Tishlers Honored On 25th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Carl W. Landiss were hosts Sunday afternoon at an open house honoring Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Tishler on their 25th wedding anniversary. Tishler is head of the physical education department.

Over 100 guests called at the Landiss' home, 803 Dexter Dr. S., to congratulate the Tishlers.

The decorations included a portrait of the Tishlers copied from a photograph taken on their honeymoon at Niagara Falls in 1928. The portrait was done by James Griffith of the physical education department.

The table was covered with an imported white Italian cutwork cloth and service was from an English silver service on white Rosepoint china. The centerpiece, made by Mrs. Edward Madeley, included rose of Sharon, white clematis and white crepe myrtle in a milk glass china bowl. The theme of white and silver was carried out in all the decorations.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. (Spike) White were in charge of the guest book. Assisting in serving were Misses Carolyn Landiss, Rosemary Lenert, Sandra Couch and Marian Gaddis, junior hostesses.

House guests included Mr. and Mrs. Gibb Gilchrist, Chancellor and Mrs. M. T. Harrington, President and Mrs. David H. Morgan, Dean and Mrs. J. P. Abbott, Dean and Mrs. W. L. Penberthy, Col. and Mrs. Joe E. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Elkins, and Mrs. Luke Patranello.

The Tishlers have one son, Lt. Ward E. Tishler, who is serving with the air force in Japan.
