

Aggie Five Loses Two In SWC Cage Tourney

Cadets Play Texas Today

A&M's sophomore cagers dropped two quick games to knock themselves completely out of the Southwest Conference Basketball Tournament in Dallas.

The Cadet's second straight loss was suffered at the hands of Arizona 66-49, yesterday afternoon. Bob Johnson, sophomore A&M guard led all scorers with 21 points.

Dunlap topped the Wildcat scorers with 12 points. Rountree and Kemmiers scored 11 each for the winners also.

In their opening game A&M lost to the busy B's of SMU—Art Barnes and Richard Bryant. This pair of slick Mustangs led SMU to a 57 to 35 win.

over the Aggies. Barnes roped in 19 points and Bryant 16 as the Ponies came from behind in the opening minutes of play and pulled to a 29 to 16 half-time lead.

Don Binford scored 10 points for the Cadets.

Can't Hit

The Aggies' inability to hit—from near or afar—made the game a ragged, one-sided affair that did little to excite the estimated 2,500 persons watching.

The victory sent the Mustangs into the semifinals of the tourney along with Rice and Baylor. The amazing Mustangs stopped Arkansas 65 to 62 in a full-dressed thriller, while Rice defeated Baylor 65 to 56 to roar into the finals of the tournament scheduled for 9 tonight.

Rice, with the gifted Gene Schwinger ramming in 20 points, won in fairly easy fashion over the fighting Bears. Only in the third period did Baylor threaten and then because of too many Rice fouls.

Rice led 15-7 at the end of the first period and 39-27 at the half. The Owls maintained a five to nine-point lead most of the time and drew away easily in the last minutes.

The Owls controlled the ball and were deadly on the free-throw line. Murray Bailey was the leading light for Baylor scoring 13 points and playing a fine defensive game.

TCU handed the Texas Longhorns their fifth straight basketball loss Monday as the Horned Frogs won their consolation round game. The Longhorns and the Cadets meet each other this afternoon, with Texas Christian and Arizona, the tourney's guest team from the border conference, tangling at 3:45 p.m.

Receives $300 Grant

A renewed grant-in-aid of $300 has been received by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The grant will be used in support of turf research in the agronomy department, R. D. Lewis, director, said.

Ag Team Joins International Soccer League

The Aggie soccer team will soon be a charter member of the Texas International Soccer League.

Working in conjunction with the University of Texas, University of Houston, Bryan Air Force Base, and Allen Academy, the Cadets of the Soccer club met recently and formed the league, had it approved, and set up a trial schedule.

A total of about 21 games will be played this year between the squads, and efforts are being made to extend this number.

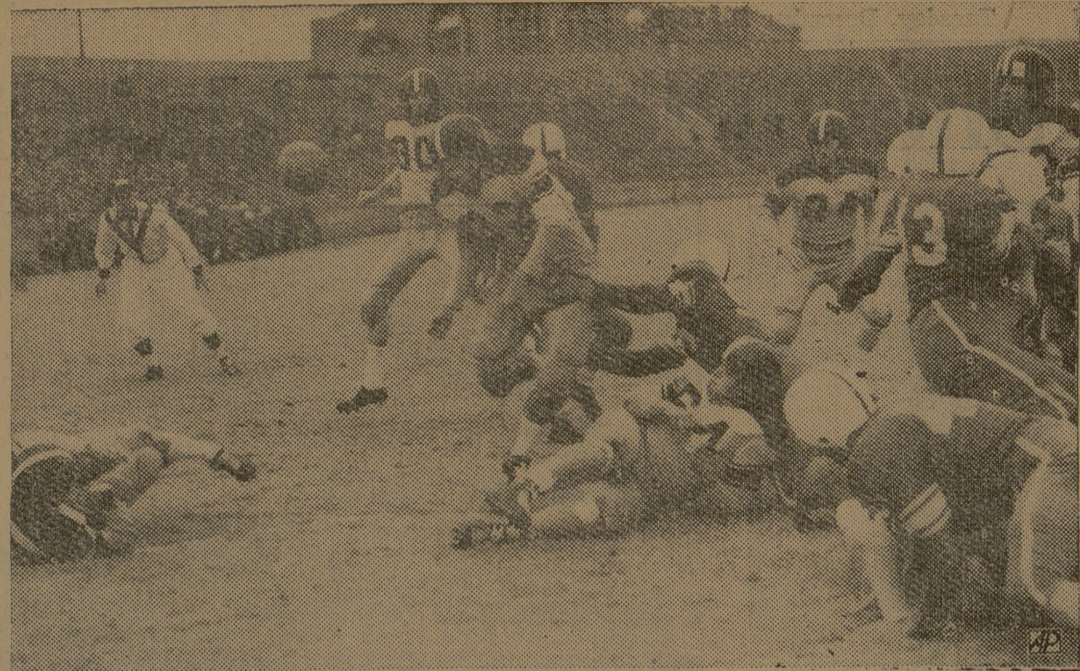

Transportation is the biggest problem confronting the A&M group, although the team has already played three games this season.

