Senior Court Perpetrates Kangaroo Action on Juniors

TEN CADET juniors fell victim last night to 76 years of tradition and a liberal interpretation of The Articles of the Cadet Corps.

Dulles Confused

SECRETARY of State Dulles implied yesterday that the United States will continue its messed up identification of who's a what's-it or a communist, hence prevent a rapid end to the Korea action.

He said the US was not trying to cut off all trade with Red nations in Europe, but merely to wipe out the free world's trade with Communist China "to penalize her for her aggression and make her repent of her ways."

Besides gaining an evangelistic attitude in dealing with the Communists, the State Department seems confused as to what is aid to an enemy. Dulles also implied it was all right for our allies to trade with Red China when he criticized "those who would seek to impose on our friends or allies additional restrictions upon their trade with the Communist world even in terms of non-strategic articles."

Later, Dulles said he was in favor of stopping trade with Communist China and that progress has been made in such steps.

It all boils down to who's the real enemy? Russia? Communist China?

Trading with friends of Communist China and allowing them to supply the Chinese Reds is indirect support of the Commies by the US.

Until a clearer identification of a Communist state is supplied by our government, the end of trade with Red China will not end, nor will the Korean "police action" be climaxed.

The juniors were confined to the campus until Christmas by the Senior Court for failing to attend the Aggie Muster. They were tried under Article 35 of The Articles of the Cadet Corps which is headed "Failing to Observe Military Customs and Courtesy."

Nowhere under this article is anything written classifying the Aggie Muster as a military custom or a courtesy. There is only the heading and prescribed punishments.

With such a large number of so-called traditions and customs binding A&M, it is impossible to know what pertains to Article 35 if nothing is designated. As things stand now a man could be tried for failing to meet Revelli II, if someone wanted to consider that a military custom or courtesy.

Since Article 35 is one without a context, the Senior Court is the only group that has broken a regulation in this case. By sentencing the juniors for something which is not listed as an offense, the court has violated the students privilege to use his free time as he pleases. Violation of this rule can be punished by dismissal from school.

By its action last night, the senior officers, who compose the court, perpetrated an injustice upon their subordinates, their corps and their school.

If the student body allows this sentence to stand, they are supporting a Kangaroo court which can try a man on a senior's whim instead of for a designated offense.

Ag Experiment Station Gets Grants-in-Aid, Grants, Loan Kiwanians Hear Mens Choraleers

Two grants, two grants-in-aid and a loan, have been received by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. The grants total $1,500 and the grants-in-aid total $5,000.

The loan, a Rotary cross harrow, is from E. J. Hyde, Be-Ge Manufacturing Co., Gilroy Calif. It will be used by the agricultural engineering department in connection with the cotton mechanization studies.

Food Machinery

The grant, $500 from the Food Machinery and Chemical Corp., Middleport, N. Y., will be used in supporting research on cotton defoliants under the direction of Dr. Wayne C. Hall of the department of plant physiology and pathology.

The other grant, for $1000 from Freeport Sulphur Co., New Orleans, will be used for cotton insect control investigations. The studies are under the direction of the department of entomology under the supervision of Dr. J. C. Gaines.

A grant-in-aid of $3,225 from Mrs. Gertrude H. Beckwith, president, Phillip R. Park Inc., San Pedro, Calif., will be used in studies on the use of fishery by-products as sources of unidentified growth factors for poultry feeding and to determine the relationship of such factor sources to antibiotics.

Texas Rice

The other grant-in-aid, for $1,375, is from the Texas Rice Improvement Association, Beaumont, and will be used in paying portions of the salaries of Dr. R. M. Wehling and H. M. Beschell. They will become on May 16 joint employees of the Bureau of plant Industry, Soils and Agricultural Engineering and the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at the rice-pasture experiment station at Beaumont.

The Mens Choral Group of College Station sang for the Kiwanis Club yesterday.

Songs on the program were "Oklahoma", "Surrey with the Fringe on Top", "Oh What a Beautiful Morning", "Kentucky Babe", and "Old Arc."

Members of the group are Herbert Shaffer, Thomas J. Varley, Robert Jacobs, J. B. Baty, Arch Baker, Luther G. Jones, Dick Adams, Walter Varvel, Jack Lawler, C. M. Brunson, Charles W. Mitchell, Mertz Kressley, R. E. Snuggs, Theo Holleman, T. M. Buford and Eugene C. Bullard.

Bill Turner, A&M music director, conducts the chorus, with Miss Betty Bolander as accompanist. Jones is president of the group. Next week's Kiwanis program will be a talk by A&M student Earl Smith, a graduate of the Boy's Ranch of Texas.

INTERVIEWS

May 8—Magnetic Powders, Inc., will interview June mechanical engineering graduates for a position with their firm. They prefer a married student from the north as their plant is in Johnsonburg, Pa. The company refines and reduces magnetite and sponge iron powder.

May 12—The Allis-Chalmers Co. of Dallas, will conduct interviews of mechanical and electrical engineering June and summer graduates at all degree levels, for work in their general machinery division. They have a graduate training course leading to various positions and trainees transfer every two or three months to different departments based on the mutual interests of the trainee and management.

SUMMER JOB CALLS

● The Blue Mountain Division of the Green Giant Company, located at Dayton, Wash., has opportunities for seasonal employment for students and teachers for work in their factory, field jobs, supervisory or key positions, and a limited number of office jobs. All help must be at least eighteen years of age. All majors may qualify.

● There is an opening for a junior in chemical engineering with the Gas Department of the Pure Oil Co. of Fort Worth.

● The Trane Company of Houston, is looking for juniors majoring in mechanical, electrical, industrial, chemical and aeronautical engineering for summer employment in the sales engineering field in the Houston area. They are interested in boys who have to attend military camp, as well as those who would be able to work all summer.

JOB CALLS

● The Ranch and Farm Loan Department of the Connecticut Mutual Life Insurance Co. of Fort Worth, has an opening for a young man majoring in agronomy, animal husbandry or range and forestry, who would be qualified to be developed into the position of farm and ranch appraiser. This will involve travel part of the time in Texas, Oklahoma, Louisiana and Mississippi. The work calls for a knowledge of soils and grasses, and to a certain extent, animal husbandry.

● There is an opening for a business administration or industrial engineering graduate on the administrative staff of the Kodak Processing Laboratory of Eastman Kodak Co. in Dallas. This man would serve in the capacity of payroll and cost man. There is a training period of one or two months.

● The Southwestern Gas and Electric Co. has an opening in their commercial department in Texas for a man to do commercial sales promotion work. He would call on commercial and industrial electric customers to discuss lighting, rates, and other electrical problems. Business, agricultural economics and industrial education majors may qualify.

● The Sperry Gyroscope Company of Great Neck, New York, has openings for aeronautical, mechanical, electrical and civil engineering graduates for positions available in research, development and manufacture of high quality equipment for commercial and armed service usage in the communication, marine, and ground transportation fields.
