

Rifle Team Greet New 1953 Coaches

Members of the varsity rifle team met their new coaches and organized the Rifle Team club Wednesday night.

Capt. Mitchell and M. Sgt. Collins, air force, and Capt. Libby and S/Sgt. Lucky, army, will tutor the team this season.

T. Sgt. M. L. Oberste, coach last season, will leave A&M early next month for overseas duty.

The 1953 schedule has shoulder-to-shoulder matches with University of Houston, Texas Tech, The Citadel, LSU, all SWC schools, several area matches and the Annual Southwest Invitational matches at El Paso.

Ten lettermen return to the varsity team, along with 11 non-numeral winners. Several members of the varsity team will act as managers for the Fish team.

A meeting of all freshmen interested in trying out for the Fish team will be held at 7 p. m. Monday at the rifle range under Kyle Field.

Can You Sell?

If you can, here's the chance you've been waiting for. The Student Floral Commission needs salesmen for all areas. The commission would like to have freshman salesmen for the freshman area and upper classmen for other areas.

Here's a chance for you to make that extra money you've been needing. Contact Bob Potts at 9 Mitchell or write to Box 5752.

SWC Slates Tough Games For Weekend

Five games are on slate for Southwest Conference teams this weekend. Two of these tilts are billed as the most attractive of the weekend.

California is rated a one touch-down favorite over Baylor in a battle of the Bears at Berkeley, Cal. The Rice Owls, tagged as pre-season favorites to win the conference title, are seven point picks over a Florida team billed as one of the top outfits of the country.

In other league inter-sectional games, Texas is favored over LSU. TCU is picked over Kansas and Kentucky is given the nod over A&M.

Around 50,000 fans are expected to witness the Baylor-Cal tilt. Baylor's starting backfield of Quarterbacks Fran Davidson, Halfbacks Jerry Coody and L. G. Dupre and Fullback Allen Jones is rated one of the best in the nation. California has never lost a season opener under Coach Lynn Waldorf.

Florida fans expect one of the best teams in the school's history. Back Rick Casares and Guard Joe D'Agostino are on many pre-season All-American teams.

Casares was badly injured in a summer auto accident. He will see little if any action. In 1952 he ran for 632 yards and completed 14 of 37 passes for an amazing 781 yards. He scored seven touchdowns and had a 41.2 punting average.

D'Agostino is a 5 feet 11, 218 pound senior. He charges like an elephant and wrecked Tulsa's famed Howard Waugh in the last Gator Bowl game.

Texas, minus three fourths of 1952's brilliant secondary, still has Billy Quinn and Carleton Massey, along with a flock of flashy sophomore backs.

Quinn set a new scoring record for sophs with 13 touchdowns. He scored three against Baylor and counted seven of Texas' last 11.

The Longhorns beat LSU 35-14 last season. Tomorrow's game should be much closer. The Bengal Tigers return three all-conference linemen and three of their first four ball carriers.

TCU plays its first game under a new coach and a new offensive setup against a team with a very strong defensive line. Tackle Bud Bixler, 6 feet 5, 232. Guard Bud Hantla, 206, and Paul Leoni are due to deal misery to the Frogs Split-T and Single Wing attack. The Frogs rate the nod because of their fine backfield of Ray McKawn, Roy Fraley, Ronald Clinkscale and Danny Hallmark.

Math Department Opens Study Room Monday

A study room for students needing help in mathematics courses will be opened Monday in room 204 of the Academic building.

An instructor will be present from 1-5 p. m. Monday through Friday to assist students.

Sophomores interested in becoming intramural managers should meet Tuesday at 5 p. m. in room 301, Goodwin hall.
