

Cadet Rifle Fire NRA
 Rifle teams will fire Saturday.
 Members were formed by the A&M Varsity rifle team will compete against the Southwest section.
 The team's score will be the NRA national competition.
 From A&M won the match last year.
 An individual score will be 30 a. m. and team firing at 2 p. m.

Ag Gym Team To Perform For Veterans

Members of the A&M tumbling team will present an exhibition for patients in the Veterans Administration Hospital in Temple.
 About 15 tumblers will make the trip, said N. D. (Bud) Matthews, co-sponsor of the group. The exhibition will include acts by two clowns, Conrad Webb and Matthews, in addition to performances on the parallel bar, the horizontal bars, trampoline, and tumbling.
 Last year the A&M tumblers received a certificate from the Veterans Administration for their work entertaining hospitalized veterans.
 March 21 the Tumbling team will sponsor a gymnastic competition featuring national tumbling champions in action. Women will also compete in the competition; but only in tumbling and trampoline.

HITTING THE DIRT—Bobby Ragsdale of the Aggies, is the Southwest conference broad jump champion and is favored in this event Saturday afternoon. Ragsdale will also enter the 220 yard low hurdles where he is also expected to gain points.

Plenty of Action

Aggies, Cougars, Longhorns Meet On Kyle Field Track

There will be plenty of action on Kyle Field Saturday afternoon when the Aggies varsity and Fish track teams tangle with the Texas Longhorns and the University of Houston Cougars, varsity and freshman squads.
 A total of 32 events are scheduled, 16 varsity and 16 Fish events. The field events begin at 3 p. m. and the first race—the 440 yard dash—starting at 3:30 p. m.

This will be the opening meet for the three teams and no record breaking performances are in prospect.

Bobby Ragsdale of the Aggies is the SWC broad jump champ and will be running also in the 220 low hurdles.

In the shot put the Aggies have Darrow Hooper, Olympic shot putter and Dan Pratt another fine weightman.

Blaine, DeRouen, Distance Men
 James Blaine and Dale DeRouen are the top Cadet distance men. In the high hurdles, the Aggies will be counting on Glen Blake who placed in the Sugar Bowl meet held in December.

The quartermilers for the Aggies are Gerald Stull, James Baker, Carol Libby, and Frank Norris. Norris suffered an injury this week and will not be entered in the mile relay. Bob Scarbrough will replace Norris.

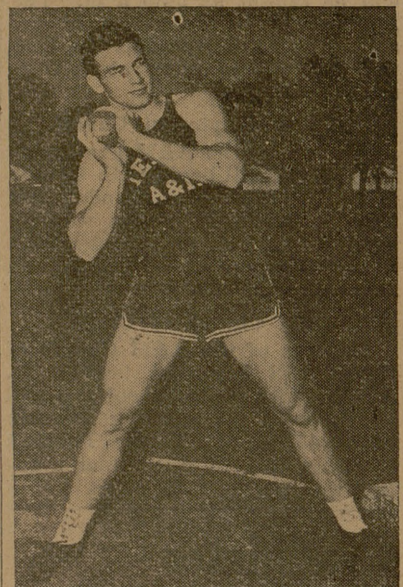

Wallace Klebs is the top Aggie half miler while Malcolm Marks and Glen Spradlin are favorites for the Cadets in the pole vault.

Colonel Andy Anderson, head Aggie track coach, expects the meet to be the top meet on Kyle Field this year. "This is the only meet when we (Aggies) will be at full strength," Anderson emphasized.

"Against SMU and Rice, (the only other meet here) about six of our boys will be at the Drake Relays," he added.

Houston Strong
 The University of Houston has a strong track squad, stronger than any of the conference members besides the Aggies, Texas and SMU, Anderson believes. "They (Cougars) will be weaker now than later on in the season," Anderson added, "because their best boys, sprinters, McBride and Meeks have been practicing football and aren't entered in the meet."
 "I expect the Aggies to take five out of the six field events," Anderson said, "the loss will probably be in the high jump where Texas may get a clean sweep."
 The Kyle Field track is in fine shape, having just finished getting its final coat of oil. This is the only track that has an oil surface in the world. According to Anderson, the high jump and pole vault facilities are the finest in the conference.

