A showing of winter fashions will be presented by Miller's Fashions and the Architectural Wives Society in the YMCA Chapel at 7:30 p. m. Monday.

In a modern setting, clothing suitable for the office girl at work and at holiday parties will be modeled by members of the society. Mrs. Homer Adams, manager of Miller's Fashions, will direct the show and present the commentary. Models will be Mesdames Jean McMullen, Gail Byrnes, Wanda Blackman, Jean Ross, Bobbie Sholer, Jo Ann Rush, Virgie Sellars, Tucker Saxe, Joan Waldon, Faye Parsons.

A social hour will be held following the style show with Mesdames Cathleen Piper, Helen Winger, Flora Nickerson and Janet Newman serving as hostesses.

The show will be open to the public, said Mrs. Faye Parsons, publicity chairman.

Safety Tape Put On Kids Bikes

College Station's boys and girls can now ride their bicycles more safely at night, thanks to Patrolman Curtis Bullock.

As a part of the city's bicycle safety campaign, Bullock put reflector tape on the bicycles of students at A&M Consolidated School. The tape is adhesive, and is designed to reflect the light from automobile headlights. It was put on the rear fender and the handlebars of each bicycle.

Bullock also gave each student a sticker saying "I pledge to ride safely" for his bicycle.

This campaign will last all year. Each student will be given a membership card, and at the end of the year every student who has less than three safe-riding violations will be given a safety certificate.

Violations of safe riding practices may be reported by teachers, parents, or policemen.

For the last month, Bullock has been showing safety films and giving safe-riding talks in the school.

Dallas Texans Orphaned Back To Nat'l League

DALLAS, Nov. 13—(AP) Dallas was without professional football today just 11 months after it brought in a franchise with fanfare and ballyhoo that said the game couldn't miss in big, free-spending Texas.

The Dallas Texans, who lost seven games out of seven and almost a quarter of a million dollars, were orphaned yesterday when the 16 stockholders turned the franchise back to the National Football League. The Texans became a "road club" and play no more games in Dallas.

Coupled with the announcement that the Texans were quitting with a little more than half the season completed was the statement that a bid would be made to buy the club back when it came up for disposal probably next month.

Financial aid was obtained with a group of moneyed men willing to take over and operate on a three-year basis but John Coyle, one of the Texans trustees, said "interim financing" could not be obtained. He explained that the Texans didn't have the money to operate during three weeks or more that would be required to effect legal transfer of the club to the new group. There were 40 bond-holders who held, in effect, a mortgage on the franchise. That created the legal technicalities.

have not contributed the amount we expected," Zinn said.
Reports from the residential district, which was not canvassed last year, have been showing good results, Zinn said. Business districts also have made a good showing although some firms have made no contributions he said.
"College students are not asked for contributions, since most of the money spent by the Chest is used for College Station residents, Zinn said. Any students who wish to contribute, should contact me," Zinn said.
Anyone who has not been approached by the Chest committee should send his contribution to Zinn's office in Goodwin Hall.
