Eating in Duncan Is Satisfactory

By CHARLIE COBB Battalion Staff Writer

Dormitory 2 and 4 non-military students apparently are satisfied with the eating situation in Duncan hall. At least 87 per cent of them are. Of 30 students interviewed in the two dormitories, 22 of them plan to continue eating in Duncan. Eight are going to eat elsewhere. Their reasons for quitting the dining hall are nearly the same. Most of the quitters are dissatisfied with the meal ticket system which charges them for every meal whether they eat it or not. Of the eight, some are dissatisfied with the "inconvenience" of the schedule. Some said the quality of the food was bad on Sundays and breakfast. "It is convenient and I am satisfied with the food, but not with the meal ticket system," said Neil Beasley, junior electrical engineering major from Tyler. "The only merit I can see in the arrangement," said sophomore Merrill Cobb, "is its convenience; everything else is totally unsatisfactory." When asked what he thought of the system, David McCane, Columbus junior, replied, "What can you expect for 40 cents?" "It beats having to walk all the way to Sbis and then standing in line when you get there," was the comment of Harry Greenbaum of Tom River, N. J. Richard Driver, senior mathematics major said, I ate there for two years. It's bad enough to eat there, but when you have to pay for it, well that's too much."

UN Week Opened By Extension Club

A kickoff for United Nations week was the program for the meeting of the Extension Service club Thursday afternoon at the Memorial Student Center. Speaker was Capt. D. J. S. Roxa, Dutch liaison officer for Bryan air force base. He spoke on his impressions of the US and customs in Holland. The speakers' table carried out the UN theme with an American flag and a United Nations flag at each end of the table. It was decorated in blue and white. Club president Mrs. W. J. Moore was elected official delegate to the state convention of Federated Women's clubs to be held in Austin Nov. 9-12. The club members voted to take turns being hostesses one night a month at the USO. Following the meeting refreshments carrying out a halloween theme were served by the hostess Mesdames I. B. Boughton, D. W. Williams, A. H. Karcher, R. E. Hickerson, W. J. Moore, and J. E. Poore.

"It came as a complete surprise to me," he said when asked if he knew before hand of the sophomores' plan. Brandt does not know if the unit can carry out Mitchell's instructions by the time ordered. "It's a pretty big problem," he said, "but I think we will make it. The Corps of Engineers is noted for finishing its projects on time, and we don't intend to let down this reputation." The incident came about as a retaliation after someone swiped A Engineer's door cards. "Not knowing who did it, we took the entire corps," he said. "At first I was a little disgusted," Brandt said in explaining his feelings about the occurrence, "but as the day wore on, I began to think it was pretty good ball. Everyone seemed to take it O.K." Towels were placed at the bottom of each of the unit's doors. Brandt said they had been warned about a planned "float-out."

Tigers

(Continued from Page 1) Bond weighs 150 pounds and Sousares 145 pounds. Tackle Melvin Free, heaviest man on the squad at 215 pounds, is another big reason for the Tiger's superb line play. Free plays guard on defense and is rarely taken out of a play that goes through the line. He and Johnson have been outstanding in opening holes off tackle offensively. Center Pinky Cooner has been a steady performer all year in the middle of the offensive line. Tackles Douglas Norcross and Free and guards George Litton and Johnson from the middle of the defensive line that has smothered play after play in the middle. Fine Ends Bobby Carter and Oden are a pair of fine pass catching ends that block well on end runs. The starting lineup for the Tigers will be: Offense-Carter and Oden, ends; Johnson and Free, tackles; Bond and Sousares, guards; Cooner, center; Anderson, quarterback; Arnold and Wade, halfbacks; Bonnen, fullback. Defense-Richards and Carter, ends; Norcross and Free, tackles; Litton and Johnson, guards; and Roland Beasley, Arnold, Anderson, Bonnen and Robert Cleland, secondary.

THE CANDLE BURNS LOW. If candles were your only source of light, and this were your last candle, you would find little comfort in the glimmer of its dying light. When the candle burns low, darkness is too near. Light has for centuries been a symbol of man's spiritual resources. But in the lives of some of us the candle is burning dangerously low... One bright Sunday—a month, or a year, or a decade ago—we felt sure of unlimited spiritual resources. Today we pause and wonder. In this frightening world faith flickers, and the rays of hope don't always penetrate the walls of despair. The candle need not go out! With an urgency matching the seriousness of our lifetime, the Church calls us to replenish the Light of our lives. A new candle... deeper faith... braver courage... brighter hope... these await us each Sunday in Church.
