

Three Games Slated For SWC Grid Teams

By Jerry Wizig
Battalion Sports Writer

Southwest conference football fans face a meager selection of games this weekend, with only three tilts scheduled.

Arkansas opens its season against Oklahoma A&M in Little Rock.

University of Texas, upset by LSU last Saturday, opens its home schedule against Villanova.

A&M takes on revengeminded University of Houston in what promises to be the best game in the state.

The Longhorn - Wildcat contest could erupt into the wide - open, high scoring game so common in the SWC.

The presence on the same field of two great running backs, Texas' Billy Quinn and Villanova's Gene Filipki, adds to this prospect.

Quinn, held to a minus four yards rushing by LSU, was All-SWC as a soph in '52 and set new conference rushing and scoring marks for sophomores.

"Billy the Kid" gained 535 yards in league play and scored 14 touchdowns. He rushed for 696 yards over the entire season, despite the fact he did not break into the starting backfield until the sixth game.

Filipki, former West Point player, made Look magazine's 1952 All - America team. He ranked eighth in the nation in rushing with 889 yards. His 6.4 yard per carry average ranked fourth in the country.

Flanking Filipki

Flanking Filipki at the other halfback will be Ben Addiego, a '51 member of the All-Catholic team. Slowed by injuries last year, he still gained 254 yards for a 4.1 yard average.

Both are fine punters and have shown well on defense.

Bob Volonino, 210 pound All-East guard, bulwarks a starting line that averages 216.5 pounds per man. It is one of the biggest in the country.

Mystery Team

The mystery team of the SWC, Arkansas, unveils its new single wing offense installed by Coach Bowden Wyatt against a Cowboy team rated the best of recent years.

Wyatt starts his first year in the league with a team lacking depth, weight and experience. Nevertheless, some sports writers regard the Razorbacks as the dark-horse of the conference.

Wyatt, a former All-American end at Tennessee, compiled a brilliant coaching record at Mississippi State and Wyoming.

Lamar McHan, all-conference soph in 1951, leads the Hog backfield forces. He was the leading ground gainer for Arkansas last year with 905 yards and had a 36 yard punting average.

Don Babers and Bill Bredde spark the Oklahoma Aggie offense. Dale Meinert, Bud Godsoe and John Payne are veteran linemen.

Babers chalked up 493 yards through the air, Bredde had a 3.9 yard per carry average.

Weight Advantage

The Cowboys will have a weight advantage of 11 pounds per man in the line. Leland Kendall, A&M's starting left tackle, is the heaviest man on either starting lineup. He tips the scales at 230 pounds.

The starting lineups: Arkansas - Ends Floyd Sagely, 180, and Jerry Bogard, 174; tackles, Eddie Bradford, 198, and Jim Roth, 194; guards, Harold Spain, 196, and Bud Brooks, 199; center, Jimm Cauthron, 196; backs, Preston Carpenter, 186; McHan, 190; Phil Reginelli, 162; and Henry Moore, 182.

Oklahoma A&M - Ends, John Weigle, 190, and Bob LaRue, 190; tackles, Kendall and Meinert, 205; guards, Godsoe, 210, and Payne, 200; center, Pat Fitter, 185; backs, Bob Andrew, 185; Bredde, 190; Dorsey Gibson, 178 and Earl Lunsford, 190.

Batt Mistake In Fish List Is Explained

The Battalion several days ago asked Freshman Coach Willie Zapalac for a roster of the fish squad. He was also asked to mark the boys who showed up well in the first couple of scrimmages.

He mailed a roster with some names marked and with the notation, "indicates the best boys" in those scrimmages.

A mix-up between The Battalion sports department and the press room caused the notation to appear in Thursday's paper along with the roster.

"There are no 'best boys' on the squad," Zapalac said today, "and we won't know much about any of them until they have played a game or two."

SEOUL—(AP)—Nearly eight million dollars worth of equipment and materials has been salvaged since the July 27 truce from former Allied battle positions now in the demilitarized zone of Korea, the 8th Army said today.

The salvaged equipment is being stockpiled or used to construct new Allied battle positions.

BOB CHUOKE — An All - conference offensive guard in 1952, Chuoke was moved to tackle and is expected to be outstanding on defense and offense. He is a senior from Galveston, stand 6 feet, 1 inch and weighs 205 pounds.

Jimmy Bond, 150; center Pinky Cooner, 175.

A&M Consolidated high school's Tigers will travel to Navasota tonight for their third game of the season.

Both teams will be seeking their third straight win this year. CHS defeated Bremont 65-0 and Madisonville 59-0, while the Rattlers won from Rosenberg 20-6 and from Hearne 20-0.

Good senior leadership is the key to CHS football prospects this year and Coach Jim Bevans is relying on the 14 seniors, including 10 starters, to carry the Tigers through a successful season. Because of increased enrollment this year, CHS moved from class B to class A competition. Navasota is a class AA team.

The Tigers have one man on the injured list. He is Pete Hickman, who received a broken hand in last week's clash.

Probable starting offensive linemen and their weights are ends Bobby Carter, 165, and Bobby Jackson, 170; tackles Charles Johnson, 160, and Melvin Free, 215; guards George Sousares, 145, and

The starting offensive lineup for the Rattlers will be Ernest Gayle and Henry Hair, ends; Charles Spang and Billy Weaver, tackles; Joe Phillips and Milton Boenker, guards; Ed Rayburn, center. Backfield starters on offense will be Billy Webb, Richard Stone, Antony Liece and Hulon Finke.

The first officially recorded game A&M ever played was against Ball High School in 1894. Although winning 14-6, the Aggies later the same season were smashed 38-0 by the University of Texas.
