BREAKS RECORD—Darrow Hooper, A&M's top weightman, won the shot put in the Border Olympics, held in Laredo Saturday, by breaking a record he set last year. Hooper put the shot 54 feet three and a quarter inches for the record.

Aggies, Fish Capture First Tank Win, 76-7

Aggie Varsity and Freshmen Tankmen swam to their first win of the year in a dual meet with Baylor Saturday.

The varsity spinned out a 76-7 win while the Fish rushed by the Cubs 61-10.

Freshman Gayle Klipple featured the meet by setting a new Fish pool record in the 200 yard freestyle.

The Varsity opened the meet with a near record breaking win in the 300 yard medley relay. Don Crawford, Dickie Weick, and John Speich, and John Speich swam the distance three seconds above the pool record.

A&M took first and second place in the 50 yard freestyle with Bert Koegel and Jimmy Burns finishing in that order. Baylor was third.

John Beutelschies and Lee Pepping added points by taking first and second in the 440 yard freestyle. Baylor was again third.

The Varsity wound up their meet with Paul Walin, Dickie Weick, Rickey Black and Don Crawford winning the 400 yard freestyle relay.

Freshmen Win
A&M's Fish took first place in every event, piling up 61 points. Baylor could manage only one second out of a possible three places in each event. Their second came in the 100 yard freestyle.

Besides Klipple's record breaking win, Earnest Devilbiss looked good for the Fish in his 100 yard freestyle win.

George Parr breezed to an easy win in the 100 yard individual medley. Roland Baird showed a promising backstroke winning the 100 yard event.

Hooper, Ragsdale Spark Win As Trackmen Take Olympics

By JOHN GARMANY Battalion Correspondent

The Aggie track team continued its winning ways Saturday night by successfully defending its Border Olympic crown for the fourth straight year. The Cadets scored 59 points while Texas garnered 44 and Oklahoma A&M 38 1/2.

Five records were set in the meet with Darrow Hooper of the Aggies, breaking his own shot put record of 53 feet 8 and five-eighths inches, with a toss of 54 feet three and a quarter inches.

Hooper also won the discus with a throw of 165 feet one inch, missing the record by less than a foot.

Ragsdale Breaks Record
Bobby Ragsdale of A&M, and team captain, broke the broad jump record of 23 feet six and a half inches, held by John Robertson of Texas with a leap of 23 feet eleven inches.

Ragsdale also won the 220 yard low hurdles, beating Charlie Thomas of Texas, who hit the last hurdle, in a time of 23.5 seconds.

Hooper and Ragsdale led the Aggies with 10 points each.

Oklahoma A&M broke the other three records with Frederick Eckhoff's outstanding runs in the mile and two-mile and Bill Heard's run in the 880.

James Baker, Cadet quarter-miler, missed another Aggies, Ray

Holbrook, record in this event of 48 seconds flat by three tenths of a second.

Baker ran a beautiful race all the way and finished virtually unchallenged.

Pole vaulters, Glenn Spradlin and Malcolm Marks, of the Aggies tied for first place at the height of 12 feet nine and a half inches.

Pete Mayeaux led the Aggie javelin throwers with a throw of 185 feet, six and a half inches. Roy Dollar and Tom Dollahite placed third and fourth behind Wes Ritchey of TCU.

LeRouen Loses Shoe
Although during the first lap of the mile run, Dale DeRouen's shoe was ripped off his foot, the Cadet miler pressed Eckhoff to his 4:16.5 record run. Charles Hudgins, another Aggie miler finished a strong third.

James Blaine, A&M's prize distance runner was edged at the end of the two mile run by Eckhoff who set a record of 9:27.9. Blaine, ill all day with an aching wisdom tooth set the pace all the way and not until Eckhoff put forth a supreme effort did he overtake Blaine.

Others Scoring
Other Aggies making points were Bobby Gross, sophomore weightman, taking second in the shot and third in the discus and Dan Pratt, fourth in the shot; Glenn Blake and Harly Hartung, third and fourth in the 120 yard high hurdles; and Wally Kleb, fourth in the 880.

The Aggie mile relay team did not compete this week. Injuries received earlier in the season and the fact that the crown did not hang in the balance, Aggie track coach, Colonel Anderson kept the team out of competition.

Aggie Wrestlers Grab AAU Second
The Aggie Wrestling team won second place in the Southwestern AAU meet in Dallas over the weekend.

A&M won six second places, three third places, and one fourth. John Huff was the lone Aggie to fall below third place. Huff lost to Bill Calhoun of the Dallas "Y." Calhoun weighed 419 pounds.

Conrad Webb won a trophy for the fastest pin of the tourney. Webb pinned John Pipkin of the Fort Worth "Y" in 49 seconds of the first round.

In one of the best matches of the tournament, Jamie Gonzales of A&M pinned Cook of the Houston "Y." Cook, one of the state's best wrestlers in the 128 pound class, reduced to 121 and was pinned by Gonzales.

Tulsa, Oklahoma's "Y" brought a team of state high school champs, ex Oklahoma Aggie and Oklahoma University wrestlers to win first place with 39 points.

A&M scored 36 points in taking second place.

Results of Aggie wrestlers were: 121—Jamie Gonzales, 2nd, 128—Robert Beattie, 2nd, 136—Billy Gilbert, 3rd, 145—Jerry Pyle, 2nd, and 145—Rudy Henson, 3rd.

At 155—Conrad Webb, 2nd, 165—Raul Loustannau, 3rd, 175—Al Perkins, 2nd, and Heavyweight—Huff, 4th.
