College Station Swim Team Takes Third In AAU Meet

Competing in the Annual Gulf AAU Swimming Meet at Houston's new Spring Branch Pool last Friday and Saturday, Coach Art Adamson's College Station Swimming Team took many individual honors and placed third in total points in a field of ten clubs.

Swimming in the women's division, Albert Stevens also took double honors, winning first place in the 200 meter freestyle and 200 meter individual medley. Stevens also swam on the 4th place 266% meter freestyle relay.

Gayle Klipple won first in the style, and the men's 100 meter freestyle.

But the Toms, unaccustomed to defeat, returned to form in the nightcap on the splendid two-hit pitching of Lupe Fraga and a 12-hit attack off three College Station chunkers to score a 14-0 win.

Thus Saint Thomas completed the field for the four-day state meet, which gets underway at Public School diamond in Houston, of the series—and finished with eight more runs off two successors.

The finale belonged to Fraga, the little righthander coming back from his 6-0, one-hit win in Wednesday's opener in fine style. He fanned six and permitted just one runner to reach second.

Smarting from the sting of the first game loss, the Eagles never let up as they jumped off to a six-run bulge in the first three innings off Cooner—making his third start off the series—and finished with eight more runs off two successors.