Barring bad weather Anderson said he hoped a large crowd would turnout to see the meet.
 In the dashes, Charley Thomas of Texas should win both the 100 (See TRI MEET, Page 4)

OLYMPIC STAR—Darrow Hooper will be counted on for Aggie points in the shot put and the discus, Saturday afternoon when the Aggies have a tri-meet with the University of Houston and Texas University. Hooper won second place in the shot put in the Olympics this summer and is the SWC shot put record holder.

Cadet Mermen Clash With SMU Swimmers

Aggie Tankmen swim against the SMU swimmers in a duel meet in Dallas this week end.
 The swimming team led by Don Crawford, Aggie Captain, will leave early Saturday morning with the two A&M coaches, Art Adamson and Emil Mamaliga, with hopes of downing last years conference swimming champs, SMU.

The Aggie Freshmen meet the SMU Freshmen at 2:30 p. m. Then the Aggie Varsity swims against the SMU Varsity at 4:00 p. m.

Swimming for the Varsity will be:

Freestyle: Speich, Pepping, Gajersky, Horne, Koegl and Burns.
 Breaststroke: Weick, Strickler
 Backstroke: Snoots, Davenport, Crawford.

Diving: Cameron, Malcome.
 Swimming for the Freshmen will be:

Freestyle: Thiessen, DeVilbiss, Klipple, Parr, Sherwood, Baird.
 Breaststroke: Goff, Allen.
 Backstroke: Kirkpatrick.
 Diving: Stawicki, Percifield.

The A&M Swimmers will meet the strong Northwestern State College of Louisiana Tankmen in a duel meet in P. L. Downs Jr. Natatorium Monday evening at 3.

13 Cop Ring Wins; Bonorden Gets Nod

Thirteen boxers punched out first-round victories and Tom Bonorden, Co. A took the freshman heavyweight wrestling title in yesterday's intramural action. The lone mat bout was originally set for Wednesday.

Today's fight card shows 20 bouts scheduled for DeWare Field House, starting at 4 p. m.

Bonorden pinned Paul Rathbun, Sq. 20, in 4:51 Rathbun knotted the match, 2-2, on points at 3:10 but Bonorden pulled in front, 6-2, before the fall.

A crushing left hook landed flush on the jaw handed Randol, A Inf., a second round TKO over Lehs, A Arm. After a hard-fought first round in which he scored several jolting blows, Randol ended the bout in a split second, putting Lehs flat on his back in the middle of the ring.

George Dalton, A Inf., floored Paul McKean, Sq. 15, with a flurry of hard rights and lefts to take a TKO in a 167 pound match. McKean boxed nicely in the first round, standing off and landing often with a good left jab. Dalton starting taking the upper hand in the second, however, connecting solidly with straight lefts and right crosses.

Punching hard from the opening bell, Oddo, C FA, notched a first round TKO of Xan Zandt, A TC.
 Jerry Hawsey, ASA, put on a furious last-ditch rally in the closing seconds of the third round to pull out a decision over Templeton, Sq. 15 Hawsey could not fight his way inside his taller foe until the last round, when he found the right combination of left jabs and right hoogs. He had Templeton hanging helplessly onto the ropes at the final bell.

A summary of the boxing results follows:

147 pound—Buchanan, B Inf., over Peel, C FA; Moore, Sq. 14, over La Vere, A QMC, by default;

157 pound—Whitsett, A FA, over Dart, AAA;

167 pound—Dalton over McKean; Oddo over Van Zandt; Bailes, A Eng., over Frandaly, A Cml., on TKO; Couch Sq. 11, over Coppage, Sq. 10 Skrabaneck, Sq. 10, over Strickland, Sq. 2. Douglas, Co. G, over Atkinson, Sq. 21; Graham, AAA, over Grandstaff, A TC, by default; Russell, AAA, over Perry, A Cml, by default.

177 pound—Grisson, Co. F, over Lovell, A Inf.; Crawford, Sq. 9, over Ashcroft, White Band; O'neal, Sq. 6, over Mandell, A Eng.
