

Fish Try Comeback Against Wogs Tonight

Two of their best teams in recent years will take the field when the A&M Fish meet the TCU Polliwogs tonight at Kyle Field.

Kickoff time is 7:30 p.m. Holders of coupon books or ID cards will be admitted. Admission tickets are $1.

The Fish will be trying to rebound after a hard-fought 14-7 loss last week to the Baylor Cubs. The Wogs ran over John Tarleton State, 40-0, last week after the Fish had beaten them, 34-0, in the season opener.

Wog coach Fred Taylor has called his team the best one of recent years at TCU. Thirty-one players won all-district honors in high school, and the 39 man squad won a total of 296 high school letters.

Curtis Quarterback
TCU's split T formation has Charles Curtis at quarterback, James Swink and Dave Rutherford at the halfbacks and Jack Webb at fullback.

Webb was an all-stater at Fort Worth's North Side and was named the outstanding back of the coaches' school all-star game at Houston in August.

Norman Hamilton, 220 pound guard from Vanderbilt, was on the all-state team for two years. He heads a line that averages 210 pounds per man.

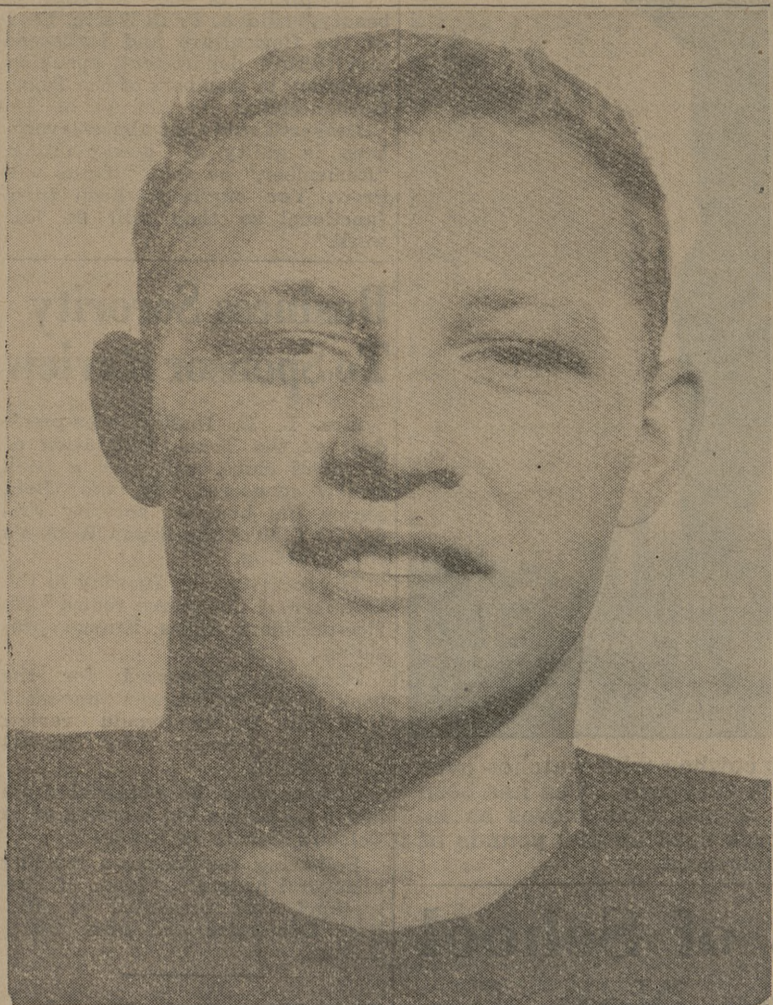

The Fish muffed several scoring chances against the Cubs. A fast-charging Cub line also held the ground game in check at vital spots in the game.

Pardee Leads Fish

Pounding Jack Pardee is the leading ground gainer for the Fish with 165 yards on 27 carries. Against Tarleton, he bulled his way for 97 yards on nine tries. He picked up 68 yards on 18 carries against the Cubs.

"We did all right against Baylor. Freshmen teams just aren't polished ball clubs," said Willie Zapalac, freshman coach.

Right guard Lloyd Hale, a standout in both games, may miss the Wog game because of an injury in practice. Jim Martin, 200 pounder from Houston, would replace him. (See FISH, Page 5)

Bennie Sinclair

Frogs Will Be 'High' For Cadets--Sinclair

TCU will be "high" for Saturday's game said Bennie Sinclair, leading Aggie pass-receiver. "After the near upset of Michigan State, the Horned Frogs will be in great spirit and will be out to win," Bennie said.

"A&M is definitely a title contender if everybody will play together and stay in top shape," said Sinclair.

"I think that the winner of the Southwest conference will have to be undefeated."

Sinclair has caught seven passes this year for 80 yards, one touchdown and an 11.4 yard average. He ranks fifth among the pass receivers in the conference.

