

Women's Clubs for Everyone

There are women's clubs in College Station for almost any interest group.

For women interested in gardening the A&M Garden Club holds its meetings the second Friday of each month at the MSC. Mrs. Marion Pugh is club president.

Mothers of A&M students have organized the Brazos County A&M Mother's Club. As part of their project they keep in touch with parents of the students in the College hospital. It is the Brazos County Mothers Club that sponsors the president's tea for parents and students during May.

A&M Consolidated

The A&M Consolidated Mothers and Dads Club is composed of parents with children in the A&M Consolidated Schools. Mrs. Joe E. Davis, president, announced a teachers' reception on September 15 as the year's opening function.

All alumnae of Texas State College for Women are invited to first meeting of the TSCW Alumnae September 22 at the MSC at 7:30 p.m. The TSCW Alumnae was organized in 1950 to supply a contact with former students at the college.

The Extension Service Club, an associate of the Texas Federation of Women's Clubs, will give a musical tea at the MSC for their first meeting, October 1. The club president, Mrs. W. J. Moore, announced

Party Held For Teachers

The annual reception honoring A&M Consolidated high school teachers will be held Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. on the Patranello memorial slab north of the gymnasium.

The meeting, sponsored by the A&M Consolidated Mothers' and Dads' club, is open to the parents of the school children and citizens interested in Consolidated school. It is to provide an opportunity for becoming better acquainted with the teachers.

Refreshments will be served. Senior class girls will act as junior hostesses. Mrs. Paul Andrews and Mrs. R. E. Leighton are in charge of arrangements. General chairman is Mrs. Carl W. Landiss.

announced "Love of Learning Opens the Gate of Knowledge" as the 1953 motto.

"Thinking Today for this Tomorrow" is the year's motto for the Campus Study Club, who will have a tea as their opening meeting October 6. The club meets on the first and third Tuesday of each month in the South Solarium of the YMCA. Mrs. Carl Lyman is club president.

Second Thursday

The Daughters of the American Revolution meets on the second Thursday of each month. The first meeting was September 10 at the home of the Regent, Mrs. R. E. Patterson.

Other College Station clubs who will announce meeting dates soon are the College Women's Social Club, the American Association of University Women, the MSC Married Couples Committee, the Aggie Wives Bridge Club, the Architects Wives Society, the Dames Club, and the American Veterinary Medicine Association Auxiliary.

In addition there are women's clubs at many of the College Station Churches.

'The Drunkard' Returns In Musical Comedy Role

By HUBBARD KEAVY
For Bob Thomas

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 10—(AP)—And now comes "The Drunkard," after 20 years, in a musical version. And it ought to be around, the local critics agree, for another 20 years.

Just to get an interesting statistic out of the way, "The Drunkard" will give performance No. 7,517 tonight, unless something happens to keep the curtain from going up.

But the show never has failed to go on a single night since the old P. T. Barnum melodrama, which prints very broadly the evils of drink, started showing at the Theater Mart in July 1933.

Musical Version

The musical version has a new title, "The Wayward Way." It is an innovation that will catch on with the tourist trade. The people who operate the show are sure of one thing: that about half of the audience will consist of out-of-towners who rate "The Drunkard" as a must-see like Catalina, the Farmers' Market and any movie star, and the other half of residents like me who have seen it from 19 to 25 times.

We regulars take proprietary interest in the performance, know when to hiss the villain and cheer the hero and call the actors by their first names. Some of us always are looking for opportunities to prompt the players if they should go up in their lines.

Other Regulars

It seemed to many of us, before we saw the musical version which had its premiere the other night, that we wouldn't like it. Ed Scablert, Ed Ainsworth and Dave Bongard and many other regulars thought producer Mildred Ilse was doing something which couldn't be done.

But after the villain, Squire Cribbs, sang "He's Not His Father's Son," and the hero and heroine delivered a love song, "Its New to Some but Old to Me," we rejoiced in Miss Ilse's daring.

Methodist Women To Meet Monday

The Woman's Society of Christian Service of the A&M Methodist church will have its first meeting of the year Monday, Sept. 14, at the home of Mrs. Nolan Vance.

Mrs. Curtis Holland and Mrs. Otis Miller will be hostesses for the meeting, which begins at 7:45 p.m.

"You Cannot Love without Sharing" will be the theme of the program. Mrs. I. W. Rupel is program chairman.

Mrs. Stewart Brown will conduct the worship service.

