Frisco 49ers May Be Sold

SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 22—(P)—Representatives of a Cleveland syndicate were closeted with co-owner Tony Morabito of the San Francisco 49ers today to discuss purchase of the profootball team—but nobody would say how the talks went.

Morabito, who owns the National Football League club with his brother Victor, was advised by doctors to sell after he suffered a heart attack last spring.

He said Abe Saperstein of the Harlem Globetrotters pro basketball team and Nate Dolin of the Cleveland Indians had met with him during the past two days "representing a Cleveland group which has approached me to purchase."

The best estimate of Morabito's asking price is $400,000 to $450,000.

Experiment Station Gets $3,000 Grant

A $3,000 grant has been received by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The grant is from the National Cottonseed Products Association of Memphis.

Dr. R. D. Lewis, station director, says the grant is to be used "to extend studies now under way in our department of biochemistry and nutrition on the use of cottonseed meal in poultry rations."

The Dames Club voted to begin a membership drive preceding a social meeting in the YMCA Tuesday night, said Mrs. J. Howard, reporter.

Points will be given each member for every new member that she enlists. The member with the most points will win a prize which will be presented at the spring picnic, Mrs. Howard said.

Bridge and canasta were played after the business session.