Most members of the five teams in the league are foreign students from such countries such as Spain, France, Norway, India, Argentina, Peru, Venezuela, Arabia, Chile, Brazil, Mexico, and Central America.

Sponsor of the Aggie team is Paul M. Andrews of the PE Department. The members of the first Aggie soccer team ever to compete in a scheduled league are:

Graves Leads Dixie Team In 28-7 Win Over North

MONTGOMERY, Ala., Dec. 29—(AP)—Dixie All-Stars led by the brilliant signal-calling of Ray Graves of A&M, and the plunging of Fullback Leroy LaBat of LSU punched the Yankees full of holes Saturday and won the annual Blue-Gray football game, 28 to 7.

It was the tenth victory for the South in fourteen games and it gave the crowd of 22,000 the kind of wide open gridiron contest the customers love.

The Yankee passing team of Ted Marchbroda of Detroit and Lou D'Acille of Indiana was ineffective much of the time against the tight defense of the Confederate secondary.

But Marchbroda, the nation's No. 1 distance gainer with a total of 1,813 yards during the regular season, was the only really dangerous weapon the Blues had.

Passing Score
Harlback Earl Hershof of West Chester, Pa., caught a 13-yard toss and almost fell, but stumbled over the goal for the North's only score in the third period. Bill Leonard of Penn State made the extra point.

Graves accounted for one of the South's four touchdowns. Lewis Carpenter of Arkansas got two and LaBat the other. Ed Mioduszewski of William & Mary and Charlie Harding of Virginia each contributed two conversions.

Of the 318 yards the Rebel backs accounted for, LaBat, the "Black Stallion of the Bayous," made 74, Roy Bailey of Tulane got 65 and Carpenter 61.

Graves TD First
The game's first score came in the second period when Graves bucked the last foot to end a 45-yard drive.

A Yankee fumble gave the Southerners' another touchdown in the third period when Marchbroda dropped the ball on his own six. Jack Chambers of Houston University bounced on it and three plays later carpenter scooted over from the three.

Marchbroda narrowed the margin a short while later with scoring pass to Hersh, but the Greys galloped back with another counter, Carpenter scoring from the five after a 61-yard push.

LaBat scored in the fourth quarter with a two-yard punch.

Sports Scribe Picks Best, Worst in '52

NEW YORK, Dec. 30—The best—and a little of the worst—in 1952 sports history:

Best Teams.—New York Yankees in baseball. Michigan State in football and United States Olympic track team. Their superior class showed all the way.

Worst Team.—The Pittsburgh Pirates, who finished 54½ games out of first place in a league that hasn't won a World Series since 1946.

Fighter of the Year.—Rocky Marciano, an exciting new heavyweight champion.

Story of the Year.—Team duel between the United States and Russia in the Olympic games at Helsinki.

Most Disappointing Performance.—American tennis at Forest Hills as Aussie teen-agers knocked off Vic Seixas and Art Larsen, another comparatively young Aussie batted Dick Savitt and still another bagged the title.

Most Disappointing Individual.—Bob Feller of the Indians, who had the worst season of his career with nine victories and thirteen defeats after topping twenty the year before.

Best Surprise Package.—Wee Bobby Shantz of the Athletics, who won twenty-four and lost only seven.

Davis, Hooper Compete In Sugar Bowl Track Meet

Walt (Buddy) Davis of Texas A&M cleared 6 feet 8 inches in the high jump as American Olympic champions set one new Sugar Bowl record and inaugurated two new events Sunday in the annual Sugar Bowl track and field meet.

Parry O'Brien, Southern California's Olympic shot put champion, threw the 16-pound shot 56 feet 4½ inches for the new record.

O'Brien's only competitor in the event was Darrow Hooper of A&M, who lagged a yard behind. There was no official measurement of Hooper's distance.

Davis and Hooper of UC Young of California participated in other field events without competition.

Young, America's first Olympic champion in javelin, threw 213 feet, 5 inches. It was the first time javelin and high jump events were included in the Sugar Bowl meet.

