

Majors Regain League Lead

Stryka also relieved Lee Starr in the fifth inning of the first game of Tuesday's double header with the Austin Pioneers, which the Majors split, winning the opener 4-3, and dropping the nightcap by a 6-2 margin.

The Majors will face the Eagles for two more games in the current series, with tonight and Friday night games slated to start at 8. They move to Tyler for a Fourth of July doubleheader with the second place East Texans, and then return home for a single encounter with the East Texans on Sunday afternoon.

Undeclared Pirates Win 1st Half Title In Minor League

Posting an undefeated record, the Kiwanis Club Pirates, managed by Chili Smith and Wayne Smith, coasted to the first-half championship of the College Station Little Minor League. In second place was the Lions Club Cubs with three wins and two losses. They were trailed by the Recreation Council Dodgers with a 2-4 record, and the cellar-dwelling Recreation Council Indians, who finished with a 1-5 mark.

Several of these youngsters have batting averages which may merit them a starting berth on a Little League team next season. The top six in the batting race at the present time, including the first three games of the second-half, are: Ervin Todd, .550; Joe Olian, .500; George Outlaw, .471; Bobby Davidson, .462; Richard Daigle, .455; and Layne Coulter, .429. Joe Olian leads the league in hits, with a total of twelve.

The leaders in runs scored are Joe Olian and George Outlaw, both with fifteen runs chalked up to their credit. Olian also leads in runs-batted-in, having driven twelve base runners across the plate.

The Cubs, managed by Walker Jacobs and John Mackin, are dominating the second-half of play thus far. They have racked up three consecutive wins by scores of: 17-16, 4-2, and 10-3. There is a three-way tie for the other three places in the league, mid-way through the second-half of play.

Ramsey Corrects Football Records

Jones Ramsey, A&M sports publicity director, has corrected the records concerning the 1905 and 1910 football games with Kentucky teams.

The team that A&M played in 1905 was Kentucky University and A&M lost the game, 6 to 29. Kentucky University was changed to Transylvania in 1908. In 1910 A&M played Transylvania and won 33 to 0.

Transylvania University, a Christian Church college, and the University of Kentucky are both located in Lexington.

Day Students Win Two More

By DOLPH MOTEN

That late inning lightning struck twice this week as the league leading Day Students came from behind Tuesday night to romp over Law 9-1. Wednesday afternoon, they scored four runs in the last inning to overcome a three run lead held by the Project Houses' club.

In the Law game, the Day Ducks went behind in the second on Dale Stice's double and an error by third-baseman Charlie Russell. Winning pitcher Roy Dollar pitched three hit ball, walked six and struck out six.

Ray Smallwood was the hitting star with a two-run ground rule double in the fourth inning that gave his team a lead that was never overcome. Smallwood's double was the only hit given up by losing pitcher John Bomba but he walked five men and his club made two costly errors behind him. Don Aviles relieved in the fifth and gave up one hit, a single by Jack Little, the rest of the way.

Jim Stephen singled home Newton Butts from third base in the sixth inning with the run that gave the Day Students their one run win over the Project House.

Mitchell and Law locked horns Wednesday night in a marathon slugfest (it couldn't be called softball) that consisted of an abundance of errors and wild pitching, mixed with some daring base running and the lack of heads-up ball. Mitchell won on the heavy end of a 23-19 score when the dust settled.

Law used three ineffective pitchers and Mitchell countered with two. Leon Shepley was the winner and John Bomba the loser. Both were relief pitchers.

Mitchell catcher Dukey Childs let a low inside pitch get away from him in the bottom half of the last inning Tuesday afternoon and Beck Morgan came home from third base to score the winning run as Pur-year downed Mitchell 6-5.

Winning pitcher Louis Koehn allowed only one hit—a three-run triple by Ben Rentzel in the third inning. Koehn walked nine and hit one batsman. The winners had four hits, one each by Tom Brown, Tom Durdin, Jerry Johnson, and Jim Milstead.

Leon Shepley, showing better than average speed, was the losing pitcher. He walked five and hit two.
