

Whites Upset Maroons In Squad Football Game

The Whites defeated the Maroons 14-12 in the intra-squad game Saturday afternoon on Kyle Field, and Coach Ray George said he was not disappointed in the showing of either team.

Maroon scores were made by Bill Schroeder, sophomore end, who sneaked behind the White defense to take a pass from Don Ellis, and by Joe Boring, who scored on a short scamper around left end. Neither try for extra point was successful.

Billy Huddleston and Connie Magouirk produced scores for the Whites. Huddleston scored on a short plunge over center, and Magouirk charged through right tackle for the other score. Both extra point tries were good.

"I think the boys rate 'A' for effort," George said, "and I was pleased with the hard hitting on both sides."

There was too much fumbling, and the pass receivers were dropping the ball, but the boys are showing lots of enthusiasm and should improve before the opening game with Kentucky on Saturday, he said.

Tommy Strait, end on last year's fish team, is being tested at a halfback slot, and shows much promise at the position. He runs well, and is a better than average punter.

Other sophomores who were impressive in Saturday's game were Schroeder at end and Foster

Clubs May Enter 'Mural Competition

All clubs on the campus will be able to participate in intramurals this semester, said Barney Welch, intramural athletic director.

Any club interested in entering a team is invited to attend the meeting of athletic officers on Thursday at 5 p. m. in Room 301, Goodwin Hall.

If some clubs have not held their first meeting before Thursday, a representative should contact Welch in the Office of Student Activities, Goodwin Hall.

Sports offered the first semester will be flag football, basketball, tennis and horseshoes.

"Tooter" Teague, a big, hustling tackle.

George also emphasized that shifting of players is still going on, and that members of the White squad will be moving up to take the place of Maroon players, and that there are some starting assignments that may be determined in the final few days of practice before the Kentucky game.

Two Aggies Made 1940 All-America

A&M and TCU are the only Southwest Conference football teams which have had two consensus All-Americans in the same season, according to the Official SWC Record Book.

They were Back John Kimbrough and Guard Marshall Robnett, of A&M, named to the mythical team in 1940, and TCU's Center Ki Aldrich and Back Davey O'Brien, selected in 1938.

Eighteen SWC players have been picked, starting with Baylor's Bochey Koch in 1930. SMU, with six, leads in the number of players. TCU has had four, Rice and Texas two and Baylor one.

Bremond Bows 65-0 Before Tiger Attack

A&M Consolidated's Tigers kicked off their 1953 football season with a 65-0 rout of Bremond Friday night. They scored in all but the third period on five line bucks, two passes, a 25-yard sprint and an 80-yard punt return.

Bobby Joe Wade scored within the first three minutes of play on a four yard buck to climax a 46-yard drive on nine plays. After that it was never close. The next three tallies came in rapid succession with an 80-yard punt run-back by David Bonnen, a 15-yard pass from Fred Anderson to Bubba Engelbrecht and an eight yard buck by Wade.

The two extra points were made in the first quarter by Bobby Carter and J. B. Carroll.

Two scoring plunges by Tommy Barker in the second quarter saw the extent of the scoring in that period. He made one for three yards and the other for seven.

Jim Bevans, Tiger coach, used every man on the bench during the third and fourth quarters. Bremond held Consolidated scoreless in the third period.

In the last quarter, Anderson passed 10 yards to Bobby Jackson, William Arnold ran 25 yards for another, Anderson returned a punt for the third and Wade went two yards for the final score of the game. Carroll kicked two extra points in this quarter. The Tigers played a tight defensive game except for weak pass defense in the second half.

'Seniors to Lead Tigers' Grid Hopes'-Bevans

Good senior leadership is the key to A&M Consolidated high school's football prospects this year, said Coach Jim Bevans in a speech yesterday to the College Station Lions club. Bevans said he is relying on the 14 seniors, including 10 starters, to carry the Tigers through the year. Because of increased enrollment, CHS is moving from a class B to class A conference this year. In spite of this move Bevans hopes for a fine year.

"If the game is worth playing it is worth winning," Bevans said. "We are playing to win, but without boasting. We are striving to lose without grudge, and want to leave the field with the confidence of the other team."

He predicted only one sure win for the year—last Friday's victory over Bremond.

The Tigers' next home game will be Oct. 9 when they play Cypress-Fairbanks. Friday night they play Madisonville, a class AA team, at Madisonville.

First 'Mural Meeting Set For Thursday

The first meeting of upperclassmen, freshmen and non-military athletic officers will be held Thursday at 5 p. m. in Room 301, Goodwin Hall, said Barney Welch, director of intramural athletics.

Non-military includes Dorm 2, Dorm 4, Bizzell, Mitchell, Project House and Vet Village.

It is imperative that all athletic officers attend this meeting since the intramural program for this semester will be discussed.

Since Project House and College View do not have an athletic officer appointed, a special invitation is extended to anyone living in either of these areas that is interested in forming teams to compete with other non-military teams on the campus.

All units that stored athletic equipment at the end of last year are requested to pick it up in the Office of Student Activities.
