Dames Club Sets Open House Date

The Dames club, an organization for all Aggie wives, set 8 p. m. Oct. 13, as the time for the fall open house.

The first fall meeting of the club was held at 8 p. m. Tuesday in the South Solarium of the YMCA.

"Everyone who has ever been a member, is a member, or would like to be a member is invited," said Bobbie Riche, Dames president. She explained that any wife whose husband was a full or part time student was eligible for membership.

At the Tuesday meeting, the president introduced Mrs. George E. Potter, the new sponsor, who gave the welcoming address.

A social evening of bridge and canasta followed the discussion of the open house.

are Jeanne Cline and Carol Pillgrim. Hostesses for the intermediate group are Rachel Fowler and Mary Bradley.

Hostesses for the largest group, the beginners, are Martha Thomas and Shirley Bean. After this week the club will begin meeting at the Memorial Student Center.

Seventeen tables played at last Thursday's meeting. Hostesses were Mrs. La Rue Bevier and Mrs. Gwin Smith.

There were eight tables in the beginners group. Mrs. E. L. Angell instructed them. Mrs. E. E. McQuillan helped the intermediates. High prize winner in the intermediate group was Jenette Williams.

High prize winner for the evening at the six tables in the regular group was Catherine Sepell.

Mrs. Silby Named Club's Guest Artist

Mrs. Reginald C. Silby will be guest artist at the opening meeting of the College Women's Social club at 3 p. m. Friday in the ballroom of the Memorial Student Center.

Following a short business meeting Mrs. Silby will be presented. She is a graduate of the Julliard School of Music and has had extensive experience in the field of musicals, including a part in "Showboat" and a three-months contract on the British Broadcasting company.

She received a $1500 scholarship to the Metropolitan Opera school. The program will be followed by a social hour so that the old members may meet the new people who have joined the college staff.

Knights of Columbus Hold Meeting Tonight

District Deputy Stanley Gorzycki will install officers of the College Station Council of the Knights of Columbus at 7:30 tonight.

The ceremony will take place at St. Mary's Chapel.
