Eight high school and two junior college football players have signed letters of intent to enroll at Texas A&M College next fall according to Head Coach Ray George.

The list includes four backs, one end, three tackles, a guard and a center.

The two junior college transfers will be eligible for varsity competition next fall. They are Gary Wofford, Tyler center and Malcolm Hammack, Arlington half-back.

Three of the high schoolers are from Breckenridge's state champion team. They are Bobby Drake Keith, halfback, Bobby Lockett, tackle and Houston Green, guard.

Others are Don Carpenter, all-state fullback from Grand Prairie; Wade Driver and Glen Raines, Terrell tackles; Jack Pardee, half-back from Christoval; and Bebe Stallings, end from Paris.

Keith, 6-0, 205-pound all-state back, is considered to be one of the finest prospects in the state. He is an outstanding leader.

205 Pounds—'Fish'

Pardee is a 16-year old outstanding 6-man player from Christoval. He stands 6-3 and weighs 205 pounds.
