

A&M Employee Wed In Ceremony Sunday

The marriage of Miss Martha Jane Konecny and Troyce Lavon Stroud was solemnized in a ceremony at St. Joseph Catholic church in Bryan at 4 p. m. Sunday.

Miss Konecny, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve J. Konecny Jr., 1507 Sandy Point, has been employed by A&M College. The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Stroud, Throckmorton, was graduated from A&M in 1949.

The bride's gown was star white satin and lace. The scooped neckline was etched with chantilly lace, which continued over the shoulders to meet the tapered satin sleeves. The taut bodice dipped over the bouffant satin skirt. Twin panels of lace in the back blended into a full circular court train.

Her fingertip illusion veil fell from an oval Juliet cap, satin covered with lace, encrusted with seed pearls.

Chose Attendants

The bride chose Mrs. Ed Kosarek as her matron of honor. Her gown of dark champagne net over a ballerina length iridescent taffeta skirt was strapless with a net jacket. She wore brown shoes and carried pale pink carnations with brown streamers.

The bridesmaids, Misses Regina Stetz and Loretta Lamieck, wore identical dresses of pink net. They wore pink shoes and carried deep pink carnations with tan ribbons.

The bridegroom chose his brother, Frank Truman Stroud of Denver, as best man.

Ushers were James H. Konecny, Brother of the bride, and T. L. Farmer of Lott.

Father Tim Valenta officiated at the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. R. J. Newland played organ selections. Mrs. Virgil Mauldin sang "The Lord's Prayer" and Hubert Vykukal sang "Ave Maria."

Reception Held

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at St. Joseph's auditorium. Mrs. Kenneth Souter was in charge of the bride's book. Assisting in serving were Mesdames Roland Willis, Joseph Weaver, and Harry Rogers.

The couple will make their home in Amarillo where he is employed by the Pacific Finance company. He was a member of the Ross Volunteers while at A&M.

Mrs. Stroud was graduated from Stephen F. Austin high school. She was employed as illustrator in the photographic and visual aids department. She is a student of Art Instruction, Inc. and a member of the Aggie Players and the Memorial Student Center Art Gallery committee.

Prizes are being offered in the elementary grades, in junior high and in high school, according to Mrs. Walter Varvel, president of the A&M Consolidated Band Boosters. The organization is raising money to buy uniforms and new instruments.

"We expect to raise more than $800 for the band if College Station people support this project the way they always support anything connected with our school," Mrs. Varvel said.

"All of the advertising for the calendar has been sold, but we do need more people to list their birthdays, anniversaries and club meeting dates at 25 cents for each date," she said.

Deadline for all calendar sales and for listings is Wednesday, Oct. 21. Anyone not contacted by a school child may call Mrs. Varvel, or Mrs. E. W. Fleming at the school, to reserve a calendar or get an event listed.

Texas Garden Clubs Meet Here Wednesday

A meeting of Division two of the Texas Garden Clubs will be held Wednesday at the Memorial Student Center.

The meeting will open with registration and a coffee hour at 9:30 a. m.

The morning meeting will be held at 10 a. m. Mrs. Al B. Nelson, chairman of division two and a member of the A&M Garden club, will preside.

The invocation will be given by Mrs. D. W. Williams of Bryan and will be followed by a welcome from Mrs. Marion Pugh, president of the A&M Garden club.

A short business meeting will follow.

Mrs. J. W. Batts, program chairman for the meet, will then lead a forum on "Problems and Projects." Members of the horticulture and landscape architecture department at A&M will lead a horticulture forum.

Following a luncheon at noon, A. F. DeWerth, head of the floriculture and landscape architecture department, will speak on home landscaping.

At 1:30 p. m. there will be a special flower arrangement display.

Three Bryan Kids Win Essay Contest

Frankie J. Zemanek, eighth grade; Elaine Cargill, seventh, and Phyllis San Angelo, sixth grade, won first prize in the essay contest for Columbus Day held at St. Joseph's Parochial school in Bryan.

The contest was sponsored by the College Station council of Knights of Columbus. Raymond Brossard, grand knight, presented the awards.

Second place winners in the sixth, seventh and eighth grade are Sally Lehr, Kenneth Hallaran and Patricia Fridel.

Rummage Sale Here

St. Thomas Episcopal chapel is planning a rummage sale for this area.

Mrs. R. B. Evans, chairman, has asked people to bring any old household goods or clothing by the chapel parish home before Thursday night.

Date and place of the sale will be announced later.
