Miss Elliott Celebrates Birthday in MSC

Miss Ann Elliot, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred C. Elliot, Beverly Estates, will be honored tonight in the Memorial Student Center at a party for her 13th birthday.

Aggie Wives Bridge Club Starts Thurs.

The Aggie Wives Bridge club will begin regular weekly meetings Thursday, at 7:30 p. m. in the YMCA. This is a temporary location, and after Thursday night, meetings will be held at the MSC, rooms 2A and 2B.

There will be intermediate and advanced groups and a class for beginners, taught by interested faculty wives. This "learning" group always contains the largest number of members.

The club held an election meeting Thursday August 20. Officers for the fall term are La Rue Bevier, president; Martha Enlow, vice - president; Gwynn Smith, secretary and treasurer and Mary Mackin, reporter. A committee was also appointed for placing bulletins in College View and project houses to welcome new members.

The Aggie Wives Bridge club was first organized in January 1946 under the name of Ex-Servicemen's Wives club. Later it became known as the Veterans' Wives club and finally in 1951 the Aggie Wives Bridge club.

All Aggie wives and wives of college employes are invited to the Thursday evening meetings.

Two Teachers Added To Consolidated Staff

Two new teachers have joined the staff of A&M Consolidated high school.

They are Mrs. David Darter, science teacher, and Mrs. Rollins Lord, English and commercial courses teacher.

Mrs. Darter, a University of Texas graduate, came to CHS from Austin where she was doing research. Mrs. Lord was recently graduated with honors from North Texas State college.
