Maroon and White always has its best day of the year against SMU regardless of the opposition. And it looks like it will be that way again in the Cotton Bowl as the Mustangs take the back seat to a Ray Graves-driven powerhouse. The team is up in spirit and down in flaws. Workouts have been clicking smoothly and everyone working hard. If Ray George can put up a defense like he had last week, the Farmers will ride the Ponies right out of the stadium.

But the passing game of the Mustangs will have to be reckoned with. SMU has four men in the backfield who all claim good passing records. A&M on the other hand has a young man named Joe Boring who might spoil a few records, and he is the likely one to lead the defensive backfield of the Cadets Saturday.

When the dust has cleared, or the mud raked off, the Aggies should be on top of the pile about three points higher than the host team. Both squads have a good offense, so the score should be about 23-20.

Texas and TCU to Win-Rice and Arkansas Tie

Texas will take Baylor in what should be one of the top games in the conference this week-end. The Orange and White are on their way to a conference championship. (See CONFERENCE, Page 5)

Golf Exhibition Set

By JERRY ESTES
Battalion Sports Staff

A free golf exhibition featuring Marilyn Smith will be given Monday November 10, at 1:30 p. m. on the A&M golf course.

Miss Smith will play in a foursome with three local golfers. Completing the foursome will be Mrs. Ruby Lee Harding, John Barrett, and Bobby Briggs. Barrett and Briggs are members of the Aggie golf team.

She is a member of the renowned staff of Spalding consultants which includes such golfing greats as Alice and Marlene Bauer, Bobby Jones, Jimmy Thomson, and Lawson Little, to name a few.

In 1946, at the age of 17, Miss Smith commenced her career in competitive golf when she won the Women's Wichita City Championship and Kansas State Amateur Championship. The following year, she again won the Kansas State Amateur Championship.

In 1947, she entered the University of Kansas and while still a freshman reached the finals of the National Inter-Collegiate Championship and then won for the third consecutive year the Kansas State Amateur Championship. In 1949 Miss Smith won the National Inter-Collegiate Championship and then decided upon a career as a golf professional.

As a member of the Ladies P. G. A., she was one of the top money winners in 1952. Miss Smith was runner-up at the New Orleans Open, the Fresno Open, the New York Weather-vane, and the Hard-scrabble Open at Fort Smith, Arkansas. She was third at the Title-holders tournament held in Augusta, Georgia.

As a member of A. G. Spalding & Bros. staff of golf consultants, Miss Smith will continue to play in tournaments, give golf exhibitions and hold golf clinics.

Fish, Owlets Battle On Kyle Field at 7:30

A standout hard-driving full-back and a tough heavy defensive line will be the big problems faced by the Aggie Fish tonight on Kyle Field. The game starts at 7:30.

The Rice Owlet fullback is 210 pound Jerry Hall, former All-Stater for Palestine. Two 240 pound tackles and a 226 pound center and linebacker add considerable heft to the Owlet defensive line. Eddie Rayburn and Orville Trask are the tackles and Don Wilson is the double duty man.

Two small but able halfbacks, Bobby Graham of LaMarque and Mendel Lavigne of Houston San Jacinto and Quarterback John Pinky Nisbet of Houston Reagan round out the standard T formation backfield.

Ronald Robbins passing and Billy Huddleston's running make up the double-barreled offense of the Fish. Huddleston has reeled of runs of 85, 80, and 62 yards this season.

System Picks A&M, TCU, Texas, Hogs

The Batt System had a good day last weekend picking three winners, being stumped only by the TCU-Baylor tie. After last week, the System has a season percentage of .530.

A&M will have another happy Saturday according to the System, taking the SMU Mustangs, while Baylor's automatic toe will drop another one to the Longhorns. TCU will bring up the conference's intersectional score while Arkansas will shove the Owls deeper in the cellar.

This week the System sees: A&M over SMU by 17. Arkansas over Rice by 9. TCU over Wake Forest by 12. Texas over Baylor by 1.

Coach Johnny Vaught cleared the Mississippi bench in the 54-6 opening grid win against Memphis State. He used 58 men including 11 freshmen.

The lightest man on the University of Miami football squad this fall is home-bred Wally Pipe 150-pound speed king.

THE CANDLE BURNS LOW

If candles were your only source of light, and this were your last candle, you would find little comfort in the glimmer of its dying light. When the candle burns low, darkness is too near.

Light has for centuries been a symbol of man's spiritual resources. But in the lives of some of us the candle is burning dangerously low . . . One bright Sunday—a month, or a year, or a decade ago—we felt sure of unlimited spiritual resources. Today we pause and wonder. In this frightening world faith flickers, and the rays of hope don't always penetrate the walls of despair.

The candle need not go out! With an urgency matching the seriousness of our lifetime, the Church calls us to replenish the Light of our lives. A new candle . . . deeper faith . . . braver courage . . . brighter hope . . . these await us each Sunday in Church.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday . . .	Proverbs	20 18-30

Tuesday . . .	Psalms	141 1-10
Wednesday . . .	I John	1 1-10
