

Consolidated Wins 62-30 In Dist. Play

By CLIFTON BATES
Battalion Correspondent

The Consolidated High School Tigers took a twin bill from the Dime Box basketball team last night to run their won-lost record to 7-1 and a tie in the district standings.

In the B game, Consolidated had to come from behind to take a 32-27 victory. Consolidated trailed at halftime 15-14.

In the third quarter, the Cubs jumped into a 23-19 lead, holding the Dime Box five to only four points.

Dime Box fought back to tie up the game in the fourth quarter but J. B. Carroll and company pulled away for the win.

Carroll was high point man for Consolidated with 12 points. High point man and runner up in the scoring department was Donald Leitko of Dime Box with ten counters to his credit.

In the A game, the Tigers jumped into the lead and continued to widen the margin as the game went along. With Joe Motheral, Fred Anderson, and David Bonnen pouring the ball through the nets, Consolidated easily took the win by a 62-30 score.

The score at halftime was 22-13 with the Tigers holding nine point edge. In the second half, Consolidated began hitting their long shots and pulled to a 32 point bulge at the end of the game.

Consolidated has two games slated for this weekend. In the game Friday night, Sommerville invades the Tiger gym to try to upset Coach Chavin's title bound squad.

Then Saturday night, the Tigers go to Hempstead for a non-conference game that was a re-match at the request of both teams. Consolidated has taken two games from Hempstead earlier this season.

Aggies Fight Mustangs After Loss To Owls

Rebounding from a 52-34 drubbing at the hands of the Rice Owls and a drop to sixth place in the conference standings, the Aggies will entertain the SMU Mustangs in DeWare fieldhouse tonight.

Tonight's clash will see the bottom of the SWC tangling. SMU, winner of the holiday tournament but at the bottom of the heap now that loop play has begun with an 0-3 record, will still be a game back of A&M even if the Mustangs knock over the Cadets tonight.

With scoring aces LeRoy Miksch and Don Binford limited to four free throws between them in the Rice game, the Aggies are 2-3 in conference play and 5-8 for the season. They rank sixth both in SWC standings and in overall games.

Texas leads the conference despite the loss to A&M. The Longhorns have a 3-1 record averaging 55.8 points per game to 52.3 for their opponents. Baylor holds down the runner-up position along with Rice with three wins and two losses apiece.

Arkansas and TCU own 2-2 marks to occupy the 4th and 5th places. A&M has a 2-3 score and SMU brings up last place with 0-3.

John Starkey of Baylor and Gene Schwinger of Rice continue to dominate the individual scoring in league play. Starkey has a 21.0 game average, and Schwinger has 20.4.

LeRoy Miksch, the leading Aggie scorer, stretched his lead in the individual scoring pace over Don Binford to nine points, although he was limited to four free throws against Rice.

The 6-5 Waelder senior has 144 points in 11 games to Binford's 135 in 13 games. Binford, his hand in tape by reason of a practice injury, didn't tally against the Owls.

Sophomores are beginning to play a bigger part in coach John Floyd's program as they get more seasoning. Don Moon, Rodney Pirtle, Bob Johnson, and center Roy Martin were in the starting lineup against Rice. Moon came back into the lineup after missing a stretch of seven games with a fractured cheek bone.

Martin, 6-8½ center from Waxahachie, did a fine job of guarding Gene Schwinger, the Rice scoring machine, holding him to eight points. But he fouled out doing so, and James Addison, who shares the center duties with Martin, let the big boy have 16.

Pirtle and Johnson continue to improve with each game and the former, from Coleman, has taken over the leadership of the Cadets, directing floor play and being a stickler on defense. Pirtle held Don Lance, Rice's second-best scorer, to four points.

Johnson is the top field goal percentage shooter with 33 out of 84. He sank four of six against Rice.

The Farmers, although out of the conference race, promise to be the spoilers of the loop, being hard to beat on their home court. Arkansas, picked by some as the pre-season favorites, was knocked off in two over-times in the first home conference game.

Texas was on top of the league when they invaded DeWare fieldhouse and departed with their horns clipped by a 51-42 score.

After the SMU game tonight, the Ags play Baylor here Feb. 7, journey to Texas Feb. 10, and entertain Rice Feb. 14.

Russell Resigns As SMU Grid Coach

Under fire after two losing seasons, H. N. (Rusty) Russell resigned Sunday night as head football coach at Southern Methodist University.

"It is too big a job to coach football and have to answer criticism at the same time. Rather than place either the athletic committee or the university under any embarrassing pressures, I voluntarily resigned," Russell said.

There were three years remaining on Russell's contract, and he said that he had made a satisfactory financial settlement with the athletic committee and the university, indicating that he had been paid in full for the remaining three years.

Becoming head coach at SMU after Matty Bell retired to devote all his time to athletic director duties, Russell-directed teams posted a six wins and four losses record in 1950. Victories over Georgia Tech, Ohio State, Missouri, and Oklahoma gave SMU top national rating until losing to Texas.

In 1951, Russell's Mustangs had a season record of three victories, six losses and one tie. Highlighting the season was a 27-20 victory over Notre Dame.

INTRAMURAL HIGHLIGHTS
Sq. 6 Battles A QMC In Class A Grid Final
By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Staff

A scrapping, alert Sq. 6 football team shattered a five year hex as it ground out a 13-0 win over B Inf. yesterday to gain the Class A intramural football finals against A QMC today. For the last five years A QMC and B Inf. have played in the finals. Rusty Coleman put on a splendid offensive show, running 60 yards for one score and passing 10 yards for the other. A heads-up defensive secondary plucked off four B Inf. aerials to spoil several offensive drives by the losers.

Coleman's two scoring plays two scoring plays were within the game quickly within the first half, but his slippery running (See INTRAMURALS, Page 4)
