

Tiger Quintet Meets Buckholts After Taking Kiwanis Tourney

By CLIFTON BATES
Battalion Correspondent

The Consolidated High School basketball team meets Buckholts tonight in the Tiger gymnasium at 8:00 in their second district game of the season.

Coach O. V. Chaffin's Tiger quintet boasts a seasonal record of 10 wins and only one loss. They won their only district game against Magnolia.

In addition to the record they are building, the Tigers won the Seventh Annual Kiwanis Invitational Tournament held last Friday and Saturday.

They also placed three men on the all-tournament team of eight members who were picked at the close of the event.

Consolidated opened the tournament against Somerville, and eased by them in a double overtime game, 20-19. The game winning point was dumped in after the second overtime had expired and a free throw try was sunk.

Katy fell before Chaffin's squad next, 35-43, and Caldwell followed 32-51. The Tigers met Hemp-stead in the final game of the tournament Saturday night.

CHS trailed the visitors going into the final quarter 15-20, but came back to tie the game up at 23-23 with only three minutes left to play.

Only one goal was made in the closing minutes, but the Tigers put it in to beat Hempstead 25-23.

Chosen to the all-tournament team were Fred Anderson, Joe Motheral, and Bobby Jackson of the Tigers. Others picked on the all-star team were all-state Peter Kirkpatrick and Clayton Stephens of Hempstead, Fred Lang of Calvert, Robert McMinn of Somerville, and Harry Hinton of Magnolia.

The teams competing in the Kiwanis-sponsored affair in addition to Consolidated and Hempstead were Somerville, Katy, Caldwell, Waller, Calvert, Snook, and Magnolia.

Hempstead took the second place trophy, and Calvert won over Somerville 38-37 to take the consolation bracket.

Chaffin says his Tigers are ready to go against Buckholts tonight. The "B" game will get underway at 7:00 p.m., with Jim Bevens coaching. Horace Shaffer is mentor of the junior high squad which plays their game this afternoon at 5:30 in the Tiger gym.

Baylor scraps with TCU at Fort Worth, and SMU takes on Texas in Dallas.

Arkansas and Rice were the favorites prior to the SWC Tournament at the Cotton Bowl. The Mustangs won to place them among the top title contenders. Last year's champs, the TCU Frogs, were defeated in the tourney as were the 1952 tourney runner-ups, A&M.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS

Harris Leads White Band Over Sqdn. 4; A Inf. Wins

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Staff

With Speedy Harris providing the spark, White Band went on a five touchdown scoring spurge yesterday to wallop Sq. 4, 32-0, in the feature intramural performance of the day.

The long holiday layover had little visible effect on Harris as he dodged and squirmed 50 yards for a touchdown after intercepting a pass and later scored again on a short plunge through the line. His long scamper came on the last play of the first half. The Band found their scoring punch as they poured over three touchdowns on three plays at one stage of the game.

A 60-yard touchdown dash by Wert Love paced B Inf. to a 19-0 win over Sq. 3. A hard-charging defensive forward wall hounded Sq. 3 ball-carriers throughout the game, three times nailing them behind the goal for safeties and holding them outside the Infantry 40 yard line. A nifty offensive combination racked up four 40- and three 20-yard line penetrations for the winners. In the only other football game of the day, Sq. 13 won a forfeit decision over A Comp.

Homer Dillon duped in ten points as A QMC outscored B Inf., 17-7, in intramural basketball. Field goals by Dillon and Bill Barnes and a free toss by Buddy Hall gave A QMC a 5-2 halftime lead as both teams had trouble finding the basket. Three field goals and a pair of free shots by Dillon and goals by Barnes and Eugene Faltin put the winners out of reach in the second half. Five points scored in the second half by Temple were B Inf's only points in the last half.

Profits from the 12th Man Bowl game of Dec. 18 totaled $2,085.50.

Bill Munnerlyn, chairman of the special committee for the game, said he was well pleased with results of the event. He watched the money being deposited yesterday into the Student Aid Fund, and said, "It's great the way the corps will get behind something and cooperate right down the line." Most of the money was collected through the individual corps outfits, several of which reported 100 per cent sales.

Gene Sparks was head of the committee for handling these units and promoting the sales.

$300 at Gate Over $300 was taken in at the gate to Kyle Field the afternoon of the game, "indicating good support from the faculty and Aggie supporters around the College Station area," said Munnerlyn.

"There were no expenses which we had to meet," he said, "since the field and all the equipment was donated by Barlow (Bones) Irvin and the athletic department. "We also received support all the way from people like Bill Dayton, the Aggie trainer who put in his time taking care of the players. He even bought cokes for the men at halftime and at the end of the game."

Special Credit "Special credit should also be given to the men who gave their time for the promotion of the game. They spent a lot of time as committee heads, and did a good job," he added.

These men were Sparks, Jerry Lastelick, Dave Edens, Don Greaney, Ronnie Hudson, and Ed Holder. Munnerlyn said that it looks like the game will be played every year now, "and if the event continues to receive the support it did this year," he said, "we will have a way to keep up the aid fund from year to year."
