

Three Scouters Receive Top Training Award

Jerome Zubic, Louis Bolmanski, and R. H. Fletcher received the Boy Scout's highest training awards at the annual Brazos District Boy Scout's meeting.

Receiving the Scoutmaster's Gold Key, presented to men working with individual units, were Bolmanski and Zubic of Bryan. Fletcher was presented the Gold Scouters' Award which is given to men who work with entire organizations.

Col. John A. Way, PAS&T of the college, was the main speaker at the meeting.

Other business at the meeting was the installation of the new district committee by Minor Huffman, council scout executive from Houston, and recognition and appreciation ceremonies for Eagle Scouts and adult volunteer leaders, with Dan Russell in charge.

District officers who were installed are Donald D. Burchard, chairman; C. N. Hielscher, vice chairman; R. H. Fletcher, assistant commissioner and E. R. Bryant, district commissioner.

Hielscher was master of ceremonies at the meeting, and Burchard was general chairman. Other men on various committees at the meeting were L. S. Paine, D. C. Jones, H. W. Barlow, Dr. E. B. Humbert, M. C. Adams, and Jack Linn.

An Indian dance presented by a group of local scouts concluded the meeting.

Army Releases New Reservist Promotion Rule

The Texas Military District received orders recently, providing for mandatory promotion of reserve Army officers after certain lengths of time in grade, said Col. M. E. Jones, district chief.

The new regulation applies solely to inactive reserve officers.

Promotions will be made regardless of whether or not vacancies exist in the higher rank. This is a departure from previous Army regulations on promotions.

Under the new regulation, second lieutenants who are qualified will be promoted after three years in grade. First lieutenants will be considered by boards after four years in that rank.

Captains and majors must serve seven years in their respective grades before promotion under the new order.