Bennie was an outstanding freshman footballer two years ago. It was then that he received his greatest sport thrill. He caught a pass on the Baylor Cub 45-yard line and ran for a touchdown.

The 190 pound 6 feet, 2, junior is from Mineola, where he was a three year letterman and an all-stater in football. He also earned two or more letters in all the other major sports.

Fat Wallet Needed For Ag Road Trips

By BOB BORISKIE
Battalion Sports Editor

The Battalion has full authority to cover Aggie football games on the road, provided the student writer makes the trip on his own.

This policy, or rather lack of policy, was recently revealed when we applied for the trip to Lubbock to cover the Aggie-Texas Tech game for The Battalion.

Barlow (Bones) Irvin, athletic director, told us that it simply wasn't college policy to take student writers on such trips.

He took out a pencil and accounted for every seat on the plane. In fact, he came out with a surplus passenger, with 49 names to fill 48 seats.

Furthermore, he told us, our best bet would be to get student activities to pay our expenses for games away from home.

Since it obviously was impossible to make the Lubbock trip, we began to wonder about the game in Little Rock with Arkansas later in the season.

"Suppose," we asked, "that we get student activities to sponsor us for the Arkansas game. Will we have a chance to get on that plane?"

"Well, no," Irvin answered, and that was that.

Which leads up to the Jack Gallagher column on the sports page of Wednesday's Houston Post.

Gallagher quotes several passages from a new sports book by Richard I. Miller, titled, "The Truth About Big-Time Football," and discusses them freely.

Miller mentions an ad in the 1951 Baylor-SMU game program as proof that Baylor "has strong alumni support." A Waco jeweler offer, which was extended to 18 seniors, eight coaches, student managers, yell leaders and Dub King (Baylor sports director) was

"Football Demands Lot of Time"

Miller further says, "Big-time football demands an enormous chunk of the student's time," to which Gallagher answers, "So does every other campus activity. For example, you'll find that a person holding an executive position on a student daily newspaper puts in more time at his job than a football player. It's five or six days a week for most of them for the entire school year."

"In my opinion," Miller continues, "they (sports writers) favor continuance of bowl games primarily because many get free trips to one of the bowl games."

Gallagher's report was particularly interesting. He said, "This struck me as the most amusing line in the book. A team from this area recently took a trip. There were 52 seats on the plane, only 34 players were taken, plus a few coaches, student managers, trainers and sports writers."

Aggie Riflers Open With TCU In Fort Worth

The A&M varsity rifle team will open its season with a match with Texas Christian university in Fort Worth Saturday.

The Southwestern Rifle association match will be held in the TCU rifle range at 9 a. m.

Cadets attending the match will be composed of two five man teams and one alternate. The members of the squad include Guy Andrews, David Allen, Harry Gayden, Dan Grissom, Sidney Ferrill, Fred Galley, Bill Durrill, Don Dierschke, Carl Schlinke, Alfred Williams and Howard Mims.

High man for inter-squad competition was Andrews. He fired a 96 out of 100 in the offhand position to total 286 out of a possible 300 in the prone, kneeling and standing positions.

A&M Soccer Team Opens Season Sun.

The A&M soccer team will open its season Sunday against Chance-Vought Aircraft corporation in Dallas.

Tauber Street Gets New Surfacing

One block of Tauber St., between Sulphur Springs Road and Church St., is being refinished.

The street is between the A&M Methodist church and the College Station State Bank. It is being graded and graveled because it is "worn down," said Ran Boswell, College Station city manager.

Morrow, TCU Fullback, Leads Nation in Punting

A quiet, 180-pound senior from Paris who plays with head and foot has captured the fullback spot in TCU's new split T formation.

Sammy Morrow, a defensive specialist the last two years, has about convinced coach Abe Martin. The best punter in the U. S. after three games, Sam is also the Frogs' leading ball carrier with 126 net yards. He's lost only one yard in three tough games.

Although he had never kicked in a game before this season, Morrow has gone to town. He has booted eight times so far for the fine total of 399 yards and a 49.8 average. He is fast and steady in this department.

Best of all, so far as Martin is concerned, is Morrow's smart play. He is not too big for the tough linebacking job, but with intelligence he has been able to break up play after play, even against powerful Michigan State. And on offense, Morrow's timing is very good, and he makes up in agility what he lacks in pure power.

Teamed with Ray McKown, Morrow has given TCU great kicking. McKown booted five times for a 41.8 average and the overall Frog mark is 44 yards for 15 efforts. That's very good indeed.

"A good thing," said Martin. "We may have to punt a lot against the Aggies this week."

NEW YORK (AP)—The switch to a new college football season hasn't altered the defense strategy of the National Football League. The league's officials said today that the new season will be played under the same rules as the previous one.