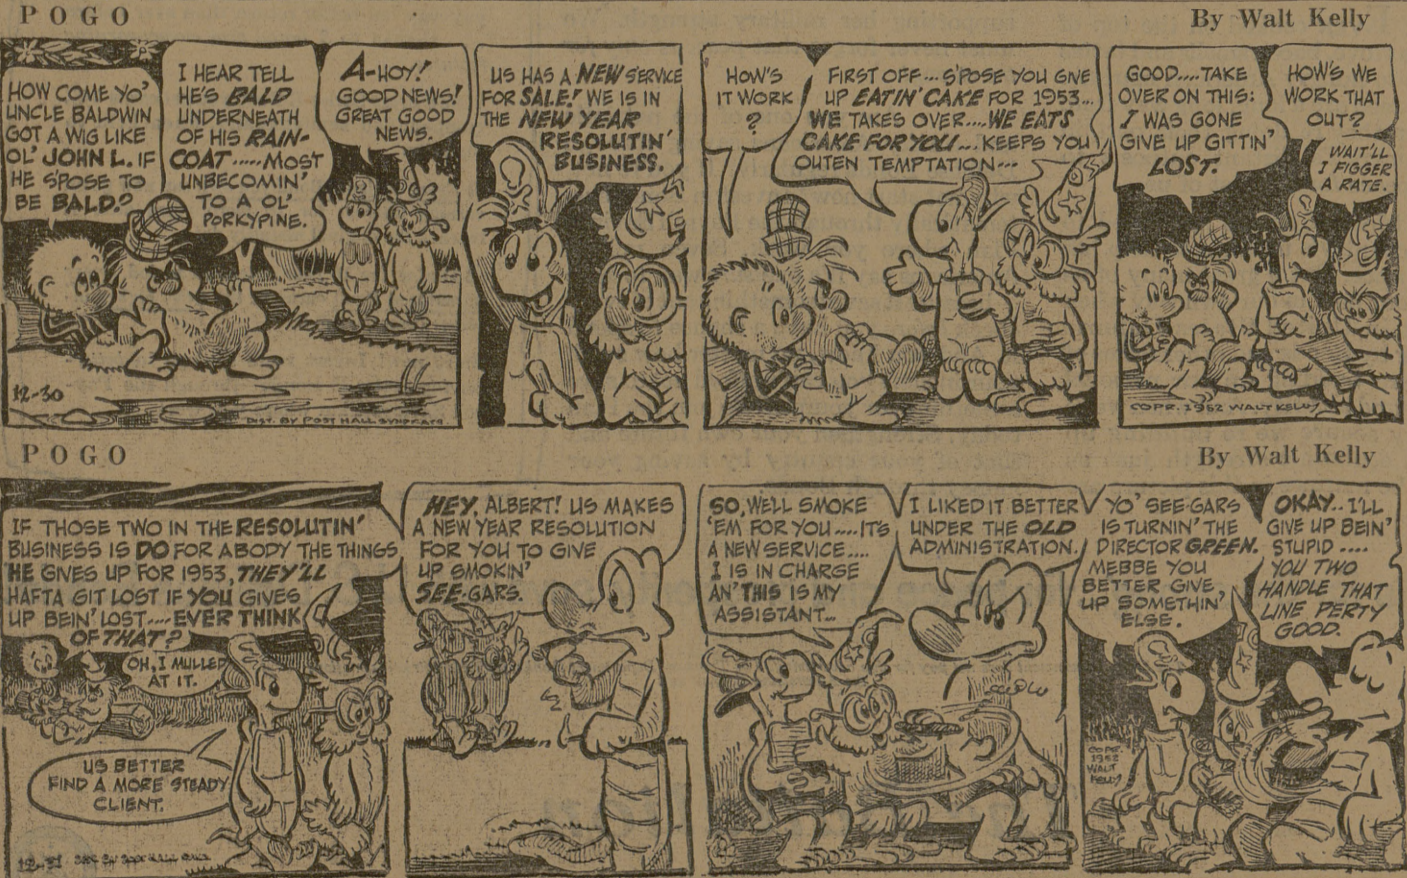

Stiffest competition came in the mile relay with five top colleges entered. Oklahoma, with Olympic Star J. W. Washburn as anchor man, won by 18 yards over fast-finishing Kansas State. Oklahoma A&M finished third.

The summary:
120-Yard High Hurdles—1) Jack Davis, Southern California. 2) Jerry Scallors, Texas. 3) Glen Blake, Texas A&M. Time: 14.4 seconds.
Pole Vault—1) Robert Richards, Los Angeles. Height: 14 feet 8 inches. (No other entrants.) Mile Run—1) Sture Landquist, Oklahoma A&M. 2) Hobart Jones, Nebraska. 3) Joe Lapiere, Georgetown. Time: 4:17 minutes.

100-Yard Dash—1) Thane Baker, Kansas State. 2) Charles Thomas, Texas. 3) Charles Johnson, LSU. Time: 9.8 seconds.
Shot Put—1) Parry O'Brien, Southern California. 2) Darrow Hooper, Texas A&M. (Only entrants.) Distance: 56 feet 4½ inches. (New Sugar Bowl record.)
High Jump—1) Walter Davis, Texas A&M. (Only entrant.) Height: 6 feet 8 inches. (New event.)
880-Yard Run—1) John Barnes, Occidental. 2) Carl Jones, Georgetown. 3) Fred Beckhoff, Oklahoma A&M. Time: 1:54.1.
Mile Relay—1) Oklahoma (Lee, McCormick, Cox and Mashburn). 2) Kansas State. 3) Oklahoma A&M. Time: 3:17 minutes.
Javelin—1) Cy Young, UCLA. (Only entrant.) Distance: 213 feet, 5 inches.
