Film Club to Show O'Neil Film Play

EUGENE O'NEIL'S "The Long Voyage Home", a movie, will be shown at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the MSC Ballroom by the A&M Film Society, said Ed Holder, president.

The movie is based on the play by O'Neil.

APPROVAL OF the faculty members for the Athletic Council will be discussed by the A&M Board of Directors at 9 a. m. Saturday here.

The board will meet in a regular session. Other items on the agenda include summer school budgets, street improvements and water lines to a new well. Bids will be received for the dairy breeding center to be built here.

JACK C. HOLLIMAN '42 A&M graduate, has been named director of athletic publicity for Trinity University in San Antonio. He recently returned to the United States from Tokyo where he handled public information assignments for the Army.

A COMBINED field trip by the Horticulture 432 and 319 classes will be made at Tyler May 11th, said A. H. Krezdorn, professor of horticulture.

The trip will be made by approximately 40 students and three instructors. The boys will study the many rose fields and nurseries located in and around Tyler, said Krezdorn.

THE CASING has been set for the new 1345 ft. water well for A&M College, said H. D. Brison, the evening shift driller. The well

German Scientists Discuss Oil Mining

Two world-renowned German oil mining scientists are the main attractions at the sixth Oil Recovery Conference here today.

The German scientists, Ing F. Hoffman and Walter Ruehl of Wietze, will discuss, "Development, Operation and Economics of Oil Mining in Germany."

The sessions got under way at 9:30 this morning in the MSC with about 300 estimated at registration.

Oil recovery will be discussed today and Thursday by R. L. Whiting, and Harvey T. Kennedy, both of A&M; O. E. Van Meter of the Magnolia Petroleum Co.; Robert G. Jones of the Ohio Oil Company; Arthur H. Barbeck and Herbert L. McCracken of the Railroad Commission of Texas; R. E. Collins, Paul B. Crawford and F. S. McDonald of the Texas Petroleum Research Committee.

Chancellor Gibb Gilchrist of the A&M System, will be the principal speaker at the banquet tonight. He will discuss "Water for Texas." William J. Murray of the Railroad Commission of Texas, will be the toastmaster.

Water problems will be discussed Thursday by A. P. Rollins of the Texas Board of Water Engineers; W. O. George of the U. S. Board of Water Engineers, Paul Weaver of the Gulf Oil Corp., Nicolas A. Rose, of Houston, R. C. Earlougher, of Tulsa.

Corps Changes

cher said. "We will also have more good men to work in outfits."

Eliminated staff positions include scholastic, athletic, and communications officers. Other staff positions will take over the duties of these men. A special services officer will be added to wing and regiment staffs.

Changes Made

Next year, the Corps will consist of the First Regiment, with five battalions; and the First Wing, with four groups. The freshmen military organization will be called the Composite Regiment. It will have three battalions and three groups.

Units in the Composite Regiment will be allowed a maximum of six seniors, six juniors, and six sophomores. This does not necessarily mean that each freshman outfit will have 18 upperclassmen, Col. Melcher said.

"Nobody will be put in the Composite Regiment unless he wants to be there, Col. Melcher commented.

"We don't want bodies in the freshman area; we want men," he added.

Aggies to Escort San Antonio Queen

The Freshman drill team, the freshman band, and the Ross Volunteers will escort "Miss Fiesta" in the "Flambeau" night parade at San Antonio.

Scheduled for April 25, the parade will start at 7:30 p. m. and will be approximately one to two hours in length. Color movies and television will be placed in front of the Gunter Hotel to carry the illuminated parade for the living rooms of the San Antonio area.

Oil Conference Begins In MSC

The Sixth Oil Recovery Conference will meet on April 22-23 in the Ballroom of the MSC, said Mrs. Ann Hilliard, Social Director of the M. S. C.

The Texas Petroleum Research Committee is sponsoring this conference and R. L. Whiting will act as chairman.

Registration will be conducted in the lobby of the M. S. C. from 8:00 a. m. to 5:00 p. m. on Wednesday, April 22, and Thursday until 12 noon, Mrs. Hilliard added. Each registrant will be charged a registration fee of $4.00.

A banquet will be held in the Ballroom of the M. S. C. at 7:00 p. m. on Wednesday, April 22.

Big Moths from little Silkworms

ONCE there was a Biology Professor named Charlie who was a likeable chap, but the exams was a little too much for him. He completely flipped his lid. Crawling on his hands and knees, he started students and faculty members aflutter. Indeed, a silkworm!

He hurried to his room, grabbed a spoon, built a huge cocoon around him. Day after day he sat there, repeating over and over, "I am a silkworm! I am a silkworm!"

The other members of the faculty held a meeting to discuss what was to be done with poor Charlie. Bob Sutton, a physics instructor, leaning over the desk, explained his plan... and the other professors hurried down to the Van Heusen dealers Vanispan Sport Shirts.

"Look, Charlie," they said to Professor Edwards, "buy a smart new Van Heusen Vanispan Sport Shirt. They feel like silk. They're hand-knitted. They're the season's smartest new colors. Yet they're so light and so soft... far less than silk sport shirts. They're worth the price. They're worth the price of a silkworm!"

Charlie Edwards peered over the top of his cocoon. He examined the good-looking Van Heusen Vanispan Sport Shirt. "Egad, you're right!" he shouted, leaping up and flapping his arms wildly. "Now I can fly away!"