The Animal Kingdom never will be exterminated altogether so far as preserving names are concerned. Several Texas places are named after wildlife, such as: Antelope, Jack County; Quail, Collingsworth County; Buffalo, Leon County; Deer Park, Harris County; Eagle Pass, Maverick County; and White Deer, Carson County.

CAKE CUTTERS—Pictured above are Mr. and Mrs. Raymond E. Galvin following their marriage at 7:30 p.m. Friday at the First Baptist church. Mrs. Galvin, the former Miss Dorothy Bates, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Bates, 1010 Milner. She is a graduate of A&M Consolidated high school and attended Sam Houston State college in Huntsville. The bridegroom is a graduate of A&M.

DAR To Discuss Constitution Week

Plans for Constitution week will be discussed tonight at the meeting of the Daughters of the American Revolution at the home of the Regent, Mrs. R. E. Patterson, 1305 Walton E.

The yearbooks will be distributed by Mrs. Virgil Parr, yearbook chairman, and a program of American music will follow the business meeting at 7:30 p.m.

Constitution week, also known as citizenship week, will be celebrated September 13 through 19. A series of programs about the Constitution will be presented on WTAW at 9:45 a.m. each Thursday.

The DAR meets the second Thursday of the month.

New Employees Set Dinner-Dance Meet

Employees who have joined the college staff since June 1, 1953, will be guests of the college at the first meeting of the college employees dinner-dance club at its first meeting this year.

Wives, husbands or dates of new employees also will be guests. The club will meet at 7:30 p.m. Sept. 17 in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center.

Deans and department heads will attend to welcome the new employees.

Staff and faculty members will have to get tickets before noon Wednesday so the committee will know how many guests to expect.

Women's News

In College Station

The A&M Garden club will meet Friday at 2:30 in the social room of the Memorial Student Center. Everyone interested in joining is requested to come to this first meeting.

Mrs. W. E. Street was hostess Wednesday morning at a coffee at her home on highway 6, honoring Mrs. Gene Potts, a recent bride.

Miss Martha Ergle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Ergle, 292 Gilchrist, will leave Sunday for the University of Texas where she is enrolled as a freshman.

Also attending UT is Miss Celeste Curran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. N. Curran, formerly of College Station now of Lexington, Mass., who will return to Austin for her second year. Miss Curran, who has been visiting her aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Griffith, 607 Hensel, is a member of Tri-Delta sorority.

Girls who will be spending their first year at Sam Houston State college include Miss Barbara Van Tassel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Van Tassel, 508 Brooks, and Miss Barbara Robertson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Robertson, College View.

Leaving Tuesday for her second year at Texas State College for Women is Miss Sarah Puddy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom G. Puddy, 1505 Sulphur Springs Rd.

The College Heights Assembly of God will hold singing and prayer at the church tonight at 8:00 p.m.

Pinky Has 'Great' New Car, Troubles

By BOB HENDRY
Battalion Feature Editor

P. L. (Pinky) Downs has a new car.

It's a green four-door Dodge, license No. WB 3176, and "it's really great," according to Pinky. His old car, a white '37 Ford coupe, had become famous through the years as he rode around the campus yelling "Gig 'um!" to his fellow Aggies.

"The only trouble with it is the color," says Pinky. "People don't recognize it as my car and don't speak to me anymore."

Worst Car

The worst car he ever had, claims A&M's official greeter, was a Cadillac. "Its radiator froze on me and cost me 80 dollars," Pinky explained, "and a blowout cost me another 80 bucks. Finally, I walked down to the company and asked to see a Chevrolet."

"Anytime we have a corps trip, I can take five Aggies with me now," Downs said. "I couldn't do it with the old car because there wasn't enough room."

"One of the five I take," Pinky went on, "will have to drive, but it won't cost any of them a thing. I'll even buy the hamburgers at the end of the trip, but they'll have to buy their own steak dinners."

Pinky predicted the Aggies could not win the conference this year, but "we'll win more games than we lose," he said.

A&M Graduate

Downs was graduated from A&M in 1936 and has been connected with the college ever since. He has served on the A&M board of directors, in the athletic and college information departments, and is now the college's official greeter.

Few people on the campus are more widely known than Pinky, and there are none as loyal. New students will come to know him at yell practices and at many other college functions.

While in the Memorial Student Center the other day, Pinky looked at the "I'm going to A&M" inscription on his briefcase and said, "What? Going to A&M? Heck, I've been here for 59 years!"
