Fancy-stepping Bobby Keith scored 22 points and a massive line held the Plowboys to four first downs as the A&M freshmen blanked John Tarleton, 34-0, last night.

Keith scored from the 12-yard line in the first quarter, from the eight in the second and from the nine in the third. He also kicked four out of five extra points.

The freshmen rolled up 15 first downs, almost all by rushing. The game was marked by frequent penalties, with the freshmen losing 125 yards and Tarleton 115 yards.

Fullback John Pardee, a bull-dozing fullback who plowed for yard after yard, bucked over from the three for the third Fish touchdown of the first half.

Pardee set up the first touchdown on a 56 yard run to the Tarleton 14.

Quarterback Charles Scott, a brilliant T-formation play-caller, scored from the one in the fourth quarter for the last score. End John Ray had blocked a Tarleton kick, with Eugene Stallings recovering on the one.

Keith's first quarter score finished an 82-yard drive. His second quarter six-pointer ended a 75-yard march. Pardee's touchdown climaxed a 62-yard march.

The Fish took the second half kickoff and went 63 yards. Don Carpenter, Scott and Keith worked the ball to the nine and Keith broke over right tackle for the score.

Scott's ball-handling, running and passing were outstanding. Carpenter and Pardee ran with sensational power, bouncing off tackler after tackler. Russell Moake and Bill Grandberry reeled off nice gains.

Guard Lloyd Hale was in on tackle after tackle. Tackles Bobby Lockett and Houston Green opened up gaping holes on offense and were seldom moved out of the play on defense. Guards Ben Bloomer and John Kuchler and center Walker Griffith also shone in the line.

Around Southwest Conference

Football 'Winners' Of Week Selected

By JERRY WIZIG
Battalion Sports Staff

For the first time this season all of the Southwest conference teams will be playing on the same weekend.

This is the SWC schedule for this weekend:

Baylor and Miami at Miami. (Friday).

Rice and Cornell at Ithaca, N.Y. TCU and Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Texas and Houston at Austin. SMU and Georgia Tech at Atlanta.

A&M and Georgia at Dallas. Miami, 27-0 victors over little Florida State last week, is primed and ready for the high-flying Bears.

Over 50,000 fans are expected in the Orange Bowl for the contest. The Hurricanes have a good passer in Don James, who completed nine of 16 last week. He broke the school passing record last year. Frank McDonald is one of the four fine pass catching ends on the team and is a good blocker and defensive player.

However, in spite of their fine passing attack and the home advantage, Miami just does not figure to have the defense to stop Baylor. And it will have to be the defense which stops the Bears, for few teams in the nation are able to trade touchdowns with a quartet like Francis Davidson, Jerry Coady, L. G. Dupre and Allen Jones.

The pick here is Baylor by 12 points, about 26-14.

Rice's Owls, despite spotting Cornell a long trip, are a solid two touchdown favorite over one of the top teams in the East.

Cornell, 27-7 winners over Colgate last week, has a fine fullback in Guy Bedrossian. He rushed for 248 yards and a 3.7 yard average per carry last year as a sophomore. Guard Len Oniskey is one of the finer linemen in the East.

With a two week gap between the Florida and Cornell games, the Owls should be in top shape and in good spirits. It's hard to see how the Big Red can defeat a team with the fine offense of Rice.

'Mural Divers' Qualify for Monday Finals

Qualifiers for intramural diving were selected in P. L. Downs Jr. natatorium last night.

