

BUSY LIBRARIAN—Miss Dorothy Churchwell, head of the circulation department, Cushing Memorial Library, helps a student locate a book. Last year almost 12,600 of the library's 200,000 volumes were checked out and even more will be used this year.

15,000 Books a Month Loaned by Library

One of the busiest staff members at A&M is Miss Dorothy Churchwell, head of the circulation department of Cushing Memorial Library.

Students, staff members, and all citizens have access to the library. From 10,000 to 15,000 books per month are checked out, aside from those used in the reserved, required reading, and browsing sections.

Almost 126,000 volumes were checked out last year, and more of the library's 200,000 volumes will be used this year.

Eighteen persons are employed part and full-time in the department. They keep tap on each book, send overdue notices when necessary; collect fines; and replace returned volumes on the stack shelves.

Checks Incoming Books

The department also checks each incoming book to see whether it needs minor repairs and makes them where needed. The department is responsible for placing new books in the stacks. This makes necessary constant reshuffling of books already on the shelves, since room in each subject matter section must be made for them.

John Linton tied with Albert Berry in the machine cigarette rolling contest. McCrary placed second.

"This whole department is based upon numerous, seemingly unrelated routines. These routines are important, and if they are not followed, something goes wrong," Miss Churchwell said.

Improperly Shelved

"If a book is improperly shelved it's the same as lost because it cannot be found when needed," she said. Such misplacing is an ever-present factor, because filing is done by numbers, and persons filing books frequently find themselves transposing the numbers.

Another time-consuming activity of the circulation department is teaching library patrons use of the card catalog. Since the book-stacks are open to instructors and graduate students only, everyone else must use the card catalog to find his book.

"When things are running smoothly, I have nothing to do. It's when something happens that I must get busy and straighten it out," Miss Churchwell says.

Efficient and Adept

Robert A. Houze, head librarian, says Miss Churchwell, "has done a wonderful job in the short time she has been here. She is efficient and is particularly adept in solving those spontaneous problems which come up from time to time."

Miss Churchwell came to A&M June 1, 1952, from Midwestern University in Wichita Falls, where she was head librarian for seven years. She is a native of Trinidad, Texas, and holds a BS in library science from North Texas State College.

ever," the general explained. "The Chinese are fanatics. Now there are few U. N. casualties in Korea and if you are in the infantry, you will probably be rotated after 10 or 12 months of service there—if you live that long. The communists usually gang up on one battalion and fight until they are killed. It's pretty bad if you are in that battalion.

"A new arrival (second lieutenant) to Korea after two days of extensive course in field artillery, becomes a forward observer. However, one of your best artillery men from here, Floyd Henk ('50 of San Marcos) was made an engineer. But our men are well taken care of. They are fed better than troops stationed here in the states. Only 18 of 28,000 men were evacuated last winter because of cold weather injuries."

Commies Tough

Speaking about his experiences on Kojie Island, Boatner said, "The communists there are tougher than any sophomores on this campus. Fear and terrorism rule the life of the Communist which makes him rougher and tougher than anything produced by Nazism, Hitlerism, or Mussolinism. They don't surrender. They stay there until they are killed."

Asked about the effect of air power, he answered: "It hasn't been very effective. They are firing more artillery than ever before now."

The general said if Chinese Nationalists were allowed into the Korean War, he did not know that it would cause World War III or that the Nationalists would join with the Communists, once they are back on the mainland.

After his talk, Boatner inspected different parts of the campus. He was introduced by Col. Shelly P. Myers, PMS&T.

GRAND CENTRAL STATION
... at the turn of the lane

Lars Olsen has often said, "Those New York folks could get along without Grand Central Station before Lars Olsen could get along without his barn!" And Lars really has a point. For his barn is the throbbing pulse of the Olsen farm. Day by day, out of it and into it move his livestock, his equipment, and the fruits of his labor. It is the hub of his own world of industry and commerce.

But Lars has also remarked, "We Olsens could get along without our barn before we could get along without our church!"

And Lars is serious! He has learned that a man's religion is the power in his life, that Christian habits and ideals give meaning and purpose to his efforts and his achievements.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL... ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church. They are: (1) For his own sake. (2) For his children's sake. (3) For the sake of his community and nation. (4) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.
