first baseman, knocked Lou Little's three and one pitch over the left field fence with two men on, to give the Gophers a 4-0 lead.

In the Aggies half of the fifth inning, the Minnesota pitcher, Don Streeter gave up three bases on balls, giving the Cadets three men on with two away. Aggie second baseman, Charley Leissner, struck out on three straight pitches, to end the threat.

Little pitched the first three innings, with left hander Joe Hardgrove, going in on relief.

A double play from Lastelick to Pollard to Munnerlyn, stopped a possible Minnesota rally in the sixth frame.
