Military Ball Highlights Big Weekend

Dancing was mixed with marching to celebrate A&M's annual Military Day weekend.

Highlighting the gala occasion was the Military Ball in Sbsisa Hall Saturday night. Between 1,800 and 2,000 people jammed the dance floor to the rhythm of Ralph Flanagan and his orchestra.

The night before, girls in peasant blouses and fatigue wearing escorts crowded Sbsisa for the Combat Ball. Various war weapons and sandbags decorated the building to give a combat effect.

At 2 p.m. Saturday, A&M's corps of cadets marched down the main drill field in its Military Day Parade before many noted military officials. Before the review, the visiting dignitaries were given a luncheon by Cadet Colonel of the Corps Weldon Kruger, and afterwards a reception by Dr. M. T. Harrington, president of the college.

Two performances of Cafe Rue Pinalle were held Friday in the MSC.

MSC Council Holds Elections Today; Banquet Date Conflicts

Town Hall Group Selects Six Shows

"John Browns Body" starring Tyrone Power, Raymond Massey and Judith Anderson was one of the six attractions chosen yesterday for next year's Town Hall program.

Selections chosen by the Town Hall Committee are American Album of Familiar Music to be presented in November, a popular number in October, San Antonio Symphony in December, "John Browns Body" in January, Westminster Choir in February, and the Rondoliers Male Quartet for which no date has been set.

The exact dates of the performances have not been scheduled but will be announced later.

Due to the possibility that "John Browns Body" may not be available or that the announced cast can not be obtained, a secondary list was approved by the committee.

This includes the same programs as above except for the substitution of Charles Laughton and Gertrude Lawrence for "John Browns Body" and the Rondoliers Male Quartet.

Every effort will be made to obtain "John Browns Body," however, said C. G. (Spike) White, director of student activities.

Town Hall is scheduled to be held next year in the new physical education building being constructed next to Kyle Field. It has previously been presented in Guion Hall. Construction on the building is scheduled to be completed by November 1.

Increases Seats

By holding Town Hall in the new building, approximately 7,100 more seats will be available. A portable stage about the size of the one in Guion Hall will be set up in the building. The new Town Hall system will be similar to that used at the University of Texas.

Members of the Town Hall Committee are J. H. Sorrels, Carl E. Tishler, W. M. Turner, White, Frank N. Manitzas, Ronnie Hudson, Bob Hendry, Jerry Bennett and Lyle Wolfskill.

'Harvey' Set As Players Final Show

"Harvey," a comedy by Mary Chase which won top billing as a motion picture, will be staged early in May by the Aggie Players in Guion Hall.

The play concerns a man whose best friend is an imaginary six foot rabbit whom he names Harvey.

C. K. Esten of the English department is director of the players.

"Harvey" will also be presented May 6 at Bryan Air Force Base Esten said.

Other plays staged this year have been "All My Sons" and "Stalag 17". Plans for next year include a war story, "Mr. Roberts", Esten added.

The players were formed in 1946. About 45 students, student's wives and college employes serve as actors, directors, technicians and helpers.

Election Commission Allows Rescheduling of Voting Date

MSC Council elections are being held today. The election booth, located in the MSC, opened at 8 a.m. today and will close at 9 p.m. New filings for Council positions were held yesterday.

The election date was moved from April 30 to today because the Council's constitution states the Council must elect officers from new members at its inaugural banquet. This year's banquet is scheduled for April 9. The banquet date could not be changed because all invitations have been mailed, said Lamar McNew, Council President.

Red Cross Drive Nets $1,200; Five Days Left

Over $1,200 has been collected in College Station for the Red Cross, with five days left in the organization's annual fund raising drive.

Mrs. W. Armstrong Price, College Station drive chairman, said she expects to have over $1,700 when the drive is completed Saturday.

Most of the College Station collections were made in the residential district, where 120 women volunteers have been making a house-to-house canvass. The business area was also contacted.

"I believe this area has been fully covered," Mrs. Price said. "I don't think it will be necessary for us to join Bryan in the porch light campaign they are planning."

Bryan drive officials will have a porch light campaign similar to the Mothers' March on Polio the last of the week.

Donations for Brazos County total $4,500. A goal of $18,000 was set for the county. College Station's goal was $2,500. Last year's collections totaled $1,239.

Kyle Field Expansion Construction Underway

Construction has started on the press box and addition of new seats to Kyle Field.

The new press box will be modeled after those at Baylor and the University of Oklahoma. Equipped with an outside elevator, the three tiered concrete press box will be 140 feet long and will furnish accommodations for 108 newspaper men.

Newspaper writers snack bar facilities and scout boxes will be located on the first level. Booths for both coaches and radio broadcasting will be located on the second level. The third level will contain booths for photographers. Darkrooms will also be located on this level.

