Three Members Get Recreation Council Posts

Three new members were elected for three year terms on the College Station Recreation Council at the group's meeting Friday.

The new members are Ed Ivy, representing the Boy Scouts, replacing Donald D. Burchard; R. L. Skrivanek, representing the Kiwanis Club, replacing Ralph Rogers; and Mrs. Fred E. Weick, member at large, replacing Mrs. J. D. Lindsay.

These new members will start their terms in April. Officers for the coming year also will be elected at the April meeting.

At the Council's request, President M. T. Harrington appointed C. E. Tishler to represent the college as an ex officio member of the council.

The group's by-laws were amended to allow Rogers, who is now secretary, to serve another year as a member at large.

Other changes were made in the constitution and by-laws as a result of the city ordinance creating a City Recreation Board.

"We amended the constitution in order to work more closely with the city's board," Rogers said.