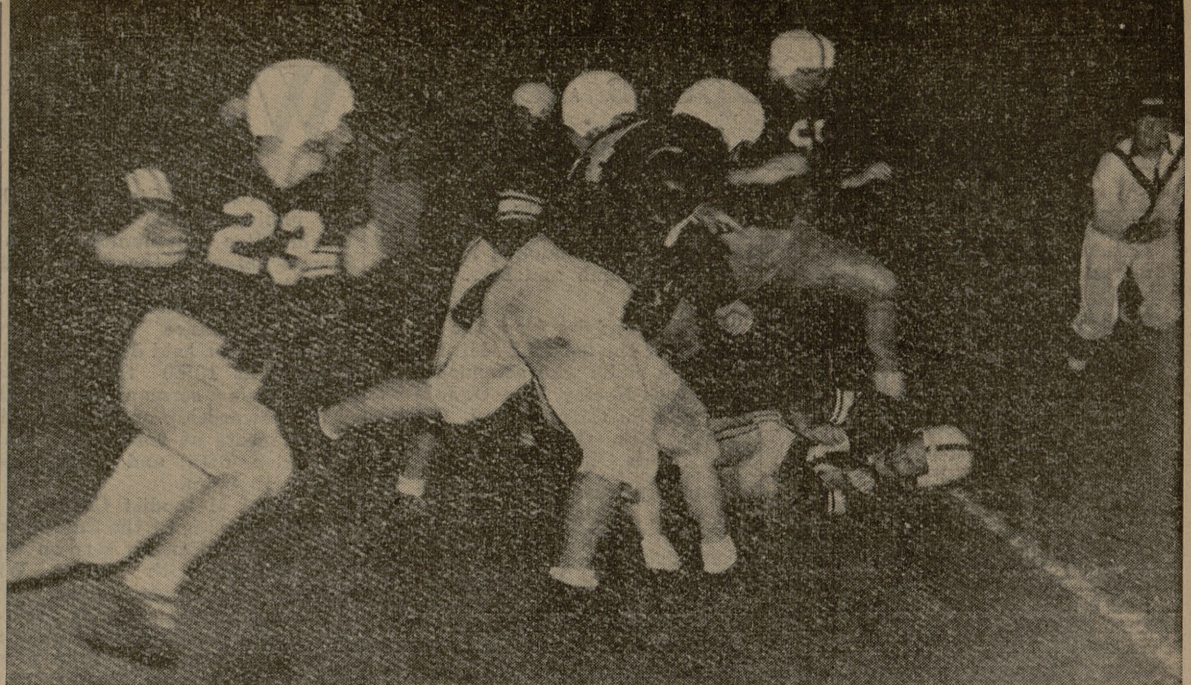

Upperclassmen who qualified were Coughran, dormitory 2; Marshall, squadron 15; Lee, squadron 13; Averitte, A armor; Sinclair, squadron 2; and Mitchell, A ordinance.

The freshmen who qualified were Martin, squadron 25; Khoury, E field artillery; Daniel, squadron 17; Janak, squadron 21; McCullough, company H; and Hendrix, squadron 19.

Officials for the diving meet included Emil Mamaliga, A&M diving coach, diving referee. Bill McCulley, assistant professor of mathematics, Bobby Johnson, '53 two year varsity diving letterman, and Bill Tutor, Aggie varsity diver, were the judges.

Finals in all swimming and diving competition will be held Monday night in the pool.

Intramural tennis and basketball for upperclassmen will begin Monday and Tuesday for the freshmen.

MOVING OUT—Bobby Keith (No. 23) sprints 23 yards on a punt return in the fourth quarter against John Tarleton behind three blockers. Taking the ball on his own 34, Keith cut down the right sideline, bounced off tacklers twice and put the ball on the Tarleton 43-yard line.

High-Scoring CHS Tigers Battle Hempstead Tonight

A&M Consolidated's rampaging Tigers, highest scoring high school football team in central Texas, square off against the Hempstead Bobcats tonight in Hempstead.

It will be fourth non-district game of the season for the Tigers. In their first three games, undefeated Consolidated has amassed 152 points to seven for their opponents for a 50.7 point scoring average.

The Tigers will have a highly-experienced, smooth-playing starting eleven, a fine defensive platoon and three of the leading scorers in central Texas.

Ten seniors will probably start against Hempstead on the offense. The lineup will be: ends, Bob Carter and Bob Jackson; tackles, Charles Johnson and Melvin Free; guards, George Sousares, and Jimmy Bond; center, Pinky Cooner; quarterback, Fred Anderson; halfbacks, William Arnold and Bobby Joe Wade; fullback, David Bonnen. Johnson is the only non-senior.

The air-tight defense has given up only 222 yards in three games, an average of only 74 yards per game. Madisonville was stifled on only four yards in the entire game.

Consolidated carries a record of 973 yards picked up offensively an average of 324.3 yards per game.

Wade is the sixth leading scorer in central Texas with six touchdowns for 36 points. Arnold and Bonne have scored 24 points on four touchdowns each.

The Bobcats hold a two year old jinx over the Tigers, tying them in 1952 and '51. The scores were 6-6 and 7-7. Katy beat Hempstead, 14-6, last week.