The new press box will give A&M press facilities and accommodations comparable with the best in this part of the country, said Barlow "Bones" Irvin, director of athletics.

Twenty-five hundred new seats are being constructed around the press box. Box seats will be added at the spot of the present press box.

The addition will extend about 90 feet into the practice field.

Options are now being sold on the seats for $50. The options will entitle the holder to purchase a 30-yard line (or better) football ticket to all home games for the next twenty years. To date approximately 1400 options have been sold.

The expansion will be financed through athletic department funds and bonds, and the receipts from the seat options.

Construction is being done by the Rambo Construction Co. of Worth Worth for $333,228.

The press box and seats may be ready by the first home game, Irvin said.

Rodeo Team Gets Third In Houston Rodeo

The A&M Rodeo Team placed third in the University of Houston Rodeo held March 27-29 in Houston.

Hardin-Simmons University was first, and Sul Ross State College placed second.

Bobby Rankin, A&M senior animal husbandry major from Wills Point, was runner-up for all-round cowboy at the contest. Rankin won first in bulldogging and third in calf roping.

financing, that would keep the school's high academic rating. He suggested a survey to find out what the people of the district want for the school.

"I'm not entirely satisfied that we need to go as far as the plan now being presented by the school board," he said, "but I'm in favor of proceeding with new facilities immediately."

Anderson has two children in Consolidated.

All three new candidates are against taking high school children to Bryan.

Open Forum Tonight

The candidates will have a chance to present their views on school problems and issues at 7:30 tonight at an open meeting in the Consolidated gymnasium. The meeting is sponsored by the educational commission.

The school board election will be Saturday, April 4, in the Consolidated music room. Absentee balloting started yesterday and will last through Thursday. Absentee ballots can be obtained from Principal J. J. Skrivaneck, absentee ballot clerk.

Soph Sweetheart Finalist Selected

Finalists for Sophomore Sweetheart were selected last night. The Sweetheart will be chosen at the Sophomore Ball, April 11.

The finalists are Sarah Barber, submitted by Jack Lonquist; Barbara Burke, submitted by Bennie Garitty; Aline Groner, submitted by Paul Kennon; Joan Seaman, submitted by Don Friend; and Margaret Ann Ammer, submitted by Ted T. Croon.

The Prairie View A&M Ramblers will play for the dance, which will be from 9 to 12 p. m. in Sbsisa Hall.

Tommy Schmidt, sophomore class social secretary is in charge of over-all arrangements.

Other sophomore officers are W. R. (Dusty) Cannon, president; Pat Wheat, vice-president; Wallace Eversberg, secretary; Thurmond Johnson, treasurer; and John Mac Moore, sergeant at arms.

Swine Assn. Urges Solons To Pass Garbage Bill

The Texas Swine Breeders Association today by a unanimous vote urged the Legislature to pass the bill which would require raw garbage to be cooked before it is fed to hogs.

The legislation was endorsed as a measure to help halt vesicular exanthema, a hog disease.

Meeting in the MSC yesterday and today, the association discussed the impact of swine diseases on production.

Program Speakers

Dr. H. E. Redmond of the veterinary medicine and surgery department, spoke on the effects of swine diseases, methods of control and described new diseases.

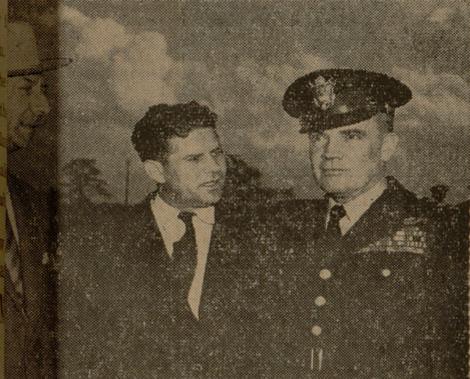

An outline on the use of antibiotics and how they inhibit the growth of certain harmful organisms in the digestive tract, leading to gains in weight with less feed was given by Fred Hale, animal husbandry department,

Dr. Carl M. Lyman, head of the biochemistry and nutrition department, discussed nutrition values of cottonseed meal with particular application to hogs. The results of using arsenic acid as a stimulant in swine feeds was described by J. H. Bridges of the animal husbandry department.

Reproductive performance in gilts was discussed by Dr. George L. Robertson, animal husbandry department. W. M. Warren gave a report on swine breeding problems.

H. W. Twedell, manager of the Houston Packing Company, described the type of hog wanted by producers, packers and consumers, giving reasons for each qualification.

George M. Lewis, '24, vice president of the American Meat Institute, was the dinner speaker Monday.
