

Tigers Win, 5-3; Third in Track

The Consolidated High Tigers Tuesday defeated Somerville 5-3 in an extra-inning baseball game played in Somerville.

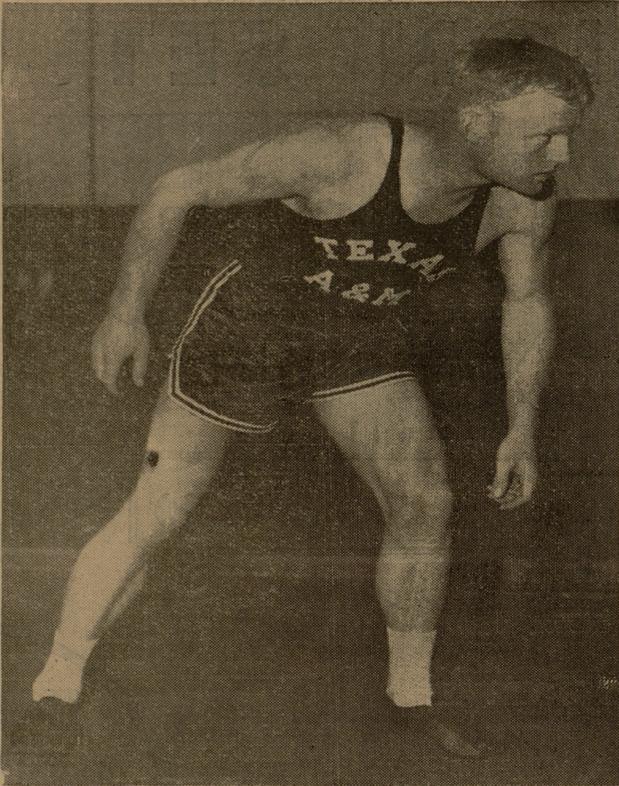

Joe Motheral pitched the entire game for the Tigers and turned in an amazing mound performance. Motheral gave up but three hits, struck out 19 Somerville batters, walked three, and hit one batter. The contest was tied 3-3 at the end of the regulation seven innings, but the Tigers produced two runs in the top of the eighth inning and Somerville succumbed to Motheral's fine pitching in the bottom half.

In the Tiger eighth, Byron Andrews led off with a walk, but was forced at second by Bobby Carter on a fielder's choice. Pinky Cooner lofted a fly to right, with Carter holding first. Pete Hickman then drove a double to deep right center, scoring Carter, and when the right fielder booted the ball around, Hickman kept on running and beat the throw into home plate.

Motheral fanned the first two Somerville batters to face him in the bottom of the ninth, and the third was thrown out at first.

In the district track and field meet held Saturday on the A&M track, Consolidated finished third with 22 points, behind Giddings with 56 points and Bastrop with 29 1/2 points. Dime Box and Smithville were fourth and fifth.

Tiger entries in the regional meet will be Bobby Carter, who took first in the high jump with a leap of five feet, nine inches, and the 440 yard relay team which finished first with a time of 46.8 seconds. Members of the sprint relay team are David Bonnen, Edward Simek, William Arnold, and Robert Cleland.

FACES CHAMP—James Blaine, the Aggies top two-mile artist, will meet last year's SWC two-mile champion, Lenroy Low of SMU, Saturday on Kyle Field. Blaine holds one decision over the Mustang distance man, beating him at the Border Olympics earlier this year.

SOPHOMORE STAR—Bobby Gross, one of the top sophomores on the Aggie track team and one of the three weight men, finished third in the discus at the Kansas Relays, and fourth in the shot, at Lawrence, Kansas this week. Gross will be the only weightman returning for next year's squad.

Rice, SMU Oppose Farmers In Track

Saturday will be the last time for Aggies to see the track team in action on Kyle Field this season, as they tangle with SMU and Rice in a triangular contest.

The Cadets will be idle, Saturday, May 2, and will meet Rice and Texas at Austin, Saturday, May 7, before entering the SWC meet in Fort Worth, May 15 and 16.

Darrow Hooper, the Aggies Olympic shot put star, will miss Saturday's meet, participating in the Drake Relays at Des Moines, Iowa, instead. Hooper, will be seeking his third straight dual victory in the shot and discus events, in a major relay this season.

Sophomore weight Star, Bobby Gross, and Dan Pratt, will carry the Aggies in the shot and discus events in the tri-meet, Saturday. It will be a toss-up as to which one will win the shot put event Saturday, since Pratt has defeated Gross in their last two outings, but Gross holds the decision for the first four meets.

In the discus, Gross should beat Pratt, as Pratt hasn't defeated his sophomore rival in this event all season.

Bobby Ragsdale, team captain, who bettered the conference broad-jump record at the Kansas relays last week-end will be favored in his specialty Saturday. Ragsdale is the first man in the SWC to broad-jump over 25 feet.

A hot battle is likely to develop in the sprint relay between the Aggies, and SMU, which has a pretty good team. The Aggie sprinters, placed fourth in the Kansas relays, last week. The SMU team came in ahead of the Cadets in the Border Olympics, but the Aggies have improved since then.

Aggies, Dale DeRouen and Charles Hudgins, should have no trouble in the mile, and James Baker is favored in the 440 yard dash.

Malcolm Marks, A&M pole vaulter, who hasn't been out of first place this year, is heavily favored to stay unbeaten Saturday. Glen Spradlin, the other Aggie star pole vaulter, who hasn't failed to place either second or tie Marks for first, is also favored to take second.

Chief competition for the Cadets will be from SMU's Dick Bernet, who has vaulted 12 feet six inches, this season. However, unless, Marks and Spradlin, have a bad day, they should not have any trouble beating this height. Both the Aggie vaulters have done over 13 feet and Marks has soared to 14 feet and two and a half inches.

Little League Trials Begin On Saturday

Little League baseball will get underway, Saturday, April 25, at 3:30 p. m. at the Consolidated high school gym. All College Station boys between the ages of nine through 12 should report for Little League spring training.

The spring training program will extend through May 9. All boys that are interested are urged to be present Saturday, whether they have registered or not. The candidates should bring their gloves, and should attend all the practices.

Saturday, the candidates will be divided into practice groups, and given a schedule showing their practice times.

The College Station boys will be trying out for two Little League teams from College Station, and those who don't make the Little League squads will be chosen for four minor league teams.

Sponsors of the four minor league clubs are expected to be the College Station Kiwanis Club and Lions Club, one team each and the College Station Recreational Council, two teams.

Squad Game Wins Spring Cage Practice

Spring basketball practice will wind up with an intersquad game, Tuesday night, April 28 at 8 p. m. Ken Sutton, the six foot nine inch, ex-army star recently discharged and who will re-enter A&M next fall, did not attend the drills because of illness in his family. Joe Boring, however, all-conference defensive football back of 1952, is rapidly proving himself a comer on the court.
