Local Church Holds Revival

Revival is being held this week at the Church of the Nazarene, 207 Bizzell.

Theme for the revival, which is being led by the new pastor, Rev. Harold Carlisle, is "Harvest Passing Away."

Sgt. Gerald Wisdom of Bryan air force base is song leader.

Revival meetings begin at 7:30 p. m. all this week.

A game night directed by Randy Womack and Sandra Couch is the program for the Presbyterian student league meeting at 7 p. m. Wednesday.

The young people from the First Presbyterian church in Bryan will be guests of the College Station group.

Dr. Alfred Wells of the United Texas Drays will speak at the Wesley foundation meeting at 7:15 to-morrow evening. He will speak on the history and nature of alcohol as a beverage.

An open discussion will follow the talk. John Chapman is in charge of the program.

The Church Planning committee and the Church Building Finance committee will meet tonight at 7:30 at Our Savior's Lutheran church.

At 7:15 p. m. Wednesday the Lutheran Student Association will meet, and choir rehearsal will be at 8 p. m. Thursday.

Services will be held at 7:15 p. m. Wednesday and mass at 6:45 a. m. Friday at St. Mary's Catholic chapel. The Newman club will not meet this week.

The annual bishop's supper sponsored by the St. Thomas Episcopal chapel will be held at 7 p. m. tonight at Maggie Parker's dining room in Bryan.

The Rt. Rev. James Hunter, Bishop of Wyoming, will be the honored guest. Sixty-five guests have made plans to attend.

Canterbury club will meet at 6:30 p. m. Wednesday.

The Christian Science College organization will hold its monthly meeting at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the Memorial Student Center.

Hillel foundation will meet at 7:30 p. m. Wednesday at the MSC. Mrs. Sherwin Rubin will speak on Reconstructionism followed by an open discussion.

Coffee will be served after the program.

Two new gifts have been donated to the Memorial Student Center for the fireplace in the main lounge.

A large hand-tooled screen was given by the Odessa A&M Mother's club. The Fort Worth A&M Mother's club gave a hand-tooled planter to match the screen. The planter is 4 feet by 5 inches and has two removable containers.

"This will allow us to have a fire in the fire place a few times this winter," said J. Wayne Stark, MSC director.

Mrs. David Morgan will be hostess for the second Newcomer's club tea from 4 to 5:30 p. m. Wednesday at her home, 410 Throckmorton.

Mrs. K. L. Dixon, Newcomers' club president, invited all campus newcomers, but added a special invitation to the new staff members who were unable to attend the first meeting.

The club meets the first and third Wednesday of each month.

News Briefs

Harrington to Open Trinity Valley Exposition in Liberty

CHANCELLOR M. T. Harrington will officially open the 41st Trinity Valley Exposition, Oct. 14 in Liberty. Senator Price Daniel will ride in the opening parade and a short worship service will end the day.

Students participating in the project will meet at the Wesley foundation at 1:30 p. m. Saturday.

KIWANIS KAPERS has been set for Nov. 21, said Col Frank Anderson, chairman of the committee planning the arrangements. It will be held in the A&M Consolidated high school gymnasium. No other details have been worked out by the committee.

EMPLOYEES of the A&M System must pay $1 membership fee to teachers retirement each September, according to W. C. Freeman, comptroller. This answers many queries addressed to The Battalion about the $1 deduction in pay checks this month.

JOHN R. BIRDWELL, of 300 Suffolk St., has been elected a member of the American Society of Civil Engineers, the oldest national organization of engineers in the country.

RECENTLY employed as a typist-clerk in the Texas Engineers Library is Mrs. Ann H. Hinton. A native of Mart, Texas, she attended Texas State College for Women at Denton for three years. Her husband is a student in the School of Agriculture.

PUBLICKER Industries Inc. has given a $3,250 grant to A&M for investigating unidentified factors in poultry nutrition. Dr. J. R. Couch, professor of poultry husbandry, is in charge of the research.

J. C. BONSMMA, principal professional officer and animal husbandry research officer of Pretoria, South Africa, will speak in the lecture room of the Biological Sciences building at 6:30 p. m., Wednesday, Oct. 21. He will speak on "The Influence of Climate on Animal Production". The meeting is open to the public.

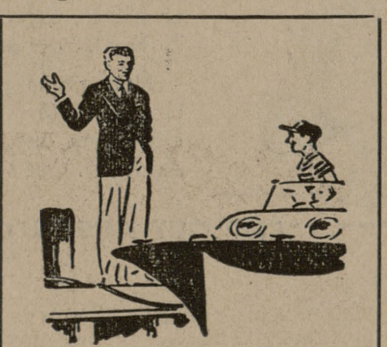

Eighteen Policemen Graduated Friday

Eighteen policemen from 14 Texas cities received certificates Friday from the Fourth Municipal Police Training school here. They attended the school for one month.

Directed by Wallace D. Beasley of the Engineering Extension service, the school was organized after a formal request by the Texas City Managers' association.

It provides officers and specialists from police departments all over the state as instructors. Attendance at each class is limited, to provide more individual attention and discussion.

Certificates were presented by H. A. Thomason, Bryan city manager.
