

Eight Fish Scrappers Cop 'Mural Ring Titles

The eight top freshman boxers of 1953's intramural ring program were crowned yesterday in a rousing, excitement-packed 45 minutes of boxing in DeWare Field House.

Co. C's Clarence Wheeler and Richard Foretich took the 177 and 191 pound crowns. Jaime Gonzales, the 123 pound champ, and Red Horton, the 130 pound titleholder, are in Co. I.

Other division titlists are: 137 pound—Allen Greer, Sq. 17; 147 pound—Louis Dischler, Co. F; 157 pound—Jack Pearson, Sq. 20; 167 pound—Del Owens, Sq. 21.

As expected, the 137 pound scrap between Greer and Alvin Sinclair, Sq. 24, proved to be the classiest of the day. Going into the last round, Sinclair was ahead on two of the three judge's scoring cards. Both boys were swinging away near the ropes when Alvin slipped and fell to the floor, landing on a trick knee. With Sinclair unable to continue, the bout was awarded to Greer on a TKO.

Using a weaving attack which threw off Greer's timing, Sinclair had scored well in the first and second with combinations of hard left and rights to the head.

Horton TKOed Joe Pinson, Sq. 17, in the second round, opening a cut over the right eye with an overhand right. Gonzales decisioned Allen, Co. H, landing a good right cross very effectively and scoring the harder punches.

Hounding his foe throughout the bout, the short and stocky Owens put on a bruising attack to the body and head to gain the decision.

In a 147 pound upperclassman semifinal, Earle, Sq. 8, decisioned Porter, Sq. 6, in a good, hard-fought bout.

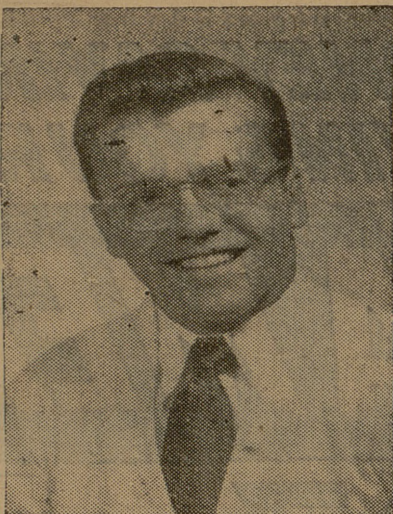

Pearson used his height to good advantage in decisioning Geardina, Co. H, in the 157 pound title go. Dischler used his solid punching ability to cop the 147 pound crown from Cheunging, Sq. 17. Foretich win his decision of Barnes, Co. A, by default.

First State Golf Tourney Here April 3

The first annual A&M State High School Invitational Golf Tournament will be held on the A&M golf course April 3-4.

Tournament will be 72 holes, 36 Friday and 36 Saturday, of medal play. Trophies will be given to individual and team champions in each of the three interscholastic classes. Team championships will be determined by the low team total.

Contestants will be fed in Duncan mess hall, and live in dorms. The overall tournament fee will be $10. This includes quarters for Thursday and Friday night, one meal Thursday, three Friday, and two Saturday. There will be no additional charges, and no caddies will be available.

Ag Wrestlers Book Two TU Matches

The A&M wrestling team has scheduled two encounters with the Texas University grapplers.

The Aggies travel to Austin Monday, March 23, to vie with the Longhorns as part of the University of Texas Sports Day activities. A return match will be held here on March 28 at DeWare Field House.

Aggie Pistol Team To Fire In Norman

The A&M pistol team will fire its first shoulder-to-shoulder match of the season Saturday in Norman, Oklahoma, against Oklahoma University.

Team manager of the Aggie squad is M/Sgt. C. R. Nelson, who has directed the team to a season record of 16 wins and seven losses in pistol matches.

Sgt. Nelson strongly urges all varsity members to attend range practice at 7 tonight. The team plans to leave by bus early tomorrow morning.

Poultry Judges Get Set for Meet

The Junior Poultry Judging Team will compete in the Southern Intercollegiate Contest in Memphis, Tenn., April 16 and 17, said team coach C. B. Ryan.

Cadet Nine Seeks Opening Win Today

Coach Beau Bell of the Aggies and Coach Dell Morgan of Rice will send their sophomore laden baseball teams against each other tomorrow afternoon at three p. m. on the Kyle Field diamond.

The Owls will have five sophs starting while the Aggies will use five, including the pitcher.

The four lettermen for the Rice squad are catcher Parké Davis, pitcher Joe Wylie, second baseman Willie Witt and third baseman Tommy Reckling. Davis and Wylie will be playing new positions. Davis is lettered as a right fielder and Wylie as a center fielder last year.

Twins will be starting on the Owls team. LaVon Cox is slated for first base duties, while LaDon Cox will be one-third of the all-sophomore outfield.

Other starting outfielders are due to be Don Costa in left and Gardner Fielder in center.

Alfred Jochev will be starting at shortstop in his first varsity debut.

The starting pitcher for Rice will be letterman Bobby Leggett, squadman Bobby Sheridan or sophomore Richard Floyd.

Starting on the mound for the Aggies will be sophomore fireballer Jerry Nelson. Coach Bell plans to use Nelson for the first five innings and letterman right-hander, Melvin Work the last four.

Second-year men starting on the Aggie nine will be Jimmy Williams behind the plate, Nelson pitching, Frank Pollard on the key-stone, Claude Northrup at short and Lester Byrd in leftfield.

Eric Miller, starting in right field will make his first start for the Aggies on the baseball diamond.

Lettermen

The lettermen are Bill Munnerlyn, team captain, at first base, Jerry Lastelick at third base and Bobby "Tex" Farmer in centerfield. Work is the other Cadet letterman.

A change in his proposed batting order has been announced by Coach Bell. Miller, who was scheduled to bat sixth, has exchanged places with Farmer in fifth position.

The Fish baseball team will meet the Reagan high school team on Kyle Field Friday while the Varsity travels to Houston to meet Rice in their second game.

Last Saturday the Fish won their opener by blasting the Wharton Junior College nine, 13 to 1.

Guy Wallace, former Aggie diamond star, is coaching the Fish team this year. Last years freshman team won 10 and lost one.
