 dule his first year at the reins of the Tiger football fortunes as Consolidated will move up a bracket to class A. "I want to wish Jim (Bevans) good luck in the new district next year, and I know he will produce a winning team if anyone can," Chafin continued.
 Bevans replied he would stick with the same type of offense used by Chafin with possibly a few minor changes. "I plan to use the unbalanced line some, Bevans said, "but the brand of football I learned from Chafin will certainly be good enough for me next year."
 The present coach at Bishop has resigned to return to school. Chafin said he probably will leave some time in April, or he may wait until a later date.
